You can thank the nice people over at the CLUB ASTORIA for coming up with something new to make nights out a thing of real pleasure.

They want to help you celebrate your birthday and all that you have to do to take advantage of this marvelous offer is to clip out the coupon that appears elsewhere or take it right on over to the CLUB ASTORIA, Edmondson near Carey St.

You'll have an enjoyable time at the ASTORIA where the music is offered by the Nomads.

THIS HOT weather that we have been having makes the beach a nice place to be for the weekend.

So when you head for pleasure head for Sparrow's Beach where the entertainment bill on Sunday will feature Paul Williams and his orchestra plus the singing favorites, the Cadillacs.

Travel on down that way this Sunday and have yourself a ball.

MEL'S TAVERN is now delightfully air conditioned and serving a delicious drink, the "Susie Q." A new chef has also been added to the staff and hot crabs are served every Thursday night. The address is 2259 Reisterstown Rd.

Gene Smith's Four Notes are featured at the CARNIVAL LOUNGE, 1345 Poplar Grove St., Don't miss them, they are good.

CARR'S BEACH has lined up a full weekend of pleasure for you, starting tonight (Friday) when there is a rock and roll show, a beach party and the battle of the quartets featuring the Scholars and the Corvettes. Also present will be Red Prysock.

Saturday will see another beach party with Red Prysock.

On Sunday that terrific man of song, Al Hibbler, will join Red Prysock in the beautiful Bengazi Cocktail Lounge along with Johnny Sparrow and his Bows and Arrows, Eura Bailey and the Moon Glows.

Out in the open there will be a gigantic water show plus boat races. The will be a one mile race to shore, a Chesapeake mile championship, a Red Cross demonstration and much much more.

THE RAIL INN is offering the music of Reggie Kelly while you always know that there will be first rate entertainment at the CLUB CASINO.

JONE'S COCKTAIL LOUNGE also has fine entertainment and you'll like the Vari Tones at PHIL'S, Mount and Mosher Sts. Ray Chambers is the man of music at the RED FOX.

If dancing is what you like then you'll just love the KNOTTY PINE where Eddie Gough plays for dancing.

At CHICK'S there's the music of Flink Johnson and why not pay avisit to the COMEDY CLUB where the music and drinks are always good.

Modern music lovers should be very happy at the TIJUANA where Oscar Pettiford is the man of music . . . That's it . . . Have fun.

Annual concert set this Sunday

The Bureau of Music will present the annual Combined Concert by the Number 2 Concert Bands, on Sunday, August 4, at 8:30 p.m., in Druid Hill Park, Grove 5.

The guest soloist for this concert will be Daniel Comegys Jr.

Daniel is a baritone, studying with the well-known bass baritone, Frank Whitmore. He is a student at Morgan State College and a member of the College Octet, and has appeared on radio and television; he has also sung in Manhattan center in New York and given many recitals throughout the city, including the Metropolitan Church, Sharp Street Methodist Church and other locations.

* * *

THE COMBINED Concert Band of 70 members will be conducted by Harrison M. Dodd and Charles E. Gwynn.

Also included in the program will be the Baltimore City Chorus, and this famous group will be featured in a number of outstanding choral selections.

Community singing will be led by Weldon J. Irvine. This concert will be one of the finest free concerts ever given by the Bureau of Music, and the public is invited to attend.

DANIELS COMEGYS

Included in the program will be: William Tell Overture; Stars and Stripes Forever; Raymond Overture, and other fine musical selections.

Daniel Comegys will sing: Alone; The Desert Song; Always and Without A Song. The Baltimore City Chorus, conducted by Mr. Dodd, will include among its selections: Hallelujah Chorus; Dear Land of Home, and other fine numbers.

Street Scenes

By BOB PERRY

A POSTCARD in a Pennsylvania Ave., sandwich shop says the Uptown Boot Shop serves all types of drinks and sandwiches. The only thing wrong about the shop is that it is not located uptown.

The neat looking delicatessen in the 900 block E. Madison Ave., is Mary's lunch shop opened recently for business.

Speaking as if heavenly bound children are all angels is the Sinner's friend Baptist Church, a new one in Baltimore. Located in the 1200 block E. Madison Ave.

If you are looking for a cold drink, then you should stop on Caroline St., for special ice cold beer.

Even now you can leave an air-conditioned house into an air-conditioned car right into an air-conditioned barber shop located in the 2200 block N. Patterson Park Ave.

Stop guessing and stop in the 1000 block Eastern Ave., and have your brakes adjusted for the small price of only $5 cents.

TOLEDO COUNCILMAN ENDORSED FOR REELECTION

TOLEDO, Ohio (ANP) — The City Manager League has endorsed Councilman James B. Simmons Jr. for reelection.

Mr. Simmons, a Democrat, will be seeking his sixth term next fall. It is not yet certain whether he will receive the backing of his own party because of his stand favoring the city manager form of government.
