Cards recall 3 farmhands

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Cardinals last week announced the recall of nine farmhands from minor league clubs, three of them colored players.

First baseman Tom Alston, $100,000 purchase of 1954, was called up from Omaha, of the American Association, as was outfielder Charley Peete.

Brought up from Seattle of the Pacific Coast League was third baseman Milt Smith.

Alston played briefly with the Cards in 1954 and 1955, and Peete was up for a short spell during midseason of this year.

Smith had a shot at the regular third base berth with the Cincinnati Redlegs last year.

General manager Frank Lane indicated Alston may see some service in the closing days of the National League campaign.

Carver awaits 1st scrimmage

Forty young Carver Vocational High School hopefuls are anxiously awaiting the season's first scrimmage as their first week of conditioning reached its climax.

Coach Lloyd (Sodie) White scheduled the contact work for this weekend, and the youthful Trainers are looking forward to it.

With their opening game with the always-tough Armstrong eleven of Washington, only two weeks off, White's charges know that they have got to get down to serious work if they hope to get the call as starters.

The Trainer mentor regards himself as lucky to have six of his varsity linemen back from last year, although the Carver record was a poor 1-5 for 1955. Only end Richard Roberts was lost.

On the darker side, however, White will have the services of only one of his regular backfield from last season. Quarterback David Johns is a holdover and he did the kicking as well as ran the team.

PRESIDENTIAL GREETINGS — John H. Murphy Jr., left, and Dr. J. Offord, right, presidents of the Eastern and Western Trapshooting Associations, greet M. Leyton Weston, president of the National Skeet and Trapshooting Association, at the National Championship Skeet and Trap Shoot, held in Cincinnati, Ohio Sept. 1, 2, and 3.

Wests capture NSTA father-son title in Cincinnati tourney

CINCINNATI—Dr. Charles F. West, of Alexandria, Va., and his 14-year-old son, Nathaniel, captivated a large crowd of onlookers here last weekend by winning the national Class A and Handicap Shoot titles.

The event was one of the features of the National Skeet and Trapshooting Association tournament at the Greentower Gun Club.

Dr. West turned in a score of 99 hits out of a possible 100, while his younger son broke 90. The Wests were separators in this competition, having taken the 1954 title at Baltimore.

Ideal weather prevailed throughout the course of the shoot.

Kenneth Campbell, of Toledo, Ohio, took top honors in the junior division competition, and Mrs. B. Harrison, of St. Louis, Mo., was crowned distaff champion.

Young Campbell carded 24 hits in 25, and Mrs. Harrison knocked down 21 of 25.

2 tan farmhands recalled by Nats

Manager Charley Dressen early this week recalled two colored players from the farm system of the Washington Nats baseball team.

Pitcher Vibert Clarke and first baseman Julio Becquer will report to the Orlando, Fla., training camp next spring. Both played with Louisville of the American Association this summer.

MABEL AND LENA

HARCUM—In loving memory of our dear husband and brother, WILLIAM C. HARCUM, who passed away four years ago, August 29, 1952.

Remembrance is a golden chain, Death tries to break, but all in vain.

To have, to love and then to part

Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.

The years may wipe out many things,

But this they wipe out never,

The memory of those happy days When we were all together.

Loving Wife,
ANNIE G. HARCUM.
Daughter and Son-in-law
GLADYS AND GEORGE TAYLOR

JAMES—In loving memory of my mother, LOUISE, who passed away September 2, 1953:

Life's a land of God's tomorrow Like a city bright and fair;

Beyond life's golden sunset And our loved ones await us there.

Its a land of wondrous beauty Where they know no grief or fear,

Where God Himself, in tenderness Shall wipe away all tears.

So we rejoice in knowing That our loved ones have found peace;

In the land of God's tomorrow Where His blessings never cease.

THE FAMILY

PHILLIPS—In loving memory of our dear mother, BESSIE, who passed away 7 years ago, September 5, 1949:

Years of sacrifices, little of praise Loving and giving, and smoothing the way.

Life is too short, mother, ever to pay;

Strong in adversity, ready to do, Gentle, unselfish, a friend ever true.

Our precious possession, dear mother, was you.

HER CHILDREN

IN MEMORIAM

KEYS—In thoful and loving beloved husband OTHO R. remembrance of my dearly KEYS, who entered into eternal rest September 5, 1944:

All to myself I think of you Think the things we used to do,

Think of the things you used to say,

Think of 'each happy yesterday.

You have passed thru the shadows of death,

To the sunlight above.

A thousand sweet memories Are holding you fast,

With your presence and love.

We will meet again some day, I know,

Beyond the distant blue,

But until then, my dearest Otho,

I'll always think of you.

Your loving wife—
ALICE R. KEYS.
