The Democratic Party is in your corner!

Remember...The Golden Era

The twenty years of Democratic Party leadership under Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S Truman have aptly been called the "golden era of human rights." These two great Democratic Presidents added humanity to the science of government. They made government work for YOU and not just the few.

DEMOCRATS opened top policy jobs to Negroes; ended discrimination in federal employment and fathered FEPC.

DEMOCRATS desegregated the Armed Services. Today's Army, Navy and Air Force integration results from Executive Order 9981 issued by President Harry S. Truman.

DEMOCRATS pioneered the field of low-cost housing and slum clearance; gave birth to Social Security.

DEMOCRATS appointed liberal justices to the Supreme Court who gave new vitality to the opinions of the Court.

DEMOCRATS honored all war veterans with the GI Bill of Rights.

Still in your corner

The Democratic Party is still in your corner. The record of this year's Democratic Congress has again proved that Democrats in office mean money in your pocket.

DEMOCRATS expanded the Social Security System to include 9 out of 10 workers. Women are now eligible to retire at age 62 and disabled persons at age 50.

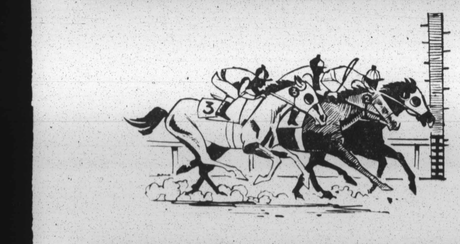
DEMOCRATS raised the minimum wage from 75 cents to $1.

DEMOCRATS passed a highway-building program which will provide work in areas of serious unemployment.

DEMOCRATS provided free polio vaccine through cash grants to states; increased funds for medical research to combat the nation's top killers, cancer and heart disease.

DEMOCRATIC Governors of Pennsylvania, Michigan, New Jersey and New York, following in the tradition of Roosevelt and Truman, have made state governments work for YOU and not just the few.

YOU...Play it across the board



The return is always greater when you play your politics across the board. Bread and butter issues plus civil rights makes good sense. "Tight-money" and "trickle-down" government is not for you. See what has happened:

HOUSING—key to integration

- Republicans stopped the low-cost housing program. Eisenhower fired one Frank Horne for insisting on a policy of non-discrimination.

PRICES—highest in history

- The cost of living is up. Credit buying costs you more. Taxes are higher. Rent and food are up. Your dollar is down.

SCHOOLS—your child's future

- One child in five is in a tiretrap building. Double sessions and "practice teachers" rob Negro children of their bright future.

FULL EMPLOYMENT—the right to suffer

- In some areas 42 per cent of the working force is unemployed. Republicans believe "the right to suffer is one of the joys of a free economy."

PROSPERITY—"for who?"

- "Prosperity for who?" demanded Manhattan Borough President Italan Lack. "Have you been able to save any money?" "NO," thundered 20,000 Harlemites attending a recent Democratic rally in New York City.

STEVENSON IS RIGHT ON CIVIL RIGHTS

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, the first lady of the world, has said of Adlai E. Stevenson: "I know that he believes we must be a nation with equality and justice for all our citizens."

STEVENSON believes the Supreme Court decision is right.

STEVENSON, as a Governor, ordered desegregation of schools long before the Supreme Court decision.

STEVENSON, as a Governor, ordered desegregation of the National Guard.

STEVENSON, as a Governor, had assigned deputies for the first time to investigate civil rights abuses.

STEVENSON, as a Governor, ordered the National Guard to protect Negroes against violence and restore order in the Cicero race riots.

NOW YOU KNOW — What does a young college student wear when she attends a football game on the campus? While we can't say what each individual one-will wear, we can offer these young ladies as typical of the Morgan State College coeds who attended Saturday's game against Howard. Left to right: Misses Helen Jones, freshman, physical education major; Rita Skerrett, sophomore, music major; Vera Burrell, freshman, chemistry; Ruth Simms, junior, biology.

TEEN AGE MEDLEY

By LAVANIA RICE

"Slaughter on Tenth Ave." was nothing compared to what the Morgan Bears did to Howard on Saturday with a score of 41 to nothing.

Miss Rice

Arthur Jackson, 525 Robert St., had quite a few guests down for the game and weekend. His visitors were Betty, Perry, Billy Hopkins of Philadelphia; Sylvia White of Chester, Pa.; Elnora Edwards of Delaware, Estella Anderson, Aretta Cornish, Valeria Holland, Charles Henry, Milton Wingate, Robert Taylor, all of Cambridge, Md.

On Friday night Arthur gave a party. On Saturday night there was Morgan's victory dance and the Kappa dance.

Sunday, after they attended church, they were entertained by Jack Barnes of Washington, ended their stay with a movie party at the Regent. I'm sure there are at least 10 people who know how fine Baltimore's hospitality really is.

MISS ALICETEEN BROWN of Annapolis also came up for the weekend.

Guess who was in town? That's right—Howard Gaskins. Howard was home on leave for a few days. We all hated to see him leave on Thursday but he will be back. Howard was also at the game at Morgan. He looked quite well in his uniform. From me and all the kids: "Howard be sweet and hurry back."

Back to the subject of football and Friday's game at Easterwood Park between Douglass and Carver. If you were there you know what I am talking about. Many people enjoy attending games at Easterwood, but from the way some of the kids acted you would never know it.

Many of you know that some of the things that went on were quite unnecessary. You all know how to enjoy yourselves and have all the fun in the world without going to the extreme or acting like "Jeekies."

So be "wise" and not "otherwise." But most of all don't be a Bunny.

TO END this most enjoyable weekend, Julia Butler had a little social gathering. Some of her guests were Jackie Johnson, Hilda Nelson, Ellen Bowser, Annie Irby, Dorothy Ransom, Una Dobson, Barbara Allen, Evelyn Brown, Jenette Bady, James Baker.

Also Ernest Shields, Sonders Coy, James Edmond, Johnnie Quarles, Bernard Payne, Albert Pasture, Richard Rawlings, Thomas McPherson, Rodney Douglass, Isaac Gray, Albert Hawkins, James Montague, and last of all, but not least, Charles Jefferson.

Principal denies trouble reports

"They are definitely not true."

Mrs. Anne L. Barlage, principal of Garrison Junior High School, was referring to reports of trouble at her school when she made this statement on Thursday.

Earlier this week, there had been reports by parents of pupils at both the Garrison School, at Garrison Blvd. and Barrington Rd., and the Gwynns Falls Park Junior High, Hilton and Morley Sts., that outsiders had been annoying their children after they left school and they had asked for police guards to prevent any trouble.

CAPT. JOSEPH A. BAROCH of the Southwestern District said that he had assigned several men to the Gwynns Falls School, while an officer in the district feared for their safety.

At neither of the two schools were the officials able to say what had caused the rumors but they did admit that the reports had reached their ears. Northwestern District said the same protective measures had been taken at Garrison.

Captain Baroch said he understood there had been rumors of an impending fight at Gwynns Falls on Tuesday and that his men had dispersed a group of pupils who showed up from other schools.

"They said they had heard there was to be a fight. They didn't know what it was all about but we sent them home and there was no trouble."

THE FIRST indication of any disturbance at the schools came when a Gwynns Falls parent complained to the NAACP that her children had been struck while on the way home from school.

She reported that policemen were on duty at the school but their activities consisted of keeping the children on the move. The persons responsible for the blows were identified as non-pupils at Gwynns Falls.

Another report came from a Clifton Ave. mother with children in the Garrison School who said her children had been annoyed by a group of rowdies outside the school.

In both instances the parents expressed concern over the safety of their children.

AT THE Gwynns Falls School, Harry Chayt, teacher, declared Tuesday, "Reports of disturbances have been played out of proportion.

"We did have a couple of disturbances from outsiders.

"Last Thursday a couple of kids were grabbed and an attempt was made to take their money.

"I talked with the captain of the district and he said he would keep a lookout.

"We think it's best not to release any more newspapers stories," Mr. Chayt said.

Selective Service test for students scheduled

According to the Maryland Director of Selective Service, students eligible for the November 15 Selective Service Qualification Test must submit their applications by October 30.

Students whose academic year ends in January are urged to take the November 15th test so they will have a test score on file at their local boards before the end of their academic year.

At that time, boards reopen and reconsider their cases to determine whether students should again be deferred.

A student may obtain an application from any Selective Service local board. It is not necessary to obtain the application from his own local board.

STUDENTS WILL mail applications for the November 15 test to "Selective Service, Examining Section, 500 Main St. McHenry, Illinois," in preaddressed envelopes which will be given to registrants by local boards.

Bulletins of information concerning the test are also available at the local boards.

To be eligible to apply for the Selective Service Tests, the student must: (1) Intend to request deferment as a student (2) Be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction (3) Have not previously taken the College Qualification Test.

Undergraduate students making a grade of 70 or above on the College Qualification Test or maintaining grades which place them in specified percentages of their classes, may be considered for educational deferment by their local boards.

Students accepted for admission to or in attendance at a graduate school are also considered for deferment on the basis of the score made on their College Qualification Test, or on their class standing during the last full-time undergraduate academic year at college.

A student deferment is not the last full-time undergraduate academic year at college.

A student deferment is not an exemption. A deferment is a delay or postponement and in no way cancels the duty of the registrant to serve two years on active duty. It automatically extends his liability to the age of 35.

Expert sees no one cause for juvenile delinquency

There is no single cause of juvenile delinquency or a single cure.

This was one of the conclusions reached today (Friday) by Dr. Leon Eisenberg, associate professor of psychiatry and pediatrics at Johns Hopkins University, as he addressed a luncheon meeting held in conjunction with the annual convention of the Maryland State Teachers Association.

Dr. Eisenberg said that delinquency stems from factors such as poor social and economic conditions, collapse of community moral values, personal maladjustments and organic physical damange.

He said that each individual case of delinquency must be treated as an individual problem and help can be found in such things as better housing, better schools, increased recreational facilities, better training schools for juvenile offenders, and screening centers in which youngsters can be diagnosed to determine what causes their anti-social behavior.

THE MEETING at which the Hopkins professor spoke was one of a series of similar sessions held today for the estimated 14,000 teachers attending the convention.

Each of the sessions dealt with a specific subject field and was addressed by an expert in that field.

The convention itself opened on Thursday afternoon with an address by General Carlos P. Romulo, Philippine ambassador to the United States.

Headquarters for the teachers is the Fifth Regiment Armory where educational exhibits have been arranged for the teachers and where the general sessions are being held.

In order to enable Baltimore's teachers to attend the convention, local schools closed on Thursday afternoon and remained closed all day today.

The convention is scheduled to end tomorrow at the Armory following a 10:30 a.m. address by Harold R. Benjamin, chairman of the Division of Social Foundations of Education, George Peabody College for Teachers.

continue operation Greek letter groups

The Pan Hellenic Council at Morgan State College took no action at its Monday meeting in the current disagreement between the college's Greek letter groups and school officials.

Instead, the meeting, the first to be held this semester, was taken up with routine details of organization and orientation.

The matter of the Greek letter organizations was handed to the group by Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, after he rescinded the suspension of three fraternities, Kappa Alpha Psi, Alpha Phi Alpha, and Omega Psi Phi.

THE SUSPENSION had been ordered by Dean George C. Grant with the allegation that the trio had violated a code which prohibited secret probation periods and physical punishment of prospective members.

However, on Friday Dr. Jenkins overturned the action of Dean Grant and the matter was referred to the Council with the groups reinstated pending the action of the Council.

The question of the fraternities is expected to be raised at a future meeting of the Council at which time it is expected that a report will be made on the alleged complaints.

All Greek letter groups on the campus were suspended last year after there had been complaints that they were responsible for a lowering of the marks of prospective members and abusing such persons.

They were reinstated later in the year when they signed a new code of conduct.
