Elks lodge denied food, drinks sale

"Without going into the matter in detail, the Court finds that there was evidence that the applicant intended to use the premises for business purposes, and that being a residential use district, there was an abundant evidence to support the conclusion made by the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals."

Judge E. Paul Mason in City Court Friday gave the above reason for affirming a former decision of the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals, denying the Thomas R. Smith Elks Lodge No. 1404, at 2802 Joplea Rd., Cherry Hill, permission to sell food and beverages on its premises.

The case reached Judge Mason on an appeal by the lodge from a decision given by the Zoning Board on August 27, 1956. The decision of the Zoning Board was:

"THE TESTIMONY taken at the public hearing held on this case shows that the intention is to apply for a license for the sale of alcoholic beverages on the premises, and that the intention is also to rent the premises out to other organizations.

"In the opinion of the Board, the chief activities of the proposed club would be one such as is customarily carried on as a business. In accordance with the above findings, the Board disapproves the application."

Thomas Philmore, exalted ruler of the lodge, told the Zoning Board at that time that the lodge was two years old, and has a two story building at the Joplea Rd. address.

The application was protested at that time by several Cherry Hill residents, the Cherry Hill Community Church and the Housing Authority.

WE ARE hoping that the We Moms will consider a monthly skating party for parents and teens, as the initial one was such a success.

On Friday, Nov. 29, the Charmerettes inducted five members into the club.

The induction ceremony emphasized these four principles: service, honor, friendship, and loyalty.

The Bible selection by Joyce Parker was followed by brief speeches on the above topics by Saundra Davis, Virginia Lottier, Lynda Hall, and Carole Perkins.

The inductees were Anastatia Phillips, Brenda Watts, Muriel Kelly and Sheila Chapman. The ceremony and the party which followed were both held at the home of Judith Grinage.

Some guests were Michael Nov, Howard Neale, Lynda Hall, Clarence Mitchell, "Static" Phillips, Cliff McDonald, Judith Ann Grinage, Clarence McDonald, "Tackle" Battle, Bobby Smith, Virginia Lottier, Ernest Shields.

Senor Reckling, Thomas Irving, Saundra Davis, Joyce Anne Parker, Leroy Pinder, Saundra Cox, Nat Steward, Betty Ann Harrison, Lionel Smith, Dianna Lewis, Chandler Wynn.

Murial Kelly, Richard Williams, Elvear Allen, Reggie Thomas, Betty Ann Harrison, Aston Foster, Carroll Jean Perkins, Bernard Stokes, Mary Calver, Melvin Carroll, Sheila Chapman, Albert Hawkins, Ronnie Strickland and Keiffer Mitchell.

SOME PEOPLE around town are planning a cool club which will include pupils from various high schools.

Poly had a Victory Hop while City held its "Flip" Hop. Oh, well! Poly only beat City by 31 points. A nice time was had at both, however.

The Elizabeans under the leadership of Fort Booker are planning a gala formal dance to be held in December at the Central Y. W.

GILDA JONES had guest up from Jessup for the holidays. He was Arthur Hall Joseph Strickland had as his house guest Denise Strickland of New York. Alstor Foster of Rhode Island was the guest of Betty Ann Harrison.

Some of the kids that came home for the holidays were: Leionel Smith, who is a student at Cromwell Academy in Massachusetts and Elvear Allen from Howard University.

Also home for the holidays were Bernice Roach, Rita John, Rose and Humphrey White, all of Maryland State.

Chandler Wynn also came from Howard and entertained a few friends at his west Lafayette Avenue home. Also in from Howard were Charles Hall and Bernard Payne, both of Central State.

Betty Ann Harrison, Senora Reckling, Alfonso Cottman and Clarence Mitchell came in from College Park.

"STATIC" Phillipps highlighted the Charmerette's party in a pink sheath, made to order. Leroy Pinder was in for the holidays. He is now a marine stationed in South Carolina.

Brenda Johnson of St. Frances Academy is becoming quite regular there days.

JOSEPH STRICKLAND gave a party on Saturday, Dec. 1, in honor of his cousin, Denise Strickland who is down from New York.

What's so interesting about the jungle? Everybody seems to be going there these days. Have you been?

Mardel's seems now to be the stop-off spot for all the cosmopolitan young Baltimoreans.

A certain feminine social group entertained at a party but invited more guests than they could accommodate.

European bulk-style sweaters are the newest fad to Baltimore; just as is the pointed-toe shoes which are becoming just as popular with the male set as with the female set.

The writers of this column wish to thank you for any and all criticism, pro and con.
