Morgan seeking first win in 29th homecoming game

The Morgan State College Bears will be seeking their first win of the '56 campaign Saturday October 13 in their homecoming contest with Howard University at 2 p.m. in Hughes Memorial Stadium.

Defeated once and tied once in their only two games, the Bears are hoping to break into victory column by way of an improved backfield which Coach Eddie Hurt said Tuesday 'has come a long, long way since our last game with North Carolina College on September 29.'

In the North Carolina stalemate, Morgan fumbled through to a 6-6 tie and could easily have overpowered the Eagles with more-experienced play.

"The greenness of our new boys," said coach Hurt, "showed through and we did commit some mistakes, but they were mistakes of commission.

"The boys made them trying to do something. That's always a good sign.

"We think we've smoothed out the errors and we're now ready for tough competition," the Morgan pilot declared.

* * *

IN THE forthcoming contest, the 29th meeting between the colleges, it is expected that Jerry McArthur will hit his peak to fire the backfield to action.

While McArthur has made brilliant runs and played a strong game both offensively and defensively, so far this season, he has not hit his stride.

"With more seasoned play from his mates in the backfield, we think McArthur will be used more effectively Saturday," Coach Hurt said.

McArthur, a senior from Dunbar High, was one of the best ball carriers and biggest ground gainers in the CIAA last year, and one of the highest point scorers.

He's been a star of the Morgan backfield for three consecutive years.

* * *

ANOTHER good sign that the Bears may be ready as a whole to hit their stride is the consistently improved play of Bear quarterback Henry (Goose) Smith, 165-pounder from Portsmouth, Va.

A good passer and a deceptive ball handler, Smith showed some of his ability in the North Carolina College game, connecting beautifully with end Joe Buckson of Baltimore for Morgan's sole tally.

The coaches report that in practice Smith seems to be coming along "just fine."

Morgan's rugged line again will be buttressed by big 270-pound tackle William (Tiny) Gordon, senior co-captain from Aberdeen, Md., and star end Jackson Rozier, 198 pound, six-foot, five incher, and Buckson.

In the clash, which will be surrounded by all the hoopla of a real old fashioned homecoming, Morgan will be seeking its 16th win against the Bisons.

To date the Bears have won 15, lost 10 and tied three in the Howard series.

* * *

While Howard has had a bad season, the Morgan coaching staff expects stiff competition since Howard always plays up for Morgan.

Moreover, scouts report that the Howard team, which has lost all three of its previous games, is a much better team than the scores indicate.

Morgan scouts have branded as particularly dangerous Bison fullback Robert Brown, a 20-year-old 200 pounder from Brooklyn, N.Y., and sophomore halfback Arthur Van Brackle, from Armstrong High in D.C.

Coach Hurt has announced that the Bears will open with their usual starting lineup.

LEXINGTON CENTER

The first "Co-ed Recreation Night" of the season was held recently at the Lexington. Over 100 teenagers participated in the games and activities.

Among the games played were ping pong, badminton, checkers, whist and pinochle.

The champions were in ping pong, Joseph King, checkers, Lester Bryant; pinochle, Saul Comegys; partners in pinochle, Stanley Leager and Lester Bryant, whist, Roosevelt Keys and Jerome Wilson; badminton, Elliott Ward and Thomas Sie in doubles, and Edward Generette in the single.

The Pennalton, former leader here at Lexington Center, gave an exhibition in ping pong to other players during the evening.

One hundred and fifty persons attended a ping pong exhibition at the center last week.

Leaders in charge were: Miss D. A. Jeffries, W. B. Carr, Mrs. T. M. Millard, and William Gardner, recreation leaders. Christo L. Waller is senior center director.

CARVER CENTER

A "Flower Arrangement Workshop" is being conducted at Carver under the direction leadership of Miss A. L. Allen.

The 15 members have already turned out many creations using fruits, flowers, accessories and dried materials.

Among those attending the workship are Mesdames Mary J. Brown, Mamie Butcher, Elhela Bond, Mazie A. Barbour, Mary Burns, Elizabeth Dunbry, W. M. DeShields, Mary Homes, W. M. DeShields, Mary Homes, Katherine Gross, Christine Worsley, Myrtle Smith, Martha J. Thompson, Alice Turnspeed, Marie McClain and Mrs. Mary Owens.

Classes are held each Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Carver Rec Center, at Pressman and Bantalon Sts., under the auspices of the Bureau of Recreation.

Spider Webb dumps Cotton in 10-round televised fight

CHICAGO (Special) — Ellsworth (Spider) Webb, 25-year-old Chicago middleweight, Wednesday night, met and stood another test in his surge up the middleweight ladder.

The willowy Webb racked up his 11th win in 18 pro fights as he out-boxed and outpunched "Spoiler" Charlie Cotton of Toledo, Ohio, in the Chicago Stadium here.

Only last month, Webb, who holds a decision over Bobby Boyd, No. 2 ranked middleweight, outpointed Rory Calhoun in another hard-fought battle in the same stadium. He snapped Calhoun's win streak at 22 straight.

* * *

WEBB GOT off to a slow start, but came on fast in the late rounds to win the unanimous decision. His body attack slowed up Cotton and set him up for right hand punches.

In the seventh round it looked as though Webb would put his man away, but Cotton rallied and came out strong for the eighth.

Webb suffered a slight cut over the left eye in the eighth, but otherwise was unmarked. Cotton bled frequently from the mouth.

* * *

THE VICTORY over Cotton put Webb, No. 7 middleweight contender, in a commanding position to bid for title honors because Cotton holds two decisions over Joey Giardello. Giardello recently stopped Boyd in a TKO.

Webb said afterwards that he was ready to fight anyone, including Champion Sugar Ray Robinson. "When I'm in shape, I am ready to fight anybody," he said.

Describing Cotton as "a difficult man to fight," Webb said he thought the Ohioan is much smarter than Calhoun. He said, however, Calhoun is a much rougher fighter.

* * *

COTTON SAID he couldn't solve Webb's style. "I should have beat him," Cotton remarked with blood still spurting from cuts inside his lips.

"He is awkward, but uses his awkardness to his own advantage." Asked if he thought Webb is ready for a tough fighter like Giardello, Charlie explained that Ellsworth, with his difficult style, might upset anyone.

A small ringside crowd of 1,611 witnessed the nationally televised bout. The gross receipts were $1,722, and the net $1,435. Each fighter received $1,000 from the radio-television fee, plus a percentage of gate.

Sandlot gridders set to fight for league lead

More unbeaten elevens are expected to fall by the wayside Saturday on local sandlot gridirons.

First place will be at Herring Run Park.

Both elevens have won two games in a row in the major sandlot circuit.

The Four Beshe Brothers will face the Ramblers in another important Monumental League contest Saturday at the Druid Hill Park Enclosure.

The South Baltimore team has won and lost a game while the Ramblers have suffered a tie and lost a 2-0 decision to Wildwood.

* * *

TO ROUND out the Monumental League program, Carrolls and the Harlem Bears will clash at Easterwood Park.

Carrolls have lost one game and tied another while the Bears have dropped two in a row.

In the feature game in the Baltimore Club Loop, Arcadia will meet Dundalk-Sparrows Point at Penwood Park.

Both clubs jumped off fast last week as Gus Williams eleven beat the Canton Wildcats 14 to 0 and the County team swamped the Northwestern Police Boys Club 40 to 0.

The Mustangs, also a winner last week, will tackle Dauphins at Bloomingdale Oval in another important Club Loop contest.

The Dauphins dropped a hard fought game to Arbutus last week and may prove troublesome for the Mustangs.

* * *

IN THE other Baltimore Club tilt, Canton will meet the Northwestern Police Boys Club at Canton Oval at 3 p.m.

Moving to the Baltimore Junior League, the first division elevens will face those lower down in the circuit.

Triangle fresh from its one point victory over Linthicum will tackle the Southern Police Boys Club at Swann Park at 1 p.m.

Arbutus a winner over the Sparrows Point Y, will meet Stoney Creek at the George Fox High School Grounds.

The Green Waves idle last week will play Linthicum at Linthicum at 1 p.m.

Only four midget contests are scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

The single tilt in the Maryland Loop will bring together Canton and Dobkin at Canton Oval.

Canton will be seeking its second straight win while Dobkin will be out for its first league victory.

* * *

IN THE Optimist Midget race, Hamilton will play Govans at Dewees Field in the feature game in that circuit. The Harford Roaders opened the league campaign last week with a 15 to 0 win over Middle River, while the York Roaders battled a strong Northwood eleven to a 7-7 tie.

Belair, a winner over the St. Ursula-Parkville eleven, will meet Northwood at Burdick Park in another important Optimist fray.

Micklle River will play Parkville-St. Ursula at Martin Park to roundout the afternoon's program.

Players will get larger Series pay

BROOKLYN, N.Y. — Indications are that members of both teams participating in the 1956 World Series will pick up larger checks than received from last year's playoff when their pay was the second biggest in history.

In 1955, the World Champion Brooklyn Dodgers received $9,768.21 each. The losing shares to the Yankees amounted to $5,598.58 apiece.

But those divisions were from a total player pool of $654,853.59, whereas this year's pool is a healthy $693,561.53—roughly $38,708 more. Competing players share only in receipts from the first four games.

Highest player shares in series history went to the New
