

I, Charles H. Storr, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

Item 1. I direct my Executor hereinafter named to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my death as possible.

Item 2. I give and bequeath the various articles of personal property enumerated on the inclosed memorandum attached to this Will and made a part hereof, to the persons named therein.

Item 3. I give, devise and bequeath the rest and residue of my property and estate, whether consisting of real, personal or mixed property, and wheresoever situate, unto The Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Frederick, a body corporate, in trust, nevertheless, to invest and re-invest the same, and pay the net income and principal as follows:

a. I direct my Trustee to divide my estate into three equal parts, and from one one-third part, I direct my Trustee to pay to Kathryn A. Snook the sum of $1000.00 and my automobile for her kindness to me. The remainder of said one-third I direct my Trustee to invest and re-invest the same and pay the net income therefrom to my niece, Kathryn A. Snook, for and during the term of her natural life, and upon the death of the said Kathryn A. Snook, I direct that said trust cease, and I give, devise and bequeath said one-third of said corpus, together with any accumulative income, to her descendants. But if the said Kathryn A. Snook should die without leaving any descendants, then I direct that said trust cease as to the balance of said one-third and I give, devise and bequeath the same to the Hoffman Reformed Orphanage, Littlestown, Pennsylvania.

b. As to the second one-third of said corpus, I direct my said Trustee to pay to Irene P. Zimmerman the net income from said one-third until her son, Charles R. Zimmerman, reaches the age of twenty-one years, and upon his reaching said age, then I direct that said trust cease as to said one-third of the residue of my estate, and I direct that my Trustee pay, and I so give, devise and bequeath said one-third of the corpus, together with any accumulative income, unto William Etchison Zimmerman, Charles R. Zimmerman and Johanna Irene Zimmerman, equally, share and share alike. If any one or two of the above mentioned children of Irene P. Zimmerman should die before receiving their legacy, then I give, devise and bequeath the share of the child or children so dying to the survivors
