Retired PRR worker will use her pass to travel

"I've had 29½ years of happiness at my Pennsylvania Station.

"The only regret I have is leaving there."

Mrs. Odelia Stewart, 67, 909 Wheeler St., made the above statement on Wednesday as she announced that she is refiring from her post at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station where she has been an attendant since June 17, 1918.

A farewell banquet will be given in her honor on Monday at the USO Building near the Pennsylvania Station at 7:30 p.m.

PRR officials and dignitaries

It is expected that many of including Governor Theodore McKeldin will be present.

MRS. STEWART will retire with full employee pension benefits and retain her PRR pass—which entitles her to travel anywhere the trains run.

Therefore, she says, she is not the least bit unhappy because traveling is "right down her line."

She is the widow of Edward Stewart, a waiter.

The Stewart children are Mrs. Geraldine S. Dawson who is a teacher at the Carver Vocational School; Mrs. Naomi S. Armstrong, also a teacher at Elementary School No. 127, and Edward Stewart, who is employed as a PRR messenger.

TO REVEAL THE many experiences at the depot in the years there Mrs. Stewart says "would take volumes."

"I had just kept a diary it would have been worth money today," she said.

And she listed among her acquaintances and those who call her friend, many of the world's greatest figures.

She said: "I've seen kings and queens come through our lobby at the station.

"The Queen Mother, King George, the Queen of Rumania, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, our U.S. queen, and many of the royalty of the stage and screen."

Mrs. Stewart recalls the day when the body of President Roosevelt was carried by train through the station and she and other employees placed pennies on the track, let the train pass over them, and then placed them among souvenirs to keep forever.

"Oh, I love my Pennsylvania," exclaimed the vivacious woman as she went on breathlessly telling of the ever-unfolding pageant which passed by her in those 39 years.

She said: "If you want to see the whole world go by, spend time in a railroad station."

* * *

THEN SHE RECALLED the fabulous special train cars, relics of days gone by, in which famous people traveled.

"I remember as if it were yesterday that Padrewski's car was on the side and we all went to his concert.

"We did the same thing when Dr. and Mrs. Henry Barton Jacobs's car was parked in our yard.

"He was the great Baltimore philanthropist who lived on Mt. Vernon Place. He and his family had a beautiful private railroad car."

Most pleasant memories Mrs. Stewart has, she says, are those of Hattie McDaniels, and Bill Robinson (Bojangles) who always remembered her when passing through Baltimore.

She also recalled Dr. and Mrs. W. E. B. DuBois, and the attention the great scholar attracted when arriving at the Baltimore station.

CONTINUING to call off a list of the best known people on earth, Mrs. Stewart recalled that "many is the time" she has seen Harry Belafonte, Dorothy Lamour, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, Eddie Rochester Anderson, and "just about every President of the United States.

"I loved to watch the big conventions, folks getting on the train with their colorful costumes, their laughter and gaiety, their plumed hats and their waving banners."

She is such a sparkling personality, no one would be likely to forget Mrs. Stewart, and she says that is exactly what has happened to the many friends she has made through the years.

"I've met them at the Chicago Fair and in San Francisco and they all remember me.

"That's why I'm going to spend my retirement days traveling.

"They've all invited me and I think, now I'll go pay them a little visit."

HONORS FOR SERGEANT — Shown with the citation he received on Sunday from the Mt. Moriah Chapter No. 1, R.A.M., is Sgt. Harry Scott of the Northwestern District. With him is his wife. Sergeant Scott was cited for the outstanding contribution he has made to his community.

Eighteen amateur grid games on weekend slate

Seven amateur football leagues will be in operation tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon. Eighteen contests will be played in thtse circuits. This will be the biggest sandlot card of the season.

Topping these games will be the Carrolls - Wildwood tilt booked for Carroll No. 1 at 3 o'clock. The team from Edmondson Avenue fresh from its victory over Arcadia last Sunday hopes to halt the winning streak of the Carroll Park eleven. The league leaders are out in front in the Monumental race with five wins and no defeats.

IN THE Baltimore Club race, Arbutus also unbeaten will face Hanlon in third tilt. This game is scheduled for Arbutus at 3 o'clock. The visitors must win this game in order to stay in first division.

Govans out in front in the Optimist Club Loop plays Parkville, runner - up at Dewees Field at 3 o'clock. The County team must win this game to stay within striking distance of the York Roaders.

Southwestern Boys Club and Dolkin, tied for second place in the Baltimore Junior race will clash at Slentz Field at 1 o'clock. The loser of this game will drop into the second division if Sparrows Point beats Mort's when the two clubs the Southwestern Police Boys clash, at Mort's Field at 1 o'clock.

BROOKLYN CAN cause plenty of trouble in the Maryland Junior race. The South Baltimore eleven after some early losses has been playing good football and could give Club a busy afternoon Sunday at Brooklyn. The team from Carroll Park is in second place, a half game behind the leading Red Shield Club.

The Midget circles Sunday, Towanda and Red Shield meet in an important game at Towanda Oval, and Parkville and Northwood clash in the top Optimist contest at Double Rock. Both of these games begin at 1 o'clock.

Tough Jackson next for Texas Southern

HOUSTON, Texas — The Jackson College Tigers of Jackson, Mississippi with an impressive 5-1 record will be the Texas Southern University Tigers' next home foe Saturday.

Jackson, with victories over Mississippi Industrial (51-8), Alcorn (28-0), Xavier (33-0), and Grambling (39-0) has jolted among the top ten college teams. Their only loss was a Prairie View in their season opener.

39 falls among D.C. 96 home accidents

The District Red Cross Safety Services reports 96 residents treated at local hospitals last week due to home accidents. In addition, one death was reported when a one-year-old boy consumed a bottle of aspirin.

The breakdown of injuries lists 39 falls, two burns, 14 poisons, six foreign bodies in ear, eye, nose, throat and stomach, 14 cuts and 21, unclassified.

TO REPRESENT SOUTHERN

BATON ROUGE, La. — Two Southern University professors of chemistry will represent the university at the first annual conference on Analytical Chemistry in Nuclear Reactor Technology, to be held here in Gatlinburg Civic Auditorium, Gatlinburg, Tenn., Nov. 4 through the 6.

Vernon 7 phones to become dial

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. will spend $242,000 to change the Vernon 7 telephones in Baltimore to dial.

This will be part of a $5,182,000 expansion program which will also include additional central office equipment to increase the number of circuits from telephone building in Baltimore and Brooklyn, Dundalk, Essex, Pikesville, Towson and Cockeysville.

Tree sale to aid adult blind fir trees will be on sale at the Memorial Stadium Dec. 21 at the eighth annual Christmas tree sale for the adult blind. The $40,000 raised during the past three years was used to purchase land for the new training center at 2901 Strickland St.

Money in previous years was used to buy machinery and equipment to help blind workers increase their earning power.

Manslaughter case dismissed

A 47-year-old photographer who was involved in an automobile accident which claimed the life of an elderly woman last September, was found not guilty of manslaughter Tuesday at Central.

The charge against Melvin Richard Harris of the 3000 block Belmont Ave., was dismissed by Magistrate Standley Richardson.

Mr. Harris was identified by police as the driver of an automobile which struck Mrs. Sarah Houck, 83, of the 1800 block Eutaw Pl., at North and Linden Aves.

Housewife says youngster dashed into side of car

Mrs. Adline Delois Harris, 1700 block of N. Caroline St., told police Tuesday afternoon that a five-year-old boy ran into the side of her car from between two parked vehicles as she drove east on Lafayette Ave. at Port St.

The 25-year-old housewife took the boy to Johns Hopkins Hospital where he was treated for abrasions of the right knee and contusions.

Mrs. Harris was charged with reckless driving.

Ruling by Judge Lane in NACCA news letter

The initial issue of the News Letter for the National Association of Claimants Compensation Attorneys records the first legal precedent of a colored judge in a court of record in Maryland.

It involved a ruling by People's Court Judge E. Everett Lane this August in the case of Emory Bogardy vs. Harry Arnold.

Judge Lane ruled the defendant could be held liable for his negligence in leaving his keys in the ignition of his car, which apparently was stolen prior to its collision with plaintiff's car.

NACCA editor John J. O'Connor Jr., of Baltimore, secured

CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR

NEW YORK — The World Affairs Center for the United States has appointed Donald W. Wyatt as its chief administrative officer, it was announced Friday.

'Mr. Wyatt will administer the program of the center, which acts as a national information and coordinating agency on world affairs for citizens and nongovernmental organizations. He is a native of Baltimore.

the judgment of $94.63 for property damage to a parked car in the precedent-setting case.

The NACCA News Letter is a periodic publication of the NACCA bar, supplemental to the NACCA Law Journal. It made its debut with the October issue.

Judge Lane, who became the first colored robed judge south of the Mason-Dixon line when appointed to the Peoples Court, in Baltimore by Gov. McKeldin, was recently honored at a testimonial banquet sponsored by the Monumental Bar Association of Baltimore.

In Memoriam 1

ALLEN — In loving memory of our dear mother, NEVELIA, who passed away November 8, 1954.

Thoughts return to scenes long past.

Time speeds on but memories last.

We do not know, why we must suffer

From those we love most dear,

But God who does all things right

Will someday make us clear.

HUSBAND, DAUGHTERS, SON AND GRANDCHILDREN.

BLUE — In loving memory of our dearly beloved husband and brother, DARRELL, who departed this life November 9, 1956.

We love you dear Darrell,

But God loved you best.

You are not forgotten, loved one

Nor will you ever be

As long as life and memory last

We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore.

As time goes by we miss you more.

Your loving smile, your gentle face

No one can fill your vacant place.

Your loved ones,

WINNIE, ERECILLA, CLARA, EGGIE

DUPPINS — In loving memory our dear mother, NANCY V. DUPPINS, who departed this life twenty-seven years ago, November 9, 1930.

My lips cannot tell how I miss you,

My heart cannot tell what to say;

God alone knows how I miss you

In a home that is lonesome to-day.

Only God knows my loneliness and my heart ache since the years

How I try to hide the sadness,

And to check the lonely tear.

Many times I have prayed grief,

My Savior comforts me.

Do of good cheer and do not weep,

Stay with her you will be.

Somebody dear to me.

By Her devoted MATTIE Son, PAUL R. DUPPINS.

HOLLAND — In loving memory of our beloved mother, EMMA SUMMERVILLE, who departed this life two years ago, November 8, 1955.

Sweet is the work, my God, my King,

All time spent in your service

Will be paid back a hundred-fold,

It was to part with one so dear,

And speak of how you care.

Sweet is your will, God, my King,

And speak of how you care.

Sweet is your will and do not weep,

Stay with her, you will be.

Somebody dear to me.

By Her devoted MATTIE

HOWELL — In loving memory of our dearly beloved brother, LORENZO HOWELL JR., who departed this life November 9, 1956.

One year has passed since we lost our dear

When the one we loved was called to hear

God took him home, It was His will,

But within our hearts he lives still.

MOM AND DAD, SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

PAYNE — A tribute of love to our dear father, CHARLES E. PAYNE, who passed six years ago, November 9, 1951.

You were the sunlight of our home,

Your light, our life, our all;

You knew when you was to leave,

But you answered Jesus' call.

Though gone you're not forgotten,

For our loss is Heaven's gain,

And there someday, we ever pray,

To join you once again.

Devoted Daughters, ANNIE L. FLEMMINGS, GERTRUDE P. BRANCH, MARY L. SMITH

RICE — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, WILLIAM, who passed away November 8, 1956.

Six years gone for your willing hands,

Of all you tried to do.

To bring us happiness on earth

And make our dreams come true.

Some say time heals all sorrow

But time is far has only proved

How much we miss your love.

Loving Wife, MINNIE CHILDRESS AND CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN

THOMAS — In loving memory of our dear husband, JOHN H. THOMAS who departed this life on November 9, 1950.

God made us a wonderful father,

But He took you dear Father from us.

We love each day playing such a part,

And time has healed our broken hearts.

The tears we shed are all in vain,

We know they will never bring you back again.

Your love and memory are still with us

We will remember thee.

MRS. ELLA THOMAS AND CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN, THE THOMAS FAMILY.

WALLACE — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, EDWARD E., who departed this life November 10, 1955.

You are not forgotten, loved one,

Nor will you ever be

As long as life and memory last

We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore.

As time goes by we'll miss you more.

Your loving smile, your gentle face

No one can fill your vacant place.

LOVING WIFE AND DAUGHTERS.

WILLIAMS, WING AND BOYER — In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband, father, brother, father and brother-in-law, WILLIAM H. WILLIAMS — November 9, 1941

MARY E. WING — April 18, 1938

ROBERT L. BOYER — October 9, 1936

HENRY L. BOYER — April 5, 1941

MARY J. BOYER — January 6, 1915

Sometimes it's hard to understand

Why some things have to be.

But in His wisdom God has planned

Beyond our power to see.

In Memoriam 2

WILLIAMSON — In memory of my dear father, SIMON WILLIAMSON, who departed this life November 9, 1934.

How can we say it, to help others know

Just how much we loved you,

How to express our love and care

Thanks for all the things you taught us,

They help us day by day.

And we are ever grateful,

That you were sent our way.

We cannot see your face

Or your voice with laughter hear,

But you are never left us,

Your spirit is always near.

DEVOTED WIFE AND FAMILY.

WILLIAMSON — In remembrance of our dear uncle, REV. SIMON WILLIAMSON, who passed away three years ago, November 9, 1954.

Dear uncle, we miss you so

On him we always could depend;

He cheered us in sickness,

And soothed our pain,

Now we miss our friend.

We'll meet again.

EDDIE HENDERSON

WOODLAND — In loving memory of my dear daughter, DOROTHY JESTINE TIPPETT, who departed this life three years ago, November 8, 1954.

No one knows how much we miss you,

No one knows the sorrow we feel

But God knows best.

He took you to rest,

Sleep on dear Dorothy, sleep on.

MOTHER, GRANDMOTHER AND FAMILY.

WATKINS — In loving memory of our dear husband, PHILLIP EUGENE, who passed away two years ago, November 9, 1955.

Loving Wife OLIVIA WATKINS
