Philomathians hear AFRO reporters on Little Rock

Members of the Philomathian Club were treated to an eye-witness account of happenings last month in Little Rock, Ark., at their Saturday evening meeting held at the Morgan Park home of Mrs. T. L. Brown.

Speakers were Moses J. Newson, AFRO reporter, who was among newsmen beaten by the mob which tried to turn back nine colored students who sought to enter Central High School on the morning of Sept. 23, 1957, and Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver, AFRO special writer, who spent two weeks in Little Rock after Federal troops went on duty.

Of his experience, Mr. Newson said: "It is pretty hard to tell what it feels like when members of a mob come up behind you and strike you or kick you in the back. I guess you just think of getting away."

Mrs. Oliver described the people she met and told how some of them, especially the poorer whites, made a fetish of insulting their colored neighbors.

BOTH MR. NEWSON and Mrs. Oliver told of the courage of the nine students and the dedicated work of Mrs. Daisy Bates, Arkansas State NAACP leader, who is their chief advisor. A question and answer period followed.

The speakers were introduced by Mrs. Frank Phillips, a member of the club. Mrs. Carl Murphy, president of the club, presided.

Special guest at the meeting was Mrs. Newson, wife of the speaker. The Newsoms recently moved to Baltimore from Memphis where he was an assistant managing editor of a Tennessee weekly.

Other members of the Philomathian Club: are: Mesdames Ralph Cook, Everett Lane, William Wright, Ralph Allen, Elmer Burgess, Frederick Dedmond, John Hampton, W. A. C. Hughes Jr.;

Also Mesdames Martin Jenkins, William McAfee, Douglass Sheppard, Benjamin Quarles, Raymond Diggs;

And Misses Sarah Sampson and Dukeye Woode, and Dr. Irene Diggs.

Also a guest, was Mrs. Alonzo Parham.

Physicians order rest for Tubman

MONROVIA, Liberia (ANP) —President William V. S. Tubman of Liberia was ordered to take a complete rest by two Swiss physicians here last week who had been called in to treat the Liberian chief executive for stomach trouble.

Mr. Tubman has retired to his farm at Totota, 100 miles from Monrovia for the prescribed rest.

Frontiers speaker

Frank T. Jones, executive director of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association, will be the Frontiers' guest speaker at their weekly luncheon, Tuesday, Nov. 12, at the Druid Hill Ave. YMCA.

Mr. Jones, a recognized authority on tuberculosis, will discuss TB as a social problem with a medical aspect. The talk promises to be stimulating to both professionals and laymen.

Democratic women honor Kovens with testimonial

"We knew we could do a good job...this man showed us how to do a better job...this gentleman has done many fine things for us."

Mrs. Victorine Q. Adams, chairman of the Colored Women's Democratic Campaign Committee of Maryland, was speaking Tuesday evening at a testimonial her organization was giving in the York Hotel's Fifth District political leader.

Some 50-odd guests, representing a number of organizations about the city, gathered with Mrs. Adams and members of her organization to mark the occasion.

* * *

MR. KOVENS was presented a certificate of merit from the organization, which cited an appreciation for his "tolerance, and many acts of kind consideration."

The occasion also served for the announcement that Senator Cora M. Brown, of Detroit, would be guest speaker at 10:45 a.m. Sunday, at Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Church, Dolphin and Etting Sts., when the organization assembles for its annual sermon observance.

Mrs. Brown will also receive a certificate of merit from the organization honoring her achievements in the political and civic world.

* * *

IN ACCEPTING the testimonial, tendered him Tuesday evening, Mr. Kovens stated in part:

"I am deeply touched by what has been said about me. But, everything that has been done in your organization has been done through cooperation, and not by some special efforts of mine, as an individual."

Among those who helped the Colored Women's Democratic Campaign Committee of Maryland observe the testimonial for Mr. Kovens were:

Lloyd Randolph, veteran Democratic leader; William (Little Willie) Adams, business man and political figure; Moses Lake, salesman for a liquor company; Ric Cummings, tavern proprietor; Charles Richard Rudolph; Ray Hayesberg, Parks Sausage Company official; Charles Mouser, Dorsey, Liquor Board inspector; Samuel E. Stewart, 11th Ward executive. Alexander Lerner, insurance company executive, and several members of the host organization.

Sorors observe Founder's week

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority will observe Founder's Week, Nov. 15-17.

Alpha Alpha Sigma Chapter of this city will open the observation with a public meeting at Enoch Pratt Library, Branch No. 17, when they will hear an address by Mrs. Frances H. Howard, director of Maryland Branch of United Nations.

This program will be on Nov. 15, at 8 p.m.

This will be followed by a luncheon at the Madison Avenue branch YWCA on Nov. 16. One of their sorors, Mrs. Carolyn Robinson, will be speaker. The sorors will worship at John Wesley Methodist Church on the 17th, as the closing feature.

Correction

In error in a recipe for chocolate cake, as made by Mrs. W. Emerson Brown, and published in the Tuesday edition of this paper, has homemakers puzzled, according to their phone calls.

The ingredients for the cake are a cup of butter, three cups of flour, two and a fourth cups sugar, four teaspoons baking powder, four eggs, a cup and a half of milk and a teaspoon each of vanilla and lemon flavoring.

All of the ingredients go into a mixing bowl at one time. The cake is baked in a tube cake pan.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

COOKING IS FUN

Food "Weeks" serve purpose watch to save on budget

"What Week are you cooking up, now?" quipped my husband, as I began chewing on a pencil and trying to decide how I should begin this column.

I had to smile. For it is true that in the food field there seems always to be a "week" in which some special item is being featured. And my family says that they know when its apple week, or rice week, or pork week, by our meal.

But really it is not a laughing matter. It is a good way to save on your food budget, a good way to add to your cooking skills and to add new ways of preparing foods to your repertoire.

In practically every case, the manufacturers, growers, and officials of the U.S. Government has gone to great means to prepare new food tips. And always the foods are at good prices to encourage sales.

For instance, this week the U.S. Department of Agriculture is calling attention to the food value and penny price of potatoes. The department has published a leaflet of facts and recipes that you may buy from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C. for 15 cents.

I'm an old hand with potatoes, but I found several new and delicious recipes.

* * *

SALMON AND potato puff was one that my family enjoyed quite literally.

The recipe calls for a cup of salmon, two tablespoons of butter or margarine, two tablespoons finely cut celery, two tablespoons finely cut parsley, a tablespoon finely chopped onion, one and a half cups hot or cold seasoned mashed potatoes, one and a half tablespoon lemon juice, three drops tobacco sauce, and two eggs, separated.

Drain the fish, and flake it with a fork. Heat the butter or margarine and cook the celery, parsley and onion in it until the onion is golden brown. Combine with the salmon, mashed potatoes and seasonings.

Beat egg yolks well and add to the mixture. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold in. Pile lightly in a greased baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for one hour or until firm in the center and lightly browned. This makes five servings.

* * *

QUICK CREAMY potatoes is another recipe that comes in handy when time is scarce.

You will need two and a half cups diced raw potatoes, a cup of milk, two tablespoons finely chopped onion, a teaspoon of salt, pepper, and a tablespoon finely cut parsley.

Combine the potatoes with the milk, onion, salt and pepper in a heavy fry pan. Cover and cook slowly, stirring frequently, for 20 or 30 minutes, or until the potatoes are tender and most of the milk is absorbed. If the potatoes are very mealy, more milk may be needed.

Sprinkle with parsley before serving.

* * *

POTATO GRIDDLE scones are delicious when served with creamed tuna, creamed chipped beef or other creamed fish or meat.

They are made with a cup and a half of sifted flour, a teaspoon of salt, two teaspoons baking powder, two tablespoons shortening, two-thirds cup cold seasoned mashed potatoes, one egg, beaten and two to four tablespoons milk.

Sift together the flour, salt and baking powder. Cut in the shortening until the mixture is granular. Blend in the potatoes.

Combine egg and two tablespoons milk, and add to the flour - potato mixture. Mix slightly. Add more milk if needed to make the dough hold together.

Turn onto a lightly floured board and roll out to about three-quarter inch thickness. Cut into two-inch squares. Place on a hot, very lightly greased griddle or fry pan and cook slowly, seven or eight minutes on each side. Turn only once.

* * *

POTATO meatburgers are made with three-fourths cup ground or coarsely grated raw potato, three-fourths pound ground beef, a fourth cup grated or finely chopped onion, two tablespoons chopped green pepper, a teaspoon salt, one egg beaten, cooking fat or oil, a cup of tomato juice, a tablespoon flour and a fourth cup water.

Add potato, beef, onion, green pepper, and salt to beaten egg. Shape the mixture into flat cakes. Heat a little cooking fat or oil in a fry pan and brown the cakes on both sides.

Add tomato juice and thickening. Mix flour and water and add gradually to the liquid in the pan. Cook slowly, stirring constantly until thickened, and pour over the cakes.

TWO GREEN leafy vegetables from Maryland farms are good buys. Spinach and kale are seasonally large supplies available. Kale has broad, crinkled dark or bluish green leaves that do not form a head. Kale has a stronger flavor and thicker stems in the leaves than most greens. Many prefer to strip the leaves, discarding the stems before cooking. Spinach is a smooth stocky plant with smooth dark green leaves. Both kale and spinach are available loose by the pound and pre - washed in 10 or 20 ounce film bag packages.

Cabbage and sweet potatoes remain good buys at the vegetable counter. The fruit in greatest supply with attractive price tags is apples.

CANNED AND frozen peas head the list of processed foods for economical prices and liberal supplies. Acreage planted for canning was down slightly but yields were moderately higher than last year's crop yield. Less peas were frozen. The result was a canned pack substantially larger and the carry over stocks were also larger. The supplies of canned green peas are near record levels, about 16 percent above last year's level. Because of the heavy supplies, consumers are likely to find peas among the more attractively priced items.

Brocolli good vegetable buy

The vegetable season knows no holiday and no end. There has been a real shift in variety on the vegetable counters and the parade of fall vegetables can add spark to meal planning and shopping, says Virginia McCuskie, Food Economist, Baltimore Office, Department of Markets, University of Maryland.

According to the food guides set forth by the United States Department of Agriculture, four or more servings of vegetables and fruits are needed daily to provide adequate nutrition. A dark green or de
