Vital Statistics

(Continued from page 25)

Milbourne, 27, 400 N. Stricker St., gunshot wound of left knee.

Raymond Roberts, 48, 1412 N. Parrish St., stab wound; David Nickins, Jr., 21, 1110 N. Carey St., chest.

Finger: Clarence Butler, 22, 1900 Rock Alley, stabbing; Ernest Lee, 30, 1000 block of Mertle Ave., left hand; Mrs. Frances Brown, 32, 900 block Arlington Ave., left, hurt hand.

POLICE COURT

The following cases were listened to Tuesday and Wednesday in Northwestern District Court:

Edward Broumsick, 42, 1400 block Maywood Ct., breaking and entering in the daytime a dwelling house in the 300 block of Stockton St., disorderly conduct.

Theodore Bishop, 29, 2600 block Woodbrook Ave. was fined $25 after a lady in the 600 block N. Fulton Ave. identified him as the man she saw trying to raide her bedroom window.

John Wesley Alant 28, 950 block N. Mount St. was fined $50 for possession of a loaded pistol.

George Thomas Jr., 22, 400 block Robert St. was held for the grand jury on a $2,500 bail after police testified that they observed him pushing an automobile, without authorization that turned out to belong of Hercules Riley, of the 400 block Laurens St.

Mr. Riley said: "I had all the doors locked and the key in my pocket. I don't know the defendant."

For street fighting Lawrence Huey, 18, 900 block N. Payson St. and Alfred Smith, 22, 1800 block Pennsylvania Ave. were arrested by Officer Arthur Butler. Each was fined $25.

"This man's been in the house where we live since December. He says bad things and calls me bad names." This testimony by Mrs. Betty Perkins, 900 block Bennett Pl., caused Alfred Burnside, 38, also in the Bennett Pl. address to be fined $50 for disorderly conduct.

"I dare you to lay your hands on her," the magistrate told William Thomas Bess, 35, 800 block Bradley St. and continued his problem for eight months after the defendant's wife, Dorothy, testified that he had struck her.

Janet William Johnson, 21, 700 block Vincent St., three months in the House of Correction for drinking and pushing Mrs. Minnie Carson, sister of the defendant, off a porch.

JAMES HARRIS, 51, 200 block McCulloh St., disorderly conduct, $15 fine.

Edward Louis Courts, 31, 1400 block McCulloh St., a taxi-cab driver was fined $10 for failure to keep a meter to compute a legal rate of fare.

Three youths Luther Crawford, 1500 block Madison Ave., Norman Harris, 21, 1400 block Madison Ave and Raymond Morgan, 17, 1500 block Madison Ave. were dismissed on disorderly conduct charges.

However, Defendant Crawford was fined $25 for assaulting Officer Edward Morgan and fined $15 for possession of a butcher knife.

Donald W. Reiss, 1200 block Linden Ave., drunk, $20 suspended; Thomas Lawrence, 900 block Harlem Ave., disorderly conduct $10 fine.

Leroy Fox, 1700 block N. Smallwood St., striking Paul Gray, 2200 block Presbury St., $25 fine.

The following cases were heard Thursday in Northwestern District Court:

"I found it lying alongside the gutter. I did not pay it."

"You had it in your possession. It's against the law to carry a knife in your possession."

This discourse took place between Charles Campbell, 31, 800 block N. Carey St. and the magistrate.

Mr. Campbell was fined $15 for possession of a deadly weapon, a dirk knife.

"In the future when you get in a cab have the money. This is advice the magistrate gave Theodore Steadwell, 41, 900 block W. Cross St.

A $10 fine was suspended for Mr. Steadwell provided he pay Calvin-A. Holt, 1400 block N. Carey St., $3.50 due him as cab fare.

Magistrate Henry L. Rogers heard the following cases at Northern:

Edward A. Winfield, 37, of the 500 block W. Lafayette Ave. was sentenced to 60 days in jail Sunday for assaulting the superintendent of his apartment house in the 2500 block Eutaw Pl.

James C. Little testified that Winfield, a janitor in the building had been drinking and struck him when he was told to go home.

The court was told that Winfield was on parole after his conviction on charges of killing James C. Fenwick, an auxiliary policeman ten years ago.

MAGISTRATE SAMUEL GAROFF heard the following cases at Southern:

On Tuesday, Miss Rose Mae Harris of the 800 block S. Sharp St. was fined $25 and costs for disorderly conduct.

Charged with creating a disturbance at her home in the 900 block Hanover St., Miss Mildred Morris was fined $25 and costs Tuesday.

Amos William Barnes of the 2400 block Round St., was fined $25 and costs Tuesday for disturbing the peace at his home in Cherry Hill.

Miss Helen Fay Armistead of the 200 block S. Sharp St. was fined $25 and costs for disturbing the peace at her home.

Theodore I. Turner of the 100 block Bruce St., was fined $5 and costs Wednesday for disturbing the peace.

MAGISTRATE Vernon Wiesand heard the following cases at Pine St.:

Arrested for allegedly throwing a tub of boiling water on her husband, Walton Reed, charges against Mrs. Juanita R. Reed of the 100 block Rona St., were dismissed on Tuesday.

Charged Tuesday with failing to provide for the support of two minor children, Mr. Robert Lee D. Flowers, 21, of the unit block E. Carlton St. and Mr. Leon Flowers, Jr., 22, 400 block Carlton St. was fined $10 and costs for disturbing the peace Tuesday.

CHARGED WITH disturbing the peace at a hotel in the 1000 block E. Lanvale St., and striking three policemen, Mr. Leroy Jackson, 30, of the 200 block E. Lanvale St., was fined $75 and costs Tuesday at Pine St.

Charged with disturbing the peace at his home in the 1000 block Bradley St., Mr. Alvesta Evans and Miss Bernice Kennedy were each fined $25 and costs Wednesday.

Charges that Miss Kennedy kicked Mr. Evans and that he cut her with a pen knife were dismissed.

Cases tried before Judge Paul Mason were heard Wednesday in Northwestern District Court.

"Yesterday evening about 6:30 I came upon Mr. Watson fast asleep in Harlem Square. He had a half-pint bottle of wine in his pocket."

Officer James Gordon was speaking against Floyd Watson, 35, 400 block N. Carrollton Ave.

"Parks are not for drunks. Children have a right to play there. You go in somebody's home." the magistrate said as he fined Mr. Watson $25.

Jermont Chambers, 23, 600 block N. Mount St., who was charged with the larceny of a $40 radio from Mrs. Margie Bruce, 900 block Linden Ave., was ordered to repay her at the rate of $5 a week, at least.

"I've got my wife and children to feed. What is a man to do?"

This question was put to the court by Mr. Charles Cooper, 1400 block Druid Hill Ave., who was charged with assaulting his wife, Nicholas C. Cooper, 2 years old.

Charged with disturbing the peace at his home in the 2400 block Druid Hill Ave., Mr. Cooper was fined $25 and costs.

Charges that Mr. Cooper struck his son, Nicholas C. Cooper, 2 years old, were dismissed