Alfred Prettyman to study at Cornell on Noyes Award

with Lula Jones Garrett

The Jessie Smith Noyes Foundation has recently awarded Alfred E. Prettyman a $1000 scholarship to attend Cornell University, where he will begin four years of graduate studies leading to the Ph.D degree in philosophy.

When graduated from Hamilton College in June, Mr. Prettyman won the 97th senior Class Clark Prize Oration with a speech entitled "An American Philosophy." He also received the Senior Class Dale Prize in Music.

Under the auspices of the American Friends, Mr. Prettyman spent this summer with work camp groups in France, Holland, Belgium and Germany. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Prettyman of North Schroeder Street.

THE SABBATH Day was a high day at St. James Episcopal Church . . . it having taken on a decided family air.

Farewell corporate Communion was held at the early morning service for young people of the parish who are going to colleges . . . and later they were guests at breakfast in the Choir Room.

Among them were Bettye Goodson, Joan Hobday, Barbara Ann Tabb, Bettye Ann Phillips and J. Edward Boston, who will attend Coppin Teachers College; Carl Edward Smith, Verna Mitchell, and Sinclair O. Swan, Morgan State College:

Jocelyn and Catherine Dawson and Allen Shoemaker, Howard University; Roslyn Stewart, Ithaca College; Alice Ford, Boston University; Warner Traynham, Dartsmouth, Wesley Sullivan, Trinity College; Harel Stewart, Rochester School of Music; and Doris Oswell, Wilson College.

At the 11 a.m. service, Robert A. Bennett, Jr. Middler at General Theological Seminary, was the speaker . . . and the whole congregation sat back and fairly beamed . . . Mr. Bennett being one of their own, who has grown up in the congregation.

At five in the afternoon, the Woman's Auxiliary held its fourth annual tea, with their special guest being Father Leonard Anderson, former curate, who has recently been assigned to St. Matthews Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Vernice Wynn heads the Auxiliary . . . and the tea was beautifully done, with music by Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair Swann, she providing piano selections, and he singing.

Dr. C. R. Campbell presented a set of vestment to Father Anderson, a gift from the Vestry. Samuel Phillips spoke of honoree's services at St. James.

Father Cedric Mills is rector.

SUNDAY WAS also a high fashion day . . . since some scores of women sped out to Johnsons Farm to see the parade of styles presented by Pauline Brooks, the chic hats of Nell Sheridan, and Travis' shoes.

Tea warmed the guests, physically, and a bevy of models warmed them fashion-wise. The latest loafing togs, casual; street frocks, coats and suits and evening gowns were displayed by Gwendolyn Atkinson, Gloria Baden, Marie Hawkins, Hilda Kelson, Shirley Lassiter, Mae Leonard, LaBetta Malth, Frances Steptner, Joan Stevenson, Helen Tucker and Melince Verrell.

Mazie Barbour did the commenting, and Helena Edmonds, Loretta Steele, Sue Branson, Louise Gustus, Vera Hudnell, Elizabeth Bartz and Ruth Bailey, in the role of hostesses, saw to it that the niceties were dispensed. Pauline chose exactly the right title "Simply Elegant" for her show. It was simply that.

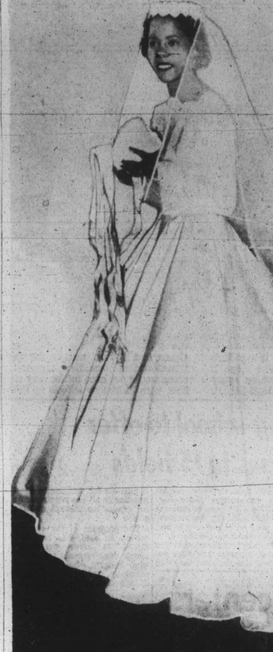
Miss Jenkins, Mr. Allmond wed 'omorrow, honeymoon in Cuba



WEDS TOMORROW—Miss Marian Jenkins, manager of the AFRO-AMERICAN Classified Department (Our Mits Marian) who will become the bride of Henry H. Alimond, business manager of the Barrett School for Girls, tomorrow (Saturday) in the Union Baptist Church. Her traditional wedding gown of white satin and imported Belgium lace, has a two-yard train. She will carry a prayer book enhanced with a cascade of Pinochio and white Fugee chrysanthemums, centered with a white orchid and showered with French streamers and tulling.

Union Baptist Church will be the setting, and the Rev. Baxter Matthews the officiant, for the wedding, tomorrow (Saturday) of Miss Marion Jenkins and Henry H. Allmond.

Miss Jenkins, daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Jenkins and the late Joseph E. Jenkins, is manager of the classified department of the AFRO-AMERICAN.

The ceremony will take place at high noon. Music will be provided by J. Walter Fisher.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her brother, David Jenkins, will wear a gown of delicatered pure silk satin, made with a Sabina neckline of imported Belgian lace re-embroidered in seed pearls and with long glove sleeves.

Her veil of imported illusion will fall from a satin pillbox jeweled in sequins and pearls. She will carry a prayer book topped with Pinochio and white Fugee chrysanthemums, centered with a white orchid and showered with French streamers and tulling.

The attendants will wear nylon sheer bouffant gowns in shades from pale pink to flame. They will carry Colonial bouquets of Fugee chrysanthemums in the blended colors. Their slippers will match their frocks and they will wear chignon hats in the same shades.

They are the bride's sister, Mrs. Esther J. Johnson, whose gown will be of the palest colgne pink, and Mesdames Odessa Dyson, Carole Hammond and Jean Harris, in the graduating colors.

TONY ALLMOND of Cleveland, Ohio, will serve as his brother's best man. Ushers will include Earl C. Johnson, Leroy Whitmore, Eddie M. Hawks, Alphonso Marianno, and Roosevelt L. James.

Two tiny torch girls, Yvonne Reid and Caron Jones, in pink nylon frocks, with ruffled yokes and scalloped overskirts underpinned with hooped petit skirts, will carry nosegays centered with candles.

A reception will follow in the Harvey Johnson Center. Assisting hostesses will include Mesdames Berine Gail, Melvina Jackson, Naomi Jones, Mary Gwaultney, Misses Gainor Rayford, Ruth Powns, Ernestine Mailin and Mrs. Grace Lee.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Jenkins will wear beige peau de soie with lace applique, and matching accessories. Mrs. Lillie M. Allmond of Smithfield, Va., mother of the bridegroom, will wear blue lace. Both will wear corsages of cymbidium.

Mr. Allmond, a graduate of Morgan State College, is business manager at the Barrett School for Girls. Following their wedding trip to Havana, the newlyweds will be at home in Glen Burnie.

Miss Angelyn Fields becomes bride of Jacob McDaniel Jr.

Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church was a lovely bower of all - white flowers, Saturday, as the setting for the wedding of Miss Angelyn Alveretta Fields to Jacob McDaniel, Jr.

The Rev. Reginald Daniels read the ceremony. Miss Elmira Miller was at the organ, and the soloist was Eugene Ward of Catonsville.

THE BRIDE, who is the daughter of Mrs. Edith J. Fields and Carroll S. Fields, both of this city, was given in marriage by her uncle, Guy H. Johnson of Cambridge, Mass.

She was a vision in pure silk mist, the sweeping train inserted with imported Chantilly lace and the scooped neckline trimmed with lace and jewelled medallions. With it she wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion attached to a tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink rosebuds and white orchids.

MRS. EDDIE EASLEY matron of honor, wore a ballerina length taffeta dress in seafoam green and carried cascades of gold chrysanthemums and Hawaiian orchids.

Also wearing seafoam green taffeta ballerina frocks were the bridesmaids, Misses Auldlyn A. Higgins and Anne McDaniel, sister of the bridegroom. Their flowers were cascades of large yellow chrysanthemums and pom-poms.

Jesse McDaniel, of Laurel, Md., was best man for his brother.

A RECEPTION followed at the Me-De-So Club.

Assisting as hostesses were Mesdames I.B. Higgins, who wore autumn blue lace; Mrs. Paul Outten, who selected a floral silk; Mrs. Irvin Lockerman, who was gowned in embroidered blue polished cotton, with matching accessories, and Mrs. Guy H. Johnson, who selected a gown of beige lace with matching accessories.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fields wore a street-length dress of Ciel blue over satin, with pink accessories. Mrs. McDaniel was gowned in Navy blue and matching accessories. Both wore orchids.

The new Mrs. McDaniel is a graduate of Rogers High School, Newport, R.I. and Vermont Junior College, Montpelier, Vt. Mr. McDaniel, son of Mrs. Jacob McDaniel Sr. of Danville, Va. and the late Mr. McDaniel, attended the public schools of Danville and Virginia State College. He recently returned from two years of service in Korea.

Mrs. Rosa Parks to appear here

The Montgomery, Ala., matron whose refusal to accept a segregated bus seat touched off the now famous bus boycott, will appear here in Baltimore in person on Sunday, Sept. 23, at 3 p.m.

The place will be Sharp St. Memorial Methodist Church, Dolphin and Etting Sts., and the occasion will be the kick-off meeting of the annual fall membership drive of the local branch of the NAACP.

The speaker will be Mrs. Rosa Parks, who was arrested when she refused to be segregated and who inspired the boycott that has attracted world wide attention and sympathy.

ANOTHER FEATURE of the program will be the review of legal cases handled by attorneys for the NAACP. These will include several involving charges against police.

Music will be provided by the Baltimore Men's Chorale under the direction of Gerald Burkes Wilson. The Bethel AME Usher Board will serve as ushers.

The program is free to the public and an invitation has been extended for all to attend.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles
Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported, and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.* Ask for ind...idually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
