PRESENT OFFICERS are: Dr. George C. Violenes, New York, first vice president; The Rev. C. N. Riley, Chicago, second vice president; The Rev. Theodore C. Jackson, Baltimore, executive secretary;

Mrs. Sadie Dorsey, New York, treasurer; the Rev. George W. Baynard, host pastor; the Rev. Edward M. Reels, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Doris B. Smith, national secretary, Baltimore.

Talks hilight church meet

A series of lectures on the Holy Lands highlighted the annual Baltimore Area School of Ministerial Training, at Morgan State College, recently.

Some 50 men and women from the four conferences of the area (Delaware, Washington, North Carolina and East Tennessee) attended the school.

Faculty members included:

The Rev. Charles L. Carrington, dean; the Rev. W. S. Mollod, Old Testament; the Rev. Series L. Jones, New Testament; the Rev. Daniel G. Hill, preaching.

The Rev. J. D. Kelly, evangelism; the Rev. D. S. Dykes, church building; the Rev. B. A. Johnson, rural church administration; the Rev. Levi B. Miller, Jr., comparative religious worship and music; the Rev. R. B. Thompson, Christian ethics.

The Rev. Howard L. Cornish, director of the Morgan Christian Center was leader of worship.

Charles Cornish dies at 51

Charles O. (Lumpty) Cornish, 51, 3201 Westwood Ave., died Monday morning at 2:30 in University Hospital following an illness of four days. Mr. Cornish was a native Baltimorean and was educated at School 116 and the old Colored High School at Dolphin St. and Pennsylvania Ave.

A foreman in a local roofing company, Mr. Cornish was considered one of the best in his trade. He was a member of Gillis Memorial C. C. Church and a member of the Arch Social Club.

Funeral services will be held today (Friday) 2 p.m. at Gillis Church. The Rev. Theodore Jackson will deliver the eulogy. Interment will be in Arbutus Memorial Cemetery.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Lillian Cornish, he is survived by a brother, two aunts and a host of other relatives.

Wycoff Returns From Crescent City New Orleans, La.

The Biennial Session of the United Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspector Generals of the 33° and Last Degree of A.A.S.R.F. of the Southern and Western Jurisdiction, its Territories and Dependencies, and its Affiliated Departments ended in high, at 4:30 p.m., August 3rd.

The exodus of delegates from this hot and humid city, New Orleans, La., had already started. The deliberations of departments were very well attended and conducted.

Each department pledged to support the program given. The theme of the Sessions was "Greater Financial Aid to the Youth (Negro) Educational Program."

Hon. Clarence Wycoff, 33°, Lt. S.G.C. of the Southern and Western Masonic Jurisdiction, was pleased with the Sessions and his trip and looks to the future with hope.

Methodists slate school for pastors

WESTMINSTER, Md. — The first regional Pastors' School for the in service training of ministers of the Baltimore, Delaware Peninsula and Washington Conference of The Methodist Church will be held here August 27-31, at Westminster Theological Seminary and Westminster College.

The colored conferences of the region—the Delaware and Washington Conference will have full participation in the school this year for the first time.

DR. JAMES S. THOMAS, head of the Department of Educational Institution for Negroes of the Methodist Board of Education, will be among the leaders. He will deliver five lectures on the following themes:

"The Man in the Pulpit"—1. Interpreter in our Times; 2. Representative of the Church; 3. A Person — Himself Need; 4. A Minister to Human Need; 5. Channel of God's Power.

Delaware and Washington Conference members having official connection with the school will be: The Revs. Howard A. Bailey and Levi R. Miller Jr., executive secretaries of Christian Education in the respective conferences and the Revs. J. W. Elbert and Richard H. Johnson, chairmen of the Boards of Ministerial Training.

Resident bishops of the regions are Bishop Edgar A. Love, Baltimore, and Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Washington. Hosts will be Presidents Norman L. Trott of the seminary and Lowell S. Ensor of the college.

Vet dies before 25th wedding anniversary

"We would have celebrated our silver wedding anniversary if he had lived until Nov. 15."

Mrs. Eleanor Speller, 2017 W. Lanvale St., told the AFRO that her husband, James, died after a lengthy illness last Thursday.

"He would have been 43 years old on August 13. He died of cancer. He had been in the hospital last October and was released. He went back to the hospital July 14.

A native of Windsor, N.C., Mr. Speller had been in Baltimore since 1929. He was a shipping clerk for a local dry goods store.

* * *

HIS WIDOW, the former Miss Eleanor Rucker of Baltimore, said that the couple had no children. Funeral services were held Monday at Simmons Memorial Baptist Church; the Rev. Burnet Brooks delivered the eulogy.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. Speller was buried in Baltimore National Cemetery.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Speller; eight sisters, Mesdames Rachel Carack, Philadelphia; Clara Copper, Philadelphia; Hazel Hoggard, Windsor, N.C., and Misses Annie Speller, Philadelphia, Lillian Eleanor, Ruth and Mary Speller, Windsor, N.C.

Four brothers, William, Neal, Albert and Charles Speller, all Windsor, N.C.

Funeral held for musician

William Oscar Davenport, 66-year old local musician who played Horn in the Baltimore Park Band and the Baltimore symphony orchestra, died recently.

Funeral services were held at Lyndal AME Church, Cockeysville, Md.; where he had been a life member. The pastor, the Rev. Mrs. Emma Swann, officiated.

Mr. Davenport was buried in the church cemetery.

He died at his home, 403 Schwartz Ave., in Govanstown, following a two-year illness.

An ardent fisherman, Mr. Davenport was an active member of the Towson Fishing Club. He also served on the Baltimore County Grand Jury.

HE WAS a plant engineer, worked 25 years with a manufacturing company in Towson. During World War II, he served with the Maryland State Guard.

A native of Cockeysville, Md., Mr. Davenport was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Talbert Davenport.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Louise Davenport; a ward, Miss Hilary Rice; four brothers, Calvin, Talbert, Lee and Jasper Davenport; and three sisters, Mesdames Caroline Taylor, Marguerite Smith and Dorothy Miller.

Dr. W. J. Bacon dies in New York

NEW YORK—Dr. Walker J. Bacon, a native of Washington and a graduate of Howard and Syracuse Universities, died here recently. The prominent dentist had been here since 1925.

Fully integrated in the civic and community life of NYC, he was affiliated with Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Knights of the Round Table and various other medical and social organizations.

Survivors include his wife and a son.

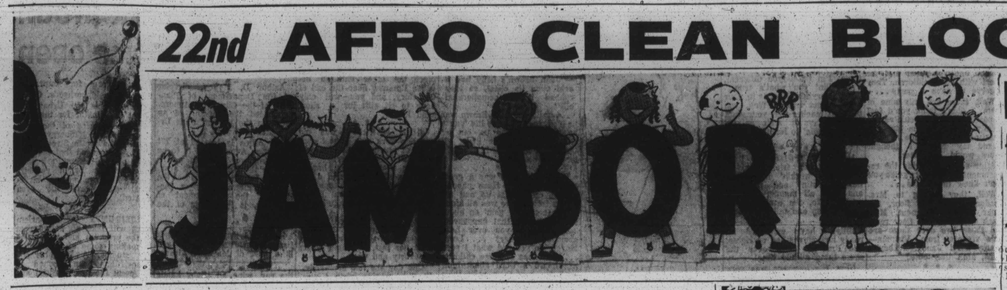
22nd AFRO CLEAN BLOCK JAMBOREE



Last call for 3 big jamborees

The last call for tickets for the three Giant AFRO Clean Block Jamborees has been issued by Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay.

This far more than 6,500 tickets have been distributed to Clean Block Captains, who in turn are passing them out to youthful Clean Blockers who have assisted them all summer.

The captains were warned not to share the tickets with any youngsters in the block who refused to give them a hand in cleaning, painting and sweeping their blocks.

ANY CAPTAIN who has failed to get his tickets is asked to come to the Clean Block office on the third floor of the AFRO Building, 628 N. Eutaw St., before 5:30 p.m. today.

The tickets will be available there to all captains who have submitted the list of workers and turned in their victory reports.

Captains were also warned to carefully examine their tickets to make certain they attend the right jamboree.

BECAUSE OF the huge number of youngsters taking part in the campaign this year, it was necessary to divide them into three sections.

Two of them are being held at the Regent Theatre. The first is scheduled for 9:30 a.m., Wednesday morning, Aug. 15 and the second on Thursday morning, Aug. 16.

The Regent Jamboree tickets have been distributed to Northwest, West, North Baltimore and Wilson Park Clean Blockers.

The third Jamboree is slated for the Biddle Theatre on Friday, Aug. 17, at 10:30 a.m. for East Baltimore Clean Blockers.

By dividing the Jamboree in three sections, Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay hopes to insure that no one will have to stand during the show as in previous years.

CLEAN BLOCK officials have emphasized the fact that no one will be admitted to the Jamborees without a ticket.

So if you have received your tickets yet, hurry on down to the AFRO Clean Block Office before 5:30 o'clock today.

21 New Blocks Cited, Number On Honor Roll Climbs To 89

NEAT FLORAL IDEA—A new idea in floral arrangements has been created by Captain Clarice Green and her Clean Blockers of the 1500 block N. Bethel St. Potted flowers are placed on step ladders. The block all shiny in red and white is on the Honor Roll.

CLEAN BLOCK • SIDELIGHTS •

By M. FRANCIS MACKAY
AFRO Clean Block Director

As the 22nd Annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign rapidly comes to a close, captains and advisors forget the trying times they have had and recall the loyal workers who have done so much to make the campaign a success.

There are still a few complaints. But a majority of the letters and telephone calls express a feeling of satisfaction over a job well done.

An example is a letter received from Secretary Carolyn Doles of the 1200 block H. Ct., "We have completed painting our window boxes, flower pots, and tables. The children are doing a wonderful job and working very hard.

"Our advisor Mrs. Savannah McLeod has been a great help. We really think the Clean Block is wonderful.

"This Saturday, we will go to the 500 block of 23rd St., for their Clean Block Party which will be held at the Greenmount Ave. Recreation Center.

* * *

CAPTAIN JEANNETTE Sykes of 500 23rd St., writes that Patricia Richmond has done so much to improve her block. She has attended all meetings. Her Clean Blockers would like to see her win one of the special prizes.

She has followed her aim; Keep Your Block Beautiful. She is really great, they say.

ONE OF OUR Honor Flag winning blocks, 500 Hamburg St., has been the object of many compliments. Captain Leanna Sims and her crew have worked very hard and deserve much credit.

* * *

CAPTAIN VERONICA MAYES of the 4800 block The Alameda writes: "There has been quite an improvement in Wilson Park in the last two or three years.

"Many new homes have been built. New families have moved into the neighborhood.

"Last year a new Junior High School and recreation center was built. We also have a large shopping center, and many places of interest.

"The population is growing very rapidly and many improvements are being made.

* * *

CALLING ALL Clean Blockers that live in the area of 1800 block Warwick Ave.: Captain Carolyn Jenkins and workers will sponsor a block party on Saturday evening, from 6 until 11 p.m. Go over and help them out.

* * *

MRS. THELMA ALFORD of the 200 Dalls Ct., sends a letter saying the children and adults feel grateful to you for "giving our children this opportunity to participate in the programs. It gives them something to do while school is out and is also a great influence toward good citizenship."

She adds that the most outstanding adult workers are Miss Louisa Reeves, Mr. Roney and Mr. Cochran.

Thank you Mrs Alford we know Miss Reeves is a hard worker. If we had more like her in Douglass Homes, life would be the same as it was five years ago, clean, beautiful and green with grass. I am sure some of the courts must feel ashamed at this time.

* * *

CAPTAIN VERNETTA BUTLER of the 2400 block Etting St., and her workers were busy as bees when the inspectors paid a surprise visit on Wednesday morning.

* * *

CAPTAIN SHIRLEY MOORE of the 600 block Gilbert St., had finished her work by eight - thirty when the inspection team arrived and was enjoying her roller skates.

Everything was very clean, but she needs a few more flowers.

CAPTAIN HELEN FLOYD of the 1100 block McKean Ave., you and Barbara Coleman, captain of the 1100 block Monroe St., should get together on the alley. It needs sweeping, too.

THE 1200 BLOCK OF H CT., and the 1200 block McElderry Ct., in the Somerset Homes appear to be competing with each other in beauty and cleanliness.

* * *

CAPTAIN LEONARD HILL is having a little trouble with adults, who refuse to work in the campaign.

Keep your chin up, Leonard. You are not the only Clean blocker faced with problems like that one.

* * *

MANY CAPTAINS REPORT the loss of flags, flowers pulled up and many other things to mar the beauty of their blocks.

* * *

CAPTAIN JEANNETTE RICE and workers in the 1200 block Etting St., are holding their own. Every time the inspection team calls they always seem to be working.

* * *

JAMBOREE TIME is here. The East siders will be guests of Mr. Robert Lee at the Biddle theatre. The date August 17.

WEST SIDERS will be guests of Mr. Henry Hornstein at the Regent theatre on Pennsylvania Ave., August 15 and 16.

* * *

REMEMBER NO CLEAN BLOCKERS will be admitted without an AFRO Clean Block ticket.

* * *

THE FOLLOWING CAPTAINS and their crews were out working before eight-thirty a.m. Wednesday morning:

CAPTAIN LORRAINE PHILLIPS of the 1000 block Argyle Ave.

* * *

CAPTAIN JEANNETTE RICE of the 2000 block Etting St.

* * *

CAPTAIN VERNETTT BUTLER of the 2400 Etting St.

* * *

CAPTAIN HELEN FLOYD of the 1100 block McKean Ave.

* * *

CAPTAIN DELORES ADAS of the 1000 block Harlem Ave.

* * *

CO-CAPTAIN ALMA BURNETT of the 1100 Monroe St.

* * *

CAPTAIN PEGGY STARKS of the 1000 block Bennett Place.

* * *

CAPTAIN GLORIA HILL of the 1600 Division St.

* * *

CAPTAIN MARY CARTER of the 700 block Gilmor St.

* * *

CAPTAIN AGNES LOFTON of the 1700 block Presstman St.

* * *

SEE ALL OF YOU on Tuesday at 9:00 a.m. in front of the AFRO Building. Come early so you can get a good seat on the bus. Don't forget to bring a small lunch.

There will be plenty of ice cream, sodas, and punch for all. You must be a captain or advisor or the guest of either. Wear your captains' buttons. See you on the bus.

So captains win praise

The AFRO Clean Block Honor Roll for the 22nd annual campaign climbed to a respectable 89 Friday when Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay added 21 new captains and their blocks.

The additions were made following through inspections of the blocks, one of the last before the Clean Block Jury of Judges makes its fateful tour beginning Sunday morning, August 19.

To be placed on the Honor Roll, a captain and his or her Clean Blockers must have completed all cleaning, back and front painting must be at least three - fourths completed and flowers must be in appearance.

* * *

INSPECTION TOURS scheduled to begin Monday and last throughout most of the week, are expected to result in the addition of at least twenty more blocks, Mrs. Mackay said.

Particular attention will be focussed on blocks in outlying and suburban areas which because of the pressure of time have not been visited so frequently this summer.

Another inspection is also in store for the five housing projects, Douglass, Somerset, Poe, Gilmore, McCulloh, Lafayette, Cherry Hill and Fairfield which are participating in the drive this year.

THE NEW Honor Roll blocks and their captains were listed as follows:

2400 Etting St., Captain Bernetta Green.

1700 Presstman St., Captain Agnes Lofton

1000 Bennett Place, Captain Peggy Starks.

2200 Lynnbrook Ave., Captain Donald McNeal

1600 Delano Ct., Captain Ruth Wagoner

1500 Mountmor Ct., Captain Edwin M. Strother

400 Manse Ct., Captain William McClain

400 Oxford Ct., Captain Janice Dawson

1200 Nolan Ct., Captain Brenda Davis

2700 Baker St., Captain Leola Williams

3200 Brighton St., Captain Doris McQuaige

900 Dukeland Ave., Captain Joyce Anderson

1800 Dukeland Ave, Captain Edna Albert

2200 McElderry St., Captain Marie Allen

1400 Mosher St., Captain Sandra Carter

2800 Rayner Ave., Captain Shirley Epps

2700 Riggs Ave., Captain Shirley Brown

1600 Thomas St., Captain Adele Hendricks

2400 Stockton St., Captain Raymond Hill

900 Washington St., Captain Clarice Butler

3500 Round Road, Captain William Nelson

1100 Woodyear St., Captain Beatrice Golden

$10 sends prize fund to $601.25

The receipt of two $5 contributions since Tuesday, permitted the AFRO Clean Block Prize Fund to pass above the $600 mark Tuesday.

The total now is $601.25.

Assemblyman Truly Hatchett of the Fourth Legislative District sent in a welcome donation of $3 as did the Sunday School of the Emanuel Christian Church.

* * *

STRANGELY ENOUGH, with more than 8,000 children enrolled in this year's Clean Block Campaign, Emanuel's is the first Sunday School to respond to the appeals for contributions to the Prize Fund.

Only 13 days remain before the close of this year's drive and Clean Block officials find themselves embarrassingly short of the $3,000 goal set in May for the prize fund.

Although enrollment in the drive is at an all-time high, for some reason the response of the public has not been as generous as in other years.

* * *

PARTICULARLY disappointing was the fact that so few clubs felt it necessary to encourage hard-working Clean Blockers who have been toiling all summer to improve the appearance of their neighborhood and the city.

Also absent for the first time was a large number of $1 donations from well wishers, who appreciate the fine work that has been done thus far.

Outing for C.B. captains on Tuesday

All indications are that more than 400 AFRO Clean Block captains, co-captains and adult advisors will be guests of the AFRO Tuesday at the annual picnic and outing.

Everyone is asked to meet at the AFRO Building at the corner of Druid Hill Ave. and Eutaw St. promptly at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday morning, Aug. 14.

* * *

THEY WILL then board four big buses, donated by the Diggs Bus Co., for the trip to Druid Hill Park.

The Clean Block Office will furnish refreshments in the form of ice cream, cookies and all the punch you can drink.

But captains were advised by Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay to bring a light lunch for the day's outing.

EXPRESSWAY EYE-CATCHER — Scenes like this one adjourning the 600 block Lee St., in South Baltimore is slowing traffic along the Baltimore-Washington Expressway these days as blocks compete for top honors in the AFRO Clean Block Campaign. Sylvia Smith is captain.
