WHEN YOU FINISH READING YOUR AFRO PASS IT ALONG TO A FRIEND

These Employees and The Management of

Schmidt's Baking Co. Join in Wishing You a

CARL SCHMIDT, President

Happy New Year

We Invite You to try Schmidt's Brown n' Serve Rolls

and Blue Ribbon Bread . . . . a Treat in any Season!

BAKED BY: SCHMIDT BAKING COMPANY, BALTIMOR

CHRISTMAS IN SCHOOL—The school is No. 140 and the children are Frank Hubbard, 12, and Terry Roy, 11. They are preparing a Christmas display for exhibition in the school. As a wise man once said, Christmas is for the young.

Family day held at 134

Family day was observed recently at Elementary School No. 134.

The children presented a program of choral music, band music and presented a Christmas movie to their parents.

Following the program a Christmas dinner was served by members of the PTA. Mrs. Eleanor Waters is the president.

Participants on the program were: Thomas Gambrill, Larry Green, James Harrison, Nicholas Slade, Arthur Gurner, Valerie Alston, Mary Dorsey, Flora Kitchens, Willena Massey, Florence Molock, Racheal Queen, Carolyn Richardson, Aaron Brown, Jesse Engram, Leon Green, Tyrone Holloway, Thomas Jackson, Randolph Matthews, Rudolph Matthews, Sharon Whitney.

Also, Barbara Alexander, Barbara Brown, Virginia Dixon, Minnie Good, Regina Mitchell, Betty Matthews, Alfreda Rogers, Edith Williams, Obray Alexander, Connell Brown, Lawrence Holloway, Sidney Jenkins, Jonathan Queen.

Evelyn Bell, Valerie Brown, Regina Holloway, Crystal Houston, Felicia Richardson, William Baker, Charles Braxton, George Holloway, Charlie Turner, Charlotte Brown, Zelda Dixon, Bessie James, Jahue Brown, Donald Houston, Frederick Houston, Ronald Houston and Victor Kiah.

James A. Young working for USIA

The United States Information Agency has engaged James A. Young, music therapist, to give a series of music therapy demonstrations in New York City for children suffering mental and physical handicaps.

Films are to be made of these demonstrations and will be available for showing overseas and in this country as a method of illustrating the techniques used in such work.

Mr. Young's music socio-educational therapeutic group was presented in a dramatic and musical offering on Sunday in Philadelphia under the sponsorship of the Philadelphia Sponsoring Society of Music Therapy.

This was the group's first effort in the direction of establishing a music therapy experimental and demonstration school in that city.

Teen Council held dance

Members of the Teen Council of School No. 180 recreation center entertained at a holiday dance Monday.

The Council is under the supervision of T. Madison Garrison and Mrs. Alice Smith.

Members of the Council are: Floria Goins, Gwendolyn Porter, Elaine Larkins, Sylvia Smith, Jeanette Whisamont, Shelia Davis, Brenda Haskins, Anette Howard, Louise Turner, Francis Wardlow, Robert Brown, Yvonne Clark, Bernadine Woolford, Arthur White, Evelyn Brockington.

Barbara Coleman, Edna Alston, Diane Bulbard, Estelle Burke, Inez Jackson, Ruth Fulton, Janie McCaster and Patricia Senior.

Other members are: Herman Tyler, Carolyn Woolford, Edna Williams, Lloyd Barnes, and Rufus Garrett.

SANTA—In the spirit of the Yule, Morgan State College coed Loretta Goodwin demonstrated what a welcome sight Santa was.

Coppin Jrs. present an original play

An original play, "Christmas Eve and the Twelve Days of Christmas," was presented on Friday, by the junior class of Coppin State Teachers College as the second of a series of student stage productions for the college year.

The script was written by Barbara Stone. Members of the cast were Joan Smith, Monroe Simms, Gloria Alston, Mauda Smith, and Carmelita Estep, with Beatrice Henson as narrator.

Among the dancers seen by the sleeper in her dream were Lillian Holland, Bernita Thomas, Anna Moody, Margaret Wright, Ella Hall, and Hazel Monk.

Choral numbers were presented by Rosalyn Cook, Phyllis Fludd, Joan Smith, and Isabel Dodson. The setting of piano and organ music respectively was provided by Sarah Williams and Mrs. Agnes T. Abernethy.

* * *

COMMITTEE chairmen for the production were: Bernita Thomas, (costumes); Stanley Hendricks, (properties); and Lloyd Perry, (program).

The students were aided by their faculty advisors, Mrs. Agnes T. Abernethy and Mrs. Zella Harris, and by Mrs. Jeanette Gray and Miss Mae Gray as special faculty consultants.

Officers of the junior class which sponsored the play are Yvonne Saunders, president; Stanley Hendricks, vice-president; Ann Taylor, secretary and Carlean Owings, treasurer.

Navy, Marine Corps to train 500 men in science field

The Secretary of the Navy, Thomas S. Gates, has announced that under a new educational program, beginning with the 1958 school year, 500 officers will be trained for the Navy and Marine Corps in the field of science.

This number of enlisted men will be enrolled in civilian institutions of higher learning for a four year course leading to a degree of Bachelor of Science and ultimate commissioning as an officer of the regular Navy.

Emphasis in their studies will be placed on mathematics and the physical sciences. During summer vacation periods, the students will be assigned to Navy Laboratories and other scientific establishments to study application of the sciences.

Booker T. classes receive charters

Booker T. Washington Junior High School classes 9A - 312; 9A - 309, 9A - 229 and 9A- 101, taught by Mrs. Ruperta S. Waters, recently received their charters as members of the Library Club of America, Inc.

The aim of the Library Club is to encourage young people to discover the pleasure of reading.

The motto of the club is "Readers Are Leaders." The members are now planning school activities to encourage recreational reading.

Four from Coppin at Mason-Dixon meet

Misses Lillian Fowlkes, Carmelita Estep, Nellie Taylor and Eleanor Bell of Coppin's senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman classes, respectively, represented the college at the Mason-Dixon Region Conference of the National Student Association.

The conference was held in Washington, D.C., on the campus of the Catholic University.

Geography students were honored in having as their guest speaker Kwabena Mensah, who is from Anamabu, Ghana.

He spent his early life in Anamabu, but later moved to Accra, Ghana's largest city.

Upon graduating from S. Francis College in Ghana, he taught school for two years.

He is now studying at Morgan State College on a United Nations scholarship, with a major in modern European history.

Mr. Mensah in his discussion with the Coppin students, dealt with the educational, social, economic and political life of the educational, social, the people of his country. He delivered his talk in such an interesting and humorous way that a very lively discussion followed, with many questions from the students.

ON WEDNESDAY, following the student assembly, the first printed issue of the revived Coppin State Teachers College student newspaper, now called "The Coppin Courier," was distributed to Coppin students and faculty members.

The paper is a four-page job, of small newspaper size, with ous sides of the college's life. four large cuts showing vari-

The staff of the paper includes the following: editor-in-chief, Leonard Wheeler; editor, Lloyd M. Perry; feature editor, Beatrice Henson; fashion editor, Marguerite Griffin; exchange editor, Francine Carter; sports editor, Edward Lee, secretaries, Helen Showell and Eleanor Bell; typists, Lloyd Perry, Connie Price, and Catherine Moore.

The paper has as its faculty consultant Dr. Howard D. Langford, of the English department.

The annual Christmas assembly was directed by Dr. Leonora B. Dudley of the English department.

It consisted of several tableaus of the Nativity and a Prologue by Leonard Wheeler, readings by Mary Gary, Geraldine Boyd and Ruby McGlocklin. Monroe Cornish sang a solo, and the players, audience, and school choir took part in community singing.

Morgan dozen in Who's Who

Twelve Morgan State College student leaders have been selected to represent the school in the 1957-58 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Students are nominated and selected for the honor on the basis of academic achievement and demonstration of leadership ability.

Six of the Morgan students selected are seniors, and six are juniors.

They are: Frederick T. Anderson, Greensboro, N.C.; Leroy Anderson, Baltimore, Md.; Walter Black, Easton, Md.; Louis Boston, Annapolis, Md.

Also Marie Brown, Baltimore, Md.; Fielding Gentry, Nyack, N.Y.; Frank Greene, New York City; Thelma Moore, Baltimore, Md.; Eleanor Queen, Severn, Md.; Henry Sands, New York City; Norma Sharpe, Mt. Vernon, N.Y.; and Doris Wooten, Bronx, N.Y.

THERE'S A LUCKY picture in this and every edition of the AFRO. Look for it. If your head is circled, you can collect $5 cash by calling at AFRO City Desk before the next edition is out.

Third graders at 135 present holiday program

Two third grade classes at Elementary School No. 135 presented a Christmas program at the ME Carroll Home for the Aged.

Third grade teachers in charge of the program were: Mrs. Ruth Mills and Mrs. Mary Robinson.

Participants on the program were:

Daniel Brock, Maurice Clark, Reuben Cooper, Allan Forte, Gayton Grant, Jerry Graham, Edward Hanson, Ronald Jones, Ronald Johnson, Charles Kane, Earl Long, George Patterson, Hilbert Roberts, Ralph Taylor, Jerome Watson, Walter Holmes, Robert Gross, Janet Counts, Lillian Curbeam, Ranae Freeman, Diann Johnson, Shirley Johnson and Bernadette Jones.

Also, Patricia Kane, Adell Lee, Barbara Lockhart, Christine McCary, Loretta McCoy, Arlene Parker, Ellen Pernell, Jean Redmond, Diane Silva, Esther Swan, Julia Thorn, Beverly Tillery, Carrie Williams, Althea Woodrum, Darlene Bacoat, Caroline Burgess.

Mary Chambers, Brenda Dudley, Joann Gladden, Jacqueline Greene, Carolyn Harris, Lorraine Harris, Ella Williams, Louise Johnson, Margaret Jones, Dianna Parham, Phylistine Randall, Joan Wells, Lois Williams, Margaret Williams, Carolyn Young, Janie Cheatham, James Arvin, Paul Brice, Calvin Davis, Henry Goodwin, Charles Graham.

James Griffin, Osborne Holland, Samuel Robertson, Ronald Livingston, Thornton McLive, Len Price, Theodore Price, Henry Redd, Michael Seymour, Morris Taylor, Preston Thompson, Theodore Wallace, and James Williams.

Programs vary at Guilford school

The first graders at the Guilford School enjoyed watching television last week. They saw an educational program, "Manners For Moppets."

The Jack and Jill Club, which consists of first graders, met and elected officers for the school year 1957-1958.

The president is Kaye Craft; vice-president is Melvin Gaither, secretary is Fletcher Richardson; and the treasurer is Lucille Johnson. Sponsors of the club are Miss Helena Gaither, Mrs. Audrey King, and Mrs. Aberdeen Jackson.

* * *

THE FIFTH and sixth grade of Miss Bell's room dramatized "The Pudding That Broke Up The Preaching" for the American Education Assembly Program. This particular story was read to them during literature period.

They are also having music appreciation once a week. They have listened to the following records: "Scheherazade" by Rimsky Korsakoff and "Erroll Garner's Concert by the Sea." Gradually the pupils will learn to appreciate the various musical categories.

The Library Club has selected its new members for the year. The new officers elected are Peggy Hall, president; Silas Craft, vice president; Cecil Rowe, secretary; and Charles Bright, treasurer. The club is assisted by Miss Louise Bell, Mrs. Aberdeen Jackson and Mr. Chester Nutter.

* * *

THE ACTIVITIES for Book Week included a contest for the best poster in the primary and intermediate grades, the best essay, the best slogan and the best book salesman.

The winners were as follows:

Posters — Mrs. Tilghman's room and Mr. Nutter's room; Essay — Virginia Craft; Slogan —Mrs. Boone's class; and Book Salesman — Alvin Howard. A program was given and pupils from each class participated.

During Book Week, books were on sale for parents and pupils. Parents who assisted in the sale of books, included Mrs. Mamie Harcum, Mrs. Ruth James, Mrs. Dorothy Moore, Mrs. Loola Jackson, Mrs. Sarah Thorne and Mrs. Laura Jones. This affair was sponsored by the PTA.

* * *

THE PTA also sponsored the annual "Farm and Homemakers" Fair Nov. 24-25.

On the first night, a program was presented which included a play by the Dramatics Club called "Wildcat Willie." Foods and other items were auctioned off on this night and the following night also. Mrs. Ethel Boone and Mrs. Dorothy Watkins were co-chairmen of the affair.

During American Education Week, there was "Open House" from Monday through Friday. The main program, held on Friday afternoon, was presented by pupils from each class. A movie was shown called "Desk for Willie." Parent-Teacher conferences were also held during the week.

The monthly PTA meeting was held on Monday, December 2, with guest-speaker, Mr. Herbert C. Brown, who is deputy defense director for Howard County. A movie was shown and an address given about civil defense.

The need for knowledge of first aid, what to do in case of radio-active fallout, and how our communities fit in the civil defense plan were emphasized. Parents were urged to take a course in first aid because of its need in daily living as well as during war and other emergencies.

4th graders at 105 shop, serve breakfast

Miss Delores Hicks' fourth grade at School 105 had a wonderful time at breakfast on December 11.

The children learned about the "Basic Seven" foods and made booklets and charts for each of the food groups. The breakfast foods the children ate were decided upon from these groups.

The girls of the class went shopping with the teacher to buy the food. The menu was: Orange juice, milk, corn flakes, bacon, eggs, toast, Floyd Harris, vice president of the National Refrigeration Company was the "chef". Carol Davis' mother let the class use her toaster.

* * *

THE CHILDREN sang their grace to the tune found in the first six measures of "Silent Night."

The children who enjoyed this breakfast are:

John Green, Jonathan Green, Donnell Harris, Leonard Josephs, Ronald McAllister, Clarence Rogers, Charles Smith, Booker T. Wilson, Bradley Winder, Betty Bryant, Alice Butler, Cora Crowner, Charlotte Cunningham;

Carol Davis, Clare Farabee, Marva Gary, Irene Jackson, Delores Jefferson, Elrita Jefferson, Beverly Jones, Vivian Keys, Joquetta Lewis, Janet Maddox, Evelyn Martin, Veverly Mitchell;

Genitha Rease, Sandra Reives, Ada Stewart, Ella Taylor, Marian Watkins, Shirley Wilson, Sondra Wood, Bernetta Wilks.

Thomas J. Wheaden Jr. is principal of School No. 105.

Faculty of No. 102 holds fellowship hour

The faculty and staff of the Thomas G. Hayes Elementary School No. 102, recently held its annual Christmas Fellowship Hour.

Guest speaker was the Rev. Walter Paige, pastor of Faith Baptist Church. The theme for his message was "Christ and His Life."

The program also included group singing of carols, a Christmas reading entitled, "In There Room?" exchange of gifts, and a Christmas dinner. The chairman of the program was Miss Rosalie Scott.

* * *

PARTICIPANTS in the program were:

Mrs. Gleadora Ray, Mrs. Mary Gordon, Mrs. Camilia Williams, Mrs. Ruth King, Mrs. Ida Norris, Mrs. Elizabeth Morris, Mrs. Mildred Barkley, Miss Anita Wilkins, Miss Pulsie Ford, Miss Anita Harris, Miss Mildred Hall, Mrs. Marian Bordley, Mrs. Bessie Goynes, Miss Doris Freeland and Mrs. Audrey Allen.

Also, Mrs. Geraldine Reynolds, Miss Deloras Bailey, Mrs. Marjorie Wood, Mrs. Ida Jones, Mrs. Frances Chatmon, Mrs. Lois Davis, Mrs. Leugenia Stinson, Mrs. Beatrice Cooper and William Prettyman.

Mrs. Anne L. Payne is the principal.

'Broken Toys' staged at BTW

"Broken Toys" a Christmas play, was presented by the Dramatic Club of Booker T. Washington Junior High School last Thursday in the school auditorium.

Members of the Dramtic Club who participated in the play were: Ella Simpson, Charles Wright, Rose Williams, Earl Kent, Robert Young, Van Nelson, Anton King, Fayette Clark, Fred Lacust and Kathleen Cain.

Also, Olivia Newman, Pamela Jones, Robert Isaacs, Edward Deave, Kernal Bailey, John Speight, Ronald Laster, and William McIntyre. Theclub is under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Clay.

A FAMILIAR SIGHT—Take a tree, bulbs, lights and other decorations and you have a thing of beauty such as this holiday sight in the hallway of the Mary Rodman Elementary School at Lafayette and Poplar Grove St. Watching, left to right, are Jessica Bailey, 10; Sandra Harris, 10, and Denise Cook, 10. All are members of the fifth grade.

Laban C. Maultsby heads Morgan employees

Laban C. Maultsby, a member of the buildings and grounds staff of Morgan State College, has been elected president of the college's chapter of the Maryland Classified Employees Association.

Mr. Maultsby succeeds Grace L. Burke, personnel manager, who has been elected to the executive body of the organization, representing the Morgan chapter.

A graduate of North Carolina A. and T. College, where he majored in vocational and industrial education, Mr. Maultsby is a member of the Masonic Order and Omega Psi Ph Fraternity.

Other officers of the chapter are: Churchill Johnson, vice president; Miss Miriam Curtis, secretary; and Miss Mary Hudson, treasurer.

A BIT OF PAINT—There's nothing to make the Christmas spirit glow like pictures with a Yuletide theme. Believing this, Gavle Brown, 9, has gone to work. He is a fourth grade pupil at the Mary Rodman School No. 145, Poplar Grove and Lanvale St.