Court Fight Looms Over Calhoun on TV

NEW YORK (ANP) — "Bride and Groom" a television program which features real-life marriages on a coast-to-coast hookup has threatened to sue the Amateur Athletic Union if it induces Lee Calhoun, the 1956 Olympic hurdles champion to break a contract with the network.

The AAU last week threatened to strip Calhoun of his amateur standing if he gets married on the TV program.

CALHOUN WAS scheduled to marry his fiancee Miss Gwendolyn Bannister on the program last Friday. However, the AAU warned him that since the program is sponsored and the participants receive gifts the body would declare him ineligible for further amateur competition if he goes through with plans for the television wedding.

The AAU accused him of trying to capa itioahinessieiet t h ing to capitalize on his athletic fame.

HOWEVER LAST Sunday "Bride and Groom" producer John Reddy sent Don Ferris AAU secretary a telegram threatening legal action if it interferes with the TV marriage. It said:

"We will be compelled to take legal action against you and the AAU for unlawfully inducing a breach of contract." And it added; "Anything given on the program will be wedding gifts presented to the bride." It described as "purely incidental" Calhoun's status as a track star.

"Unless you notify us immediately that your objection to Mr. Calhoun's appearance has been withdrawn," the TV producers argued, "we will proceed to take legal action without further notice or delay."

Youngster has her eyes on Olympics

"This is the first time I have ever won anything. I am planning to attend college one day and become a school teacher. Why, who knows, one day I just may be another famous Olympic champion."

These were the words of Claudine Lawrence 12, 2702 N. Rosedale St., an eighth grader at Booker T. Junior High School, who has just won a silver medal for the 50-yard dash in the AAU meet last Tuesday at Clifton Park.

Claudine represented Hanlon Park at the AAU meet.

She is a member of Mt. Ararat Baptist Church, Gwynns Falls Parkway and Longwood and is the president of her Sunday school class.

At Booker-T. she was a member of the dance group and the music club.

Claudine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson.

Major League Roundup

CHICAGO (ANP) — Larry Doby is what is known in the baseball trade as a streak hitter. Almost every season he has been in the majors, Doby has had two or three hitting binges during which he has been one of the feared batters in either big league.

This season, probably due largely to injuries, the Chicago White Sox centerfielder, has not had one of his typically sustained batting sprees. That is, he hadn't had one until last week.

THEN, in one of his happy hunting grounds—Griffith Stadium in Washington — Doby went on a hitting orgy, climaxing his outbreak at the plate with his first grand slam of his major league career.

His bases-loaded home run came in a game in which the White Sox suffered a 5-to-4 defeat at the hands of the last-place American League Senators.

Doby's hitting, however, had preceded earlier two victories in the 3-game series. In a 6-to-5 win, Doby had a perfect night with four singles and a walk, driving in two runs, including the [illegible] tally.

ON THE [illegible] OUS evening, Larry blasted two home runs with President Eisenhower looking on. One of his drives was a mammoth 450-foot wallop into the centerfield bleachers. The drives were reminiscent of two Doby hit in 1949, when he blasted two clear out of the park onto the roofs of nearby houses.

Larry got help offensively from his teammate, Minnie Minoso. The Cuban outfielder also got a pair of homers for the edification and enjoyment of the President. The following evening he weighed in with a single and a double—the two base hit being his 24th of the season.

SINCE his return to action with a layoff due to a sprained ankle, Henry Aaron, Milwaukee's candidate for the triple batting crown, has tailed off somewhat. The 23-year-old outfielder, however, still maintained his leadership in several offensive departments.

Aaron led the National League in batting (.329), in runs batted in (80), in home runs (30).

Smith sees 'biggest' net meet

XENIA, Ohio — Dr. Sylvester Smith, president of the American Tennis Association, believes that the largest national tennis tournament in the history of the association is in prospect for the courts of Central State College, here August 19 - 24.

Althea Gibson, world champion and holder of the ATA women's title for the past ten years, may have to forego the journey. She is scheduled to play in the national women's doubles championships the same week in New England.

PLANS for the tournament this year include the national junior championships and a stepped-up social program.

The program will include a ladies' day, press day and a beauty contest.

The association will also hold its annual election of officers on August 24.

California tennis players who have not attended the championship in several years will be among the entries. The drawings will be held in Mitchel Hall Sunday, August 18.

Althea Gibson plays Shady Rest exhibition

NEW JERSEY

The 800 tennis fans who journeyed to Shady Rest Golf Club on Sunday for their yearly treat of tennis "cake" were given a little icing this year.

The sponsors of the tournament, known as the Eastern Championships, added the icing in presenting Althea Gibson in an exhibition with Dr. Richard N. Cohen.

The exhibition was limited to 10 games, which kept everyone tense for about 30 minutes.

THE NEW JERSEY Tennis Association stages these games each year.

On Saturday John Mudd, of East Orange, former CIAA player, took the measure of Jefferson Craig who for many years has been one of Jersey's more prominent tennis players.

This battle raged for nearly three hours, the score of 7-5, 2-6, 14-12 indicates how closely they were matched.

Mudd shockingly upset the nationally ranked Ubert Vincent of New York losing by 9-7, 6-7 in a semi final match on Sunday.

ANOTHER nationally ranked player, Dr. Matilda Davis of Elizabeth, N.J. "bit the dust" at the hands of Maureen Dubison of New York in the women's quarter finals.

Also in the same round a Jersey City miss, Inez Phillips, a newcomer to tournament play set down Billie Pressley, a veteran New York campaigner after losing the first set 7-5.

She came back to win 10 games in a row, taking the second set at 6-0, and leading 4-0 in the third set, when the Jersey girl began to run out of steam, but had enough reserve to take two more games to win at 6-4.

THE SENIOR men's singles (veterans) title went to Walter Onque the Newarker whose agility and heady play was too much for Jesse Wright from Philadelphia. The score was 9-7, 6-3.

The showery weather prevented getting an early start on Sunday, as it was afternoon before a match could be played. Rain drizzles made the footing rather heavy.

The unfinished matches, to complete the tournament, will be played on Labor Day.

Howard football coach for '57 $64,000 question

WASHINGTON

Who will coach football at Howard University this fall?

This is the $64,000 question that has been asked by sports lovers around the city all week with no answers.

Tom Johnson, who handled the Bison gridiron tutoring for five years, resigned earlier this year, but to date no announcement of a successor has been made by Hilltop officials.

USUALLY FOOTBALL practice sessions begin on the Hill top shortly after Labor Day, and with time drawing near for the customary drills everybody has been asking "Who is the new Bison coach?"

No one at Howard seemed to know the answer. At least, they are not ready to announce it.

Ernest Goodman, director of public relations at Howard, was out of town and unavailable for comment. He is in Chicago attending the American College of Public Relations Association meeting.

DR. JAMES NABRIT, secretary of the university, also was unavailable. He was out of town, attending funeral services for a relative.

Dr. Samuel Barnes, director of the Department of Physical Education, also was out of town. Other officials at Howard were unable to throw any light on the football subject.

It was learned, however, that three names have been recommended for the post to the board of athletic control.

Whether or not one of those recommended had been selected already, however, could not be ascertained.

NBA says Floyd to risk title

NEW YORK (ANP) — Although it passed a resolution criticising the forthcoming Floyd Patterson - Pete Rademacher heavyweight tussle as unfavorable, the Executive Committee of the National Boxing Association declared that it would recognize the winner as heavyweight champion. It stated firmly that Patterson's title will be at stake in the bout.

There has been much grumbling about the status of the bout in view of Rademacher's inexperience. Pete has never fought as a pro, and his sole claim to fame is that he won the 1956 Olympic boxing championship, defeating a bunch of nondescripts in three-round bouts.

THE PATTERSON - Rademacher bout is scheduled for Seattle. Pete's hometown, Aug. 22. Patterson has been guaranteed $ 250,000 for the bout.

Explaining the committee's stand as regards to its recognition of the bout as being for the title, Abe Green, N.B.A. Commissioner stated: "Every time the heavyweight champion goes to bat, the title has to be at stake."

Earlier the committee had passed a resolution stating:

"The N. B. A. feels that Rademacher is of unproven ability and stature and therefore the N.B.A. does not look with favor on his proposed bout for the heavyweight title."

D. C. to host '57 golf nationals of this city, is making plans for one of the biggest tournaments of the history of the United Golfers Association, which will stage its 31st annual event over the courses of Potomac Park, August 26-30.

It is expected that the tournament will bring to Washington one of the largest groups of golfers to participate in the UGA event for many years, according to Mrs. Ethel M. Williams, president of the all-women's Wake Robin Golf Club, which is serving as host for the tournament. Large numbers of registrations have already been received.

IN ADDITION to a gala array of trophies for the championship divisions for men, women, senior men, and junior boys and girls, Wake Robin has announced that there will be trophies and prizes for as many flights as are entered in the various divisions of the tournament.

The Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga., has contributed the championship trophies for five years.

CHARLIE SIFFORD, Philadelphia, who placed high in the money ranks of the recent Eastern Open at Baltimore, will defend his championship in the pro division, while Gordon Goodson, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, is defending amateur champion. Pro purse and flight trophies are sponsored by the UGA and the host club, while Schaefer Brewing Company is also a donor of trophies this year.

Franklin T. Lett, Detroit, is UGA president, and Mrs. Paris Brown, former Wake Robin president, is UGA tournament director. In addition to Mrs. Williams, the officers of Wake Robin are Mrs. Adelaide Adams, vice president; Mrs. Gertrude Suber, recording secretary; Mrs. Marie Jones, financial secretary; Mrs. Flora Coleman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Vydee Carter, treasurer and Mrs. Irene Brown, chaplain.

In the absence of Mrs. Paris Brown, who has been traveling abroad, Mrs. Marie T. Pittman has been acting chairman of the tournament committee of the host club. Wake Robin plans a line of social activities in connection with the tournament, including an open house at the Tropicana Club, New Dunbar Hotel, on August 25.

FORMER XAVIERITE IS ANAESTHESIA GRADUATE

NEW ORLEANS—Miss Marie L. Jackson, former Xavierite from New Iberia, became the 20th graduate of Flint-Goodridge's School of Anaesthesia July 31 at exercises held in the hospital's new cafeteria last week.

According to C. C. Weil, administrator, the hospital is one of two in the United States with a training center for student anaesthetists. Its graduates are serving with distinction throughout the country.
