

A. Yes, lived there until I got married in 1918.

Q. Did you know a Mr. Duvall?

A. Yes.

Q. Who purchased a part of this farm?

A. He purchased the farm that belonged to my grandfather.

Q. Your grandfather's name was Tilghman Hilleary?

A. Yes. Mount Pleasant, and Mrs. Schaeffer, I think she died not long ago. They bought the place after this.

Q. But the farm was bought then from your grandfather. What was his name?

A. Tilghman Hilleary.

Q. Tilghman Hilleary. Mrs. Pfeiffer referred to a John Hilleary.

A. Well, that was my father's brother.

Q. I see. Now your grandfather sold this farm to the Duvalls and part of it went to your father?

A. No. My grandfather, many years before, my uncle sold it, I think my uncle sold it to Mr. Duvall I think.

Q. That would be your uncle John Hilleary?

A. Yes.

Q. I see. Your grandfather's name was Tilghman Hilleary?

A. Yes.

Q. So, as far as you know, the farm stayed in the Hilleary family until John sold a part to the Duvalls?

A. Yes, the Mount Pleasant.

Q. Known as the Mount Pleasant farm?
