Faith choir honors William J. Reid

The Senior Choir No. 1 of Faith Baptist Church on their Annual Day, last week, featured a program called "This Is Your Life" that honored William J. Reid, choir director and church organist.

Mr. Reid was appointed organist and director of Senior choir No. 2 in his early youth. He has continously served ever since the No. 1 Choir was organized.

Two other singing groups of the church were organized under the direct leadership of Mr. Reid, namely Senior Choir No. 2, and the Male Chorus. He is also a member of the Trustee Board of the church.

Mr. Reid has been employed for many years at Mutual Benefit Society where he now holds the position of assistant manager. A Republican Committeeman, he is also active in civic, state and national political affairs.

Telegrams and letters of congratulations were read including a telegram from Governor McKeldin.

Mr. Reid is married to Mrs. Martha Jones Reid, and soon they will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

Wilbert Moody

Funeral services were held Monday for Wilbert Moody, 39, 1609 Retreat St., from a Fulton St. funeral home.

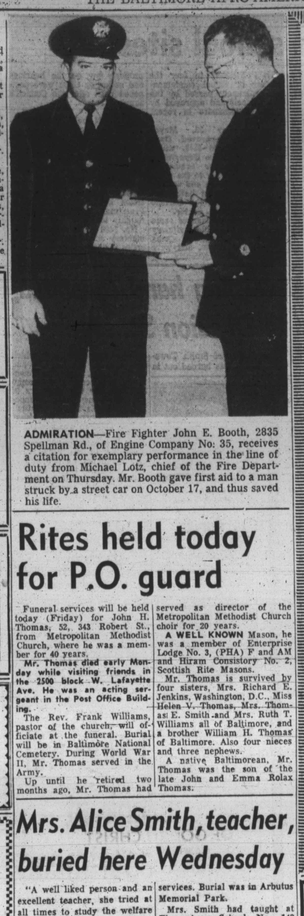
Mr. Moody died Thursday at his home. He had been ill for one year.

The Rev. Edmond D. Meade, pastor of Israel Baptist Church, officiated. Burial was in Baltimore National Cemetery.

During World War II, Mr. Moody served in the Army.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Delores Moody; a daughter, Mrs. Yvonne Johnson; a son, Rodell Moody; a brother, Everett M. Moody; four aunts, Mrs. Mildred Berry, Mrs. Dorothy Atkins, Mrs. Jessie Holcombe and Mrs. Rose Davis.

A native Baltimorean, Mr. Moody was the son of the late Frank and Amie Moody.



ADMIRATION—Fire Fighter John E. Booth, 2835 Spellman Rd., of Engine Company No. 35, receives a citation for exemplary performance in the line of duty from Michael Lotz, chief of the Fire Department on Thursday. Mr. Booth gave first aid to a man struck by a street car on October 17, and thus saved his life.

Rites held today for P.O. guard

Funeral services will be held today (Friday) for John H. Thomas, 52, 343 Robert St., from Metropolitan Methodist Church, where he was a member for 40 years.

Mr. Thomas died early Monday while visiting friends in the 2300 block W. Lafayette Ave. He was an acting sergeant in the Post Office Building.

The Rev. Frank Williams, pastor of the church, will officiate at the funeral. Burial will be in Baltimore National Cemetery. During World War II, Mr. Thomas served in the Army.

Up until he retired two months ago, Mr. Thomas had served as director of the Metropolitan Methodist Church choir for 20 years.

A WELL KNOWN Mason, he was a member of Enterprise Lodge No. 3, (PHA) F and AM and Hiram Consistory No. 2, Scottish Rite Masons.

Mr. Thomas is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Richard E. Jenkins, Washington, D.C., Miss Helen V. Thomas, Mrs. Thomas E. Smith and Mrs. Ruth T. Williams all of Baltimore, and a brother William H. Thomas of Baltimore. Also four nieces and three nephews.

A native Baltimorean, Mr. Thomas was the son of the late John and Emma Rolax Thomas.

Mrs. Alice Smith, teacher, buried here Wednesday

"A well liked person and an excellent teacher, she tried at all times to study the welfare of the children. She did all within her power to see that they were well trained. Her death came as a shock to us. She will be greatly missed from the ranks."

Mrs. Edna G. Johnson, principal of Elementary School No. 142 was speaking about Mrs. Alice Smith, 53, 1921 W. North Ave., a teacher for 28 years, who died Saturday afternoon as she was being admitted to University Hospital.

Funeral services were held Wednesday from Holland Funeral Home. The Rev. James L. Moore, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church conducted the services. Burial was in Arbutus Memorial Park.

Mrs. Smith had taught at Elementary School No. 142 since 1951. Since September she had been in charge of the Annex No. 142A at 2003 Pressbury St.

A GRADUATE of old Coppin Normal School, Mrs. Smith received her degree from Morgan State College and studied at New York University.

She was a member of Sharon Baptist Church for 20 years. She was also a member of "The Women" a social club.

A native of Baltimore, Mrs. Smith was the daughter of the late David Norrell and Mrs. Joanna Norrell, who lived with her.

She is survived by her husband, Andrew E. Smith, a custodian for the Department of Education; her mother, Mrs. Norrell; one son, Marshall T. Bright Jr., a postal worker; a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Latham, and an aunt, Miss Teresa Nickens, all of Baltimore.

Clifford Scott

Clifford Scott, 51, 1504 Madison Ave., died Friday at Mercy Hospital. He had been ill for four weeks.

Funeral services were held Tuesday from a N. Schroeder St. funeral home. The Rev. J. Timothy Boddie, pastor of New Shiloh Baptist Church officiated at the funeral. Burial was in Arbutus Memorial Park.

Mr. Scott was employed for 19 years at a local smelting company.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Helen Udley, Baltimore, Mrs. Rose Hines, Wadley, Ga.; and Mrs. Carrie Thomas, Brooklyn, N.Y.; six brothers, Columbus, Wadley, Ga., Conrad, Brooklyn, N.Y.; and Nathaniel, Jackson, Lewis and Sherman Scott all of Baltimore.

A native of Wadley, Ga., Mr. Scott was the son of the late Andrew and Caroline Scott.

Percy H. Wison

Funeral services were held Saturday from Fulton Baptist Church for Percy Henry Wilson, 47, 1650 N. Fulton Ave., who died at the Marine Hospital. He had been ill for several years.

The Rev. B. F. Jackson, pastor of the church officiated at the funeral. Burial was in New Grove Baptist Church Cemetery, Kenbridge, Va.

Mr. Wilson was a member of Ames Methodist Church for 23 years. He was active in the Neighborhood Club and served in the Army during World War II.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Thiodelia W. Bee; two aunts, Mrs. Viethia Nelson and Mrs. Marie Baine; three uncles, Cornelius and Orlando Baine, Robert Nelson, and 12 cousins.

A local painter for many years, Mr. Wilson was the son of Mrs. Bee and the late William Henry Wilson.
