COUPLE FEUDS OVER CAR, HOUSE, BANK ACCOUNT

Local beautician, hubby wage 9-month divorce battle

The divorce battle of a local beautician, Mrs. Pauline E. Savoy, 2365 Brookfield Ave., and her husband, William Savoy, 1834 W. Lanvale St., continue in court.

Mrs. Pauline E. Savoy in Circuit Court after a controversy, 2365 Brookfield Ave., and her husband, William Savoy, continuous nine-month exchange of accusations.

A sum total of some 8 different disputed facts listed includes dispute over their jointly owned 1956 car and the home at 1834 W. Lanvale St., a back account of his earnings which Mr. Savoy alleges Mrs. Savoy has hidden in some bank unknown to him.

The latest development in the proceedings which began in April, came when Mrs. Savoy was required by the court to submit all receipts, income tax records and other income documents on Dec. 5.

Prior to this court order placed to his wife, Mr. Savoy had been required by the court to pay her temporary alimony amounting to $12.50 weekly.

THE COURT action originated when Mrs. Savoy sued for divorce her husband in April and told the court that she had been subject to abusive treatment which began about 1941.

She stated that this date was the beginning of the brutalities "when he for no just reason from time to time cursed at, beat and otherwise abused me."

Mrs. Savoy further stated that "on April 7, 1957 my husband broke off two of my front teeth, bruised my head and other parts of my body and then told me to leave."

She also told the court that "fearing her safety" she did leave and that April 11 marks the date of separation. Mrs. Savoy adds that although she was the one who departed, she was the one who had to do and that act amounts to constructive desertion on the part of Mr. Savoy.

IN HER PETITION for the divorce, Mrs. Savoy revealed that she knew her husband's income to be around $80 per week and added that her income was insufficient to care for her needs or for counsel fees.

The beautician listed as property jointly owned by herself and her husband the 1956 automobile and the property at 1834 W. Lanvale St.

Not only did Mrs. Savoy request the court to grant her a divorce, alimony and counsel fees but she also asked that the car and the home be sold and the money from the sale be divided between them.

HOWEVER, on May 20, Mr. Savoy in his answer denied that he earns more than $65 weekly income.

He told the court that not only had his wife removed the furniture from the house on April 11, but she also took the automobile.

He said: "And she has denied me the use of it since April 11."

And added: "She has a weekly income as a beautician.

"She also, I believe, has money on deposit in some bank which has come from my earnings during our marriage."

Mr. Savoy concluded his statement to the court by adding: "I also pay the bills on our joint obligations."

On Dec. 5 through her attorney, Hugh J. Monaghan, Mrs. Savoy requested that the Police Department produce records of William Savoy Jr., 1834 W. Lanvale St.

Hawkins · new ILA president

On Monday the International Longshoremen's Association Local No. 858 held its two-year period election and elected Boyd Hawkins as president.

Mr. Hawkins who resides at 3529 Calverton Heights Ave., has been a member of the organization for many years and was formerly a Local 858 trustee.

He takes the place of the former president, John L. Hayes who died on Sept. 6. Mr. Hayes was elected in December, 1955.

Elected as vice - president was Carville Turner, who replaces Herman Jewel, a longtime official who served as vice president for four years.

THE financial secretary is George Barry who had served in that capacity for two years.

Daniel James was re - elected corresponding secretary while the Rev. William King was re-elected treasurer as well as chaplain of the group.

Both Mr. Hayes and the Rev. Mr. King had served in their respective offices for two years.

The legal representative of the group is U. Theodore Hayes who succeeded E. Everett Lane by appointment last March.

Three years for clothing and books

Chief Judge Emory H. Niles in Criminal Court Tuesday sentenced Lewis Cook, 20, of the 700 block School St., to three years in the Maryland Reformatory for Males when he pleaded guilty to burglarizing the home of Mrs. Bernice Bradshaw, 2700 block Harlem Ave., on November 19.

Mr. Cook admitted taking $233 worth of clothing and 34 books valued at $125, the property of the Enoch Pratt Free Library, during the period from May to November 1957.

Transit Co. sued

A $50,000 personal injury suit against the Baltimore Transit Company was filed in Superior Court Wednesday on behalf of Nathaniel R. Moses, of the 500 block W. Mosher St.

Mr. Moses, through his attorneys, the law firm of Brown, Allen and Watts, and Llewelyn W. Woolford, charges that he was struck and severely injured by a Transit Company bus the past November 6, while standing at a bus stop on North Ave. near Howard.

Mr. Moses further alleges in his suit that the injuries he received required considerable medical expense and loss of salary from his place of employment.

Miss Anderson will appear here Jan. 13

Miss Marian Anderson, world-famous contralto, will appear at the Lyric Theatre on Jan. 13 in a concert presented by Baltimore Fellowship, Inc.

Miss Anderson, who recently returned from a tour of the Far East and who is now on her annual national tour, will be making her second appearance in Baltimore. She first appeared on the Lyric stage in 1954.

One of the world's best-known artists, Miss Anderson has sung to more than 5,000,000 persons in nearly 1,500 concerts all over the world. She made news in recent months during her tour of India and the Far East for the State Department. Earlier, for the attention given her best-selling autobiography, "My Lord, What A Morning!"

IN THE last four years, the artist has sung in Japan, Korea, Israel, Europe, North Africa and South America, as well as in the United States and Canada.

In Japan, the Emperor conferred on her the coveted Yukosho medal. King Gustav Adolf presented her with Sweden's "Litteris et Artibus" medal, and, in Finland, the government awarded her the Order of the White Rose.

Baltimore Fellowship, Inc., also spon sore 1954ps me-for hitore sponsored her 1954 performance at the Lyric. The Fellowship is an inter-cultural, interfaith and interracial group.

In Memoriam 1

BOWLES — A tribute of love to our dear son and brother JULIUS E., who entered his rest 13 years ago, December 13, 1948:

Memories are golden, that no one can steal
Death was a heartache, That nothing can heal.
Time has passed since you, Now that you have gone.
But we still remember you son.
No matter how long
Devoted Mother and Father
JESSIE M. BOWLES
Brothers
ROSS AND LINWOOD.

BOWYER — In loving memory of our dear father, MARK RICHARD, who passed away nine years ago, December 14, 1948:

In our hearts there is a picture, More precious than silver and gold;
It is a picture of you Dear Father, Whose memory will never grow old.
HIS LOVING CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN.

BROWN — A tribute of love to my dear husband and our loving father, HYNMAN, who passed away ten years ago, December 14, 1947:

God bless you for your willing hands
All that you tried to do
To bring us happiness on earth And make our dreams come true.
Some say time heals all sorrows And time is to forget,
But time so far has only proven How much we miss you yet.
Your loving wife
ELNORA BROWN
and Daughters
ANNA MAE AND MARGARET.

CARR — In loving memory of our son, CALVIN, who passed away ten years ago today, December 13, 1948:

Your memory to us is a keepsake, With which we'll never part;
God has you in His keeping We'll always have you in our hearts.
Loving Mother,
ANNIE L. CARR

Within my heart he lives still.
Loving Daughters,
EDNA AND SERENA

HAYDON — In sad but loving memory of my dear husband, SAMUEL A. HAYDON, who departed this life December 12, 1953:

Gone, dear husband, gone forever,
How I miss your smiling face,
But you left me to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness, The world can never fill.
Loving Wife
CORA A. HAYDON.

HOLLAND — In loving memory of our father, JAMES, who departed this life December 12, 1950:

We miss your laughter, your smiling face,
Your tender love, your warm embrace.
