TESTIMONY

taken before the Court, Hon. Patrick M. Schnauffer, June 14, 1968.

Present: Charles U. Price, Esq.,
Solicitor for Petitioner.

MISS DELORES SHOOK, being first duly sworn, deposes
and says:

By Mr. Price:

Q Will you tell us your name, please?

A Delores Shook.

Q Where do you live?

A 128 West Church Street.

Q You are the granddaughter, I believe of Amy D. Shook?

A That is correct.

Q How old is Mrs. Shook?

A 86 Sunday - 85.

Q She is now a resident of Vindobona Convalescent Home?

A Yes.

Q Will you tell the Court just briefly about her condition - you have already filed documentary evidence - have you seen her recently?

A Yes, just last week. She doesn't know even all the family.
She knows my brother and I but she doesn't know my sister-in-law and my mother.

Q Miss Shook you are already, I believe, Committee to manage the affairs of Mrs. Shook's husband, Frank Shook?

A That is correct.
