STAR GAZING

Zola Taylor, la femme of the Platters, reported seriously considering walking the aisle with Australian promoter Lee Gordon, now that her divorce from musician Joe Merritt has been finalized. . . . Billy Williams quartet holding front end center at Hollywood's Peacock Lane. . . . Duke Ellington due to take over January 31st. . . Dinah Washington into Robert's Show Lounge, replacing Dakota Staton for the Christmas season. . . Mary Lou Williams and her trio returning to the Composer in New York, Thursday (day after Christmas).

Sammy Davis Jr., has a new album with the clever title, "Mood to be Wooed." . . . Maybe it is the momentum from his earlier bits, but it is authenticated that the new Johnny Mathis release, "Wild is the Wind," sold over 400,000 copies in its first 20 days on the racks.

British thrush Winifred Atwell journeyed to Copenhagen last week to appear in a feature spot on the Royal Danish Variety Show . . . . Ella Fitzgerald, fresh from her success with Cole Porter and Rodgers and Hart tunes, last week completed for Verve Records an album labeled "Ella Sings Irving Berlin."

Wilberforce University president Dr. Charles Wesley was in the audience last Sunday afternoon as his daughter, Charlotte Holloman, enthralled a Chicago church audience with a vocal concert. . . . Singer Damita Jo doing a single at a Las Vegas night club, says she'll rejoin hubby Steve Gibson and the Red Caps in Miami right after the New Year.

The movie, "Kings Go Forth," starring Frank Sinatra, Natalie Wood and Tony Curtis, is a wartime story in which two white soldiers (Sinatra and Curtis) fall in love with the daughter of an inthey discover that the girl's father was colored, things begin to happen. . . . Incidentally, "Kings" sets another milestone in becoming the first major production to hire a colored publicist for its press relations staff. . . . he's A. S. (Doc) Young, veteran West Coast writer.

Sammy Davis Jr., says he's serious about embracing Judaism (Jewish religion) permanently. . . . Davis frequently worships at Los Angeles' Azudath Achim-Rodef Shalom Etz Chayim. . . . Sammy is the second topline colored entertainer to hold close association with Jews. . . . Lionel Hampton has long been a supporter and benefactor of Israeli movements. . . . In fact, Hamp is in Israel of this writing.

Returning momentarily to Sammy Davis Jr., it is worth noting that the management of the Sands Hotel is grateful to him for rescuing them from what looked like certain box-office disaster. . . . Dissatisfied with the "take" from its show starring singer Dean Martin, the Sandspeople sent out a hurry call for Davis . . . he went in at $25,000 per week.

Jamesetta Holliman scheduled for concert

Miss Jamesetta Holliman, a major in piano at Oberlin College, Ohio, will be presented in concert 5 p.m. Dec. 29 at Christ Methodist Church, Washington and Chase Sts., by the Committee on Student Work and the senior choir.

Miss Holliman is a former pupil of the late Mrs. Lovey Husketh and Louis Shub of this city.

From the age of four years when she appeared at Grace Memorial Baptist Church and throughout appearances on local radio and TV shows in Baltimore, she has played for many churches, for the Baltimore NAACP, the Frontiers Chick Webb Center, Cherry Hill Center, Eastside Community Committee, AFRO Clean Block programs, and the programs of the National Association of Negro Musicians in Detroit, Columbus, Ohio, St. Louis, and Los Angeles.

IN BALTIMORE, this young woman, who is a junior at Oberlin College at the age of 19 years, is remembered as accompanist for many vocal groups, for instrumental groups, for dance groups, for closing exercises at School No. 101 in 1948, and for commencement exercises during her six years at the Paul Lawrence Dunbar Junior-Senior High School under the direction of Miss Mildred M. William, and Miss Venoris M. Williams.

She was Girl of the Month at Dunbar Junior High School in 1950 and was a member of the National Honor Society and received the Readers' Digest Award as valedictorian of the class of 1955 at Dunbar Senior High School.

Mrs. Nora Bennett, secretary of student work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and Mrs. Thelma Ennals, president of the senior choir, are co-chairmen of the recital.

Other committee members include Mesdames Laura Boulding, Willa Bouldin, Gladys Henry, Birtsal Ross, Beatrice Smith, the Misses Regina Davis and Lillian Johnson, Mrs. Beryl W. Williams, The Rev. Hilton A. Parker is pastor of Christ Methodist Church.

THE TOTAL estimated needs of the 1958 March of Dimes—$4,900,000 — include costs of patient aid, research, professional education, vaccination for Infantile Paralysis, promotion and support of the Respiratory and Rehabilitation Centers of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Help reach this indispensable total by giving to the 1958 March of Dimes.

Five-year-old Haliwood (Shorty) Haskins Jr., had his picture snapped in a Pressman Bros. Grocery Store in Cherry Hill as he selected a loaf of delicious Schmidt bread.

His photo was published in last Friday's paper and because there was a circle around his head he is $5 richer.

"I saw the picture first, "Shorty" said. "I told my mother, I'm going to get five dollars."

* * *

WHAT CAN be any luckier than that for a kid? Five dollars and Christmas, too! When he collected his $5 picture prize on Monday he said he planned to use it for Yule shopping.

Young Haliwood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Haliwood Haskins Sr., 102 Linden Ct., Turner Station.

* * *

THERE'S a lucky picture in this and every edition: Look for it. It may be YOU.

If your head is in the lucky circle, all you have to do to collect your $5 prize is call at the AFRO City Desk before the next edition is published.

Foreign exhibit of art in Chevy Chase

WASHINGTON

Two hundred pictures will be on exhibit in the auditorium of Woodward and Lothrop's Chevy Chase store Jan. 28 - Feb. 1, Mrs. N. G. D. Joarder, D.C. chairman of the Art for World Friendship Committee, announced recently.

The pictures are original paintings and drawings from school children in approximately 40 countries, the committee, an activity of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, said.

The preview, to which members, sponsors and representatives from the embassies of participating countries will be invited, is to be held Jan. 27 from 7:45 to 9 p.m.

Miss Marian Anderson, good will ambassador

One of America's leading ambassadors of good will is no "homburged diplomat."

She doesn't carry a briefcase, but Marian Anderson is recognized by the United States Government, as well as by American cities, universities and organizations, as one of our country's most important contributors to international understanding through the arts.

The world-famous contralto will appear in Baltimore on Monday, Jan. 13, at the Lyric Theatre in a program sponsored by Baltimore Fellowship, Inc., an inter-cultural, inter-faith and inter-racial group.

Her stop in Baltimore is but one on a national tour that will take her before audiences in many of the country's largest cities.

* * *

IN THE past years, Miss Anderson has appeared in Asia, North Africa, Israel, Europe and South America.

She returned only last month from a tour of India and The Far East for the U.S. State Department.

She has been showered with honors abroad. Sweden's King Gustav Adolf conferred on her his country's "Litteris-et-Artibus" Medal; Finland presented her with its esteemed Order of the White Rose as well as the Marshall Mannerheim Medal, and other decorations have come from France, Haiti, the Philippines and Liberia.

Last year in Israel all her concerts were sold-out before her arrival and hundreds of persons stood in the streets outside to hear her through the open windows.

In Paris the demand for seats created a near riot and the Associated Press reported that the city's critics had to sit on the stairs.
