COOKING IS FUN

There's nothing like pie as a complementary meal ending

By FANNIEJOE REID

Come autumn, and crisp days to whet the appetite, there's nothing like pie to finish off a good meal.

Both weather and food prices add up to making pie a dessert favorite. Plentiful ingredients—sweet potatoes, cranberries, oranges and nut, inspire new recipes. Take stock of your pantry shelves, maybe do a little stocking, and see which of the following recipes appeal to you.

* * *

OLD-FASHIONED Sweet Potato Pie will remind you of pumpkin pie; but it has a flavor goodness that's distinctly its own.

This pie may rate a place on your Thanksgiving menu, if you can wait that long to give it a try.

Old-Fashioned Sweet Potato Pie is made with one cup sifted enriched flour, one-half teaspoon salt, one-third cup shortening, two to three tablespoons cold water, one and three-fourth cups mashed sweet potatoes, two-third cup sugar, one-third cup molasses, one and one-fourth cups milk, one-fourth teaspoon ground cloves, one teaspoon vanilla extract and three eggs, beaten.

Sift together flour and salt. Cut or rub in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle with water, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Turn out on floured board or pastry cloth and press dough together.

Roll dough out to circle one-eighth inch thick. Fit into nine-inch pie pan. Trim and flute edge.

To prepare filling, mash potatoes to smooth paste. Add eggs and mix well. Add sugar, molasses and milk. Mix thoroughly. Add cloves and vanilla extract. Blend well. Pour into unbaked pastry shell.

Bake in moderate hot oven (400 degrees F.) 15 minutes, then reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees F.) for 35 to 40 minutes.

This makes one nine-inch pie.

* * *

TWISTS OF pastry top tart cranberry-Pineapple Pie. This delicacy requires one and one-half cups sifted enriched flour, three-fourth teaspoon salt, one-half cup shortening, and two to four tablespoons cold water.

Sift together flour and salt. Cut or rub in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle with water, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Turn out on floured board or pastry cloth and press dough together.

Roll out one-eighth inch thick. Fit three-fourth of dough into nine inch pie-pan.

Fill with cranberry-pineapple filling. From remaining pastry cut six strips, each ten inches long and one inch wide. Twist strips and lay over pie. Trim and press ends of strips firmly to edges of pastry. Flute edge.

Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees F.) and continue baking about 20 minutes.

For the filling you will need one cup water, one cup sugar, two and one-half cups crushed pineapple and sirup (1-pound, 4-ounce can), two cups raw cranberries, one fourth teaspoon salt, one tablespoon cornstarch, and one tablespoon water.

Boil water and sugar together five minutes. Drain pineapple and reserve sirup. Add pineapple sirup and cranberries to water-sugar mixture.

Cover and cook until skins of cranberries burst. Combine salt and cornstarch. Stir in water.

Add cornstarch mixture to cranberry mixture, stirring constantly. Cook until clear. Add pineapple.

* * *

ORANGE JUICE and rind give just the right piquancy to the rich filling of double-crust Apricot-Nut Pie. You'll find other fruit-filled pies to tempt your autumn taste when you shop at your favorite commerical bakery.

Make Apricot-Nut Pie with two cups sifted enriched flour, one teaspoon salt, two-third cup shortening, three to five tablespoons cold water, two tablespoons grated orange rind, two-third cup sugar, one-half teaspoon almond extract, and one tablespoon cornstarch.

Apricot-Nut Filling requires two tablespoons water, three cups mashed cooked apricots, one-half cup chopped pecans, and one-half cup orange juice.

Sift together flour and salt. Cut or rub in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle with water, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together.

Turn out on floured board or pastry cloth and press dough together. Cover or wrap in waxed paper while preparing Apricot-Nut Filling. Combine apricots, orange juice, orange rind, sugar, and almond extract in saucepan. Heat. Mix cornstarch and water.

Stir into apricot mixture and cook about 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Cool. Add pecans.

Divide pastry into halves. Roll one half to circle one-eighth inch thick and fit into nine-inch pie pan. Roll remaining half of dough for top crust.

Turn filling into bottom crust. Arrange top crust over filling. Trim and flute edge. Prick or slash pastry top to allow steam to escape. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

FOR A SALAD that will rate raves both for its flavor and texture interest, combine cooked diced rutabages with cooked diced potatoes and marinate in a tangy mixture of fresh lemon juice, spices and fresh vegetables.

THE MARRIAGE of Mr. and Mr. Jerome McArthur took place in Baltimore recently. The double-ring ceremony was held at the bridegroom's home, 1405 E. Eager St. The bride is the former Miss Eloise Owens. She is at home with her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sallion, 1416 Mary Ct., while awaiting his return from service in the Army. He is stationed in Ft. Riley Kansas.

Olive sauce

Combine ripe olives, mustard and lemon juice with golden-brown-butter, and you'll have an elegant topping for broiled fish or green vegetables. "Tangy Olive Sauce" takes only a few minutes to prepare—it's a recipe you'll use often.

* * *

TANGY OLIVE SAUCE is made with one-fourth cup ripe olives, one-fourth cup butter or margarine, one teaspoon prepared mustard, and one teaspoon lemon juice.

Cut olives in small pieces. Heat butter in small pan slowly until light brown. Remove from heat and cool slightly. Stir in remaining ingredients, and heat until piping hot.

Serve on broiled or poached fish.

Makes about one-half cup sauce.

Thanksgiving turkey priced to give average budget break

By VIRGINIA L. McLUCKE
Food Economist

Thanksgiving automatically makes you think of a big plump, juicy turkey roasted to a golden brown with savory dressing, cranberries and all the other trimmings.

There is an abundant supply of turkeys at attractive prices. This is especially true of larger sized birds. Order your turkey early. Help your retailer avoid the rush.

The 80.6 million turkeys raised in 1957 combined with large carry over stocks means that we have more turkey available this season than ever before. Turkeys should be relatively inexpensive as a result of this large supply.

THE MOST DESIRABLE size of turkey for your particular family will depend upon the family size, storage facilities and family preferences. In terms of cost per pound, the larger birds are the most economical. These birds cost less per pound and in turn, yield more meat in proportion to bone.

Here is a rule of thumb to follow when buying a ready-to-cook bird: Less than 12 pounds — ¾ to one pound per serving. . . 12 pounds and over ½— to ¾ pound per serving. For frozen stuffed turkey, allow 1½ pounds per serving. Large meat-type birds will yield about 2/3 white meat and 1/3 dark meat.

When you buy, look for a bird that has: moist pliable waxy skin with few pin-feathers; no bruises or discoloration; short body, broad breast, thick meated thighs; and well distributed layers of fat under the skin.

MOST TURKEYS you will find in stores are ready-to-cook and frozen. Thawing turkey before cooking has several advantages. The turkey will cook more uniformly and with less fuel than it will if you put it in the oven frozen. Thawing also prevents the outside from overcooking and becoming dry by the time the inside is done. Thawing a turkey is easy if you plan ahead.

Put it in the refrigerator and allow from one to four days for thawing, depending upon the size. If you wish to speed thawing, leave the turkey in its moisture proof bag and place under cold running water. The bird should stand in the water only until it becomes pliable. Prompt cooking after thawing is recommended. Stuff birds just before roasting.

FOR BEST RESULTS and a juicy meat turkey, cover the outside with fat before roasting. Place the bird, breast down on a rack when roasting is started. Cook at a low temperature 325 degrees F. and allow plenty of time for thorough cooking. Plan to have the turkey done 20 to 30 minutes before carving as this rest period helps juices return to the meat and makes carving easier.

For good eating this week-end as well as for traditional Thanksgiving dinner accompaniments, the vegetable and fruit counters offer variety at economical prices. Celery and onions, for seasonings, salads, and appetizers, are in liberal supply and of excellent quality.

TURKEY ROASTING TIMETABLE

The oven temperature is a slow oven, (325 degrees F.).

Ready - to - cook weight by pounds; total cooking time, hours, stuffed bird:

Six to eight, three and three-fourths to four and one-half hours; eight to 12, four to five; 12 to 16, five to six; 16 to 20, six to seven and one-half; and 20 to 24, seven and one-half to nine.

Oranges, especially Florida juice varieties, and apples are the best-buys in fruit.

Also on Sunday, the Annual Thanksgiving Dinner, sponsored by the Women's Organization will be held.

* * *

USUALLY a familiar face on the Cherry Hill scene, Oliver Smith, a Morgan State College junior, has not been seen around the area in recent weeks. The reason, they say, is that he is pledging Alpha Phi Alpha.

The annual joint Thanksgiving Services of the Baltimore Presbyterian Churches will be held on Thanksgiving Day at the Cherry Hill Community Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Edgar W. Ward, pastor. Participating churches are Grace, New Life, Knox, Madison Ave. and Cherry Hill.

A butterfly lunch will be held at the Community Presbyterian Church Nov. 30, 12 noon to 4 p.m., sponsored by the Senior Usher Board.

Myra Grand Chapter, OES holds annual meeting here

"All segregation must go. Liberty and equality for all our citizens must prevail."

This was the statement made on Tuesday by Cliff Mackay, editor of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers, during the Tuesday meeting of The Myra Grand Chapter Order of Eastern Star.

The Chapter held its 61st annual session here on Monday and Tuesday at the Masonic Temple, and Metropolitan Baptist Church, McCulloh and Mosher Sts.

The Tuesday meeting was held at the church and to the 400 persons present, Mr. Mackay said:

"The world is watching our civil rights struggle with unabated interest.

"The success of our foreign policy lies not so much in catching up with Russia in the launching of bigger and better man-made moons, as by our success in coping with our own civil rights problem.

"Until we provide equal civil rights for all our people, we will be branded as frauds in the practice of liberty."

Many of us do not yet realize that the school segregation crisis involve this most fundamental concept — the concept of liberty and justice for every man . . .

"School segregation is but a symbolic phase of the cause of liberty in the South. (It is) but a part of the whole pattern of segregation, which is a denial of liberty," he added.

* * *

IN OTHER activities at the Tuesday session, officers for the year, 1957-58, were installed.

They are Mrs. Edith Mosby, grand matron, Baltimore, and Louise H. Martin, grand patron. They replace Mrs. Mary E. Jones of Havre de Grace and Ronald C. Reid, of Baltimore.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Helen Smothers, grand associate matron, Annapolis; Mrs. Olivia Bates, grand conductress, Baltimore.

Newly elected officers installed were William Kidd, associate grand patron, and Mrs. Frances Coe, associate grand conductress.

Grand Master Dr. Willard Allen attended the Tuesday session, as is his custom at these annual meetings.

His guests this year included Senator J. Glenn Beall, State Sen. Harry A. Cole, George Russell, attorney, Mr. Mackay, and Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, president of the local branch of the NAACP.

* * *

MRS. ZELMA STANLEY of the Annie S. Baxter Chapter No. 42, was given the honors of a past grand matron for her services to the Myra Chapter.

A donation of $300 from the education fund was given to Miss Willa Mae Nutter of Nanticoke, Md., to help her finish her senior year at Hampton Institute.

Miss Nutter is the daughter of an Eastern Star member.

The Monday meeting was featured by a number of reports from various committees and grand district deputies.

A total of 142 out-of-town delegates attended the two day meeting. Guests came from the District of Columbia, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

CONFIDENTIALLY, Mrs. Pearl Brown of Baltimore, grand daughter treasurer of the Elks, is highly thought of by little Beverly Ann Harper of Philadelphia who helped entertain at the soiree which honored Mrs. Brown on Nov. 10 at the O.V. Catto Auditorium in Philly. P.G.D.R. Brown is grand directress of the J. Finley Wilson Memorial Department and mother of Baltimore's Spirit of Chesapeake Lodge and Temple, daughter ruler of the Great Southern Temple.
