Mayfield fades in junior golf meet, 3 others show

Off to a fast star in the tenth annual junior golf tournament at Forest Park Monday, James Mayfield faded in the semi - finals Wednesday morning.

Representing Carroll Park, the rangy Poly student, playing in the 15 to 17 age group, was eliminated by Paul Quinn by a score of 6 and 4.

Mayfield was one of three Carroll Park Contestants to compete in the tournament.

Another was George Savage who on opening day, shot at 77 over Hank Majeski who tallied a 79, to tie with four others for third place.

In Tuesday's morning round, Majeski returned to the match to score a 5-4 victory over Savage.

IN THE girl's division, (15 to 17 age group) Dianne Jones defeated Juanita 'Arvin with a 110 Monday.

Both girls represented Carroll Park.

On Tuesday, Jones again defeated Arvin by a score of 8 and 6 and advanced to the semi-finals where she was knocked out of the race by Sharon Scollard in a 6-3 event.

One of the most successful golfers in the tournament for two days, a relaxed Mayfield edged Ford Verdery by one stroke Monday.

The following day in a morning round, he put Tom Tawney out of the, race by a 7-6 score, and in the afternoon eliminated Larry Ginsberg 4-2.

IN THE semi-finals, a tense Mayfield was paired with Ford Verdery, Paul Quinn and Ron Scales.

As a result of that meet, Quinn and Scales advanced to the finals.

Playing under pressure which became apparent when he got off a bad shot on the 457 yard seventh tee, Mayfield threw his club down in disgust.

On the sixth green, he shot a four for par after chipping far to the right of the cup.

With Quinn putting on pressure with every shot, Mayfield never recovered enough to play the type of game which led him to the semi-finals.

The winner, Quinn, was one under par at the end of the match.

He will compete with Scales in the finals Sunday.

Report Jackie Robinson to get physical checkup

PITTSBURGH (ANP)—There were reports here last week that Jackie Robinson, veteran Brooklyn Dodgers star, may undergo a physical checkup soon.

The reports were prevalent after Jackie withdrew from a game against the Pittsburgh Pirates here and was kept out of the lineup in other games because of dizziness and stomach trouble.

He was reported too weak to play in another game and he confided that "if this keeps up, I guess I'll have to go back and have it looked at again." Jackie was referring to a check-up he had years ago at New York's French Hospital following a similar attack.

At that time, a fluoroscoping test was taken. "They thought it might be an ulcer, but they didn't find anything," Robinson said.

* * *

THE ROBINSON ailment was a momentary setback for the Bums. Jackie recently had been coming through with some fine clutch hitting for the Dodgers. Recently, he has been the way Park.

Recently, he has been the target of criticism in which he rebuked a southern sports writer for terming him "troublemaking." Jackie termed the charge by Bill Keefe, sports writer for the New Orleans Times-Picayune, as unjust and referred him to Ted Williams, whom Robinson said, "more often than I, is involved in controversial matters."

A few days after Robinson's reply, Williams was fined $5,000 by the Boston Red Sox management for splitting contemptuously at a huge audience in Fenway Park.

East defeats West in All-Star classic

CHICAGO (ANP) —The East All-Stars started off with three runs in the first inning, three in the sixth, and added five more before the curtail fell on the 24th annual East-West game last Sunday in Comiskey Park as they routed the West 11-5 before 8,507 fans here.

It was the East's ball game from the outset' when Eastern slugging power and brilliant pitching by Willie Harris, Detroit right-hander, proved too much for the opposition.

Ace Robinson, Memphis Red Sox southpaw, started for the West, but was clobbered for six runs before he was lifted for Manuel Guerede, lefty, in the third inning with the bases loaded. Robinson was the loser.

* * *

FRANK MARSHA, Birmingham, walked in the first and was moved to second by Juan Soler of Detroit, who smashed a hard single to center field. Herman Green of Detroit followed with a single to left, scoring Marsh.

Billy Jo Moore, Birmingham, doubled to center to score Green, and John Williams was safe with a double when Harold Jones of the Kansas City Monarchs mis(sided) a pop fly to left. Moore trotted home on Jones' error.

The East chased Robinson from the mound in the third under a heavy hitting barrage. James Ivory, Detroit, singled behind Williams' out. Harold Shade, Detroit, grounded to Nat Stone at third, who threw to Rufus Gipson, Memphis Red Sox at first, but Gipson dropped the ball, and all runners were safe.

OTHA BAILEY, Birmingham, lined a single over the shortstop's head, bringing Ivery Harold Griggs, who was running for Shade, to third.

Willie Harris was hit by a pitched ball. Guerede replaced Robinson and forced Marsh to fly out, but walked Soler and Green, forcing in Bailey with another East run.

The East came up with more of the same in the sixth, seventh and eighth innings when they scored single runs.

* * *

THE WEST got the first three of their five runs in the sixth when Gipson and Enrique Morete singled and Bill Wyatt made an error on a grounder by Memphis catcher, Charles Jennings. On the play, Morete went to third, Jennings to second and Gipson scored.

A walk to Jones filled the bases. Then Manager Homer (Goose) Curry replaced Charles Williams, who had taken over pitchers' duties in the fourth, with Pedro Sierra of Detroit.

Sierra balked on the first pitch, bringing Merete home from third, and Charlie Pride of Memphis, pinch-batting for Guerede, hit to deep center scoring Jennings after the Losing golfers have an alibi—weather!

By EARL E. TASCO

The E.G.A. team matches were again held at the Manor Club in Reading, Pa., this past weekend. The Fairview Club of Philadelphia emerged the new champions for the first time in five years.

The Arlington Divot Club of Va. finished second, with the Royal Golf Club of Washington, D.C., third.

* * *

HOWEVER, EVERY club can claim an alibi this year because of the weather and conditions under which most had to live.

In the past the better hotels have been the headquarters for all of the golfers, but this year everyone had to stay wherever he could find sleeping space, and some had to sleep in their cars.

There were two different conventions in Reading which took up all available living quarters.

THE BANQUET held Saturday night at the Berkshire was a very fine affair and it did brighten up things which otherwise would have been dull.

Heavy rains Saturday night and all day Sunday made the course sloppy and muddy to the extent that many of the women golfers and some of the men refused to play at all.

This will probably be the last year the E.G.A. will hold its tournament at Reading because of the poor condition of the course.

Dr. Harold Fisher of the Royal Golf Club had the last laugh on his team mates. Playing on the third team he shot a two over par 71 to be low scorer from the Washington area.

Old Satch keeps club in flag race

MIAMI, Fla. (ANP) — Ageless Satchel Paige has been turned in another brilliant pitching performance, as he pitched the Miami Marlins back into second place in the red hot International League pennant race with a 6-2 victory over Columbus.

Winning his ninth victory as against three losses, Paige was backed up by good hitting by the Marlins.

* * *

PAIGE has not pitched regularly, but his wins are helping the Marlins, whom he had previously pitched into first place. Thus, it seems that as Paige goes, so go the Marlins.

Despite the win, Toronto stayed two full games ahead of the Marlins by downing the Montreal Royals, 3-4, in 12 innings.

In other games, Havana topped Richmond, 6-5 to take over fifth place and last-place Buffalo edged Rochester, 1-0.

Longing dear James for you,
Wishing the sales would open,
Just for a glimpse of you.
Someday, sometime my eyes shall close
The face I love so well,
Someday I'll clasp your loving hand,
And never say farewell.
God gave me strength to bear it,
And courage to fight the blow.
But what it meant to lose you dear,
No one will ever know.
