East-West Classic slate nearly filled

CHICAGO — Thus far, only 5 players have been approved for competition in the 25th annual East vs. West Negro Baseball Classic at Comiskey Park on July 28.

The all-star roster will be filled by Saturday, however, deadline of club owners to file the names of their candidates for approval by Dr. J. B. Martin of Chicago, circuit president.

Only the Memphis Red Sox have submitted the nine names, all of which have been approved. (Half of their classic candidates. Some 15 players have been approved in all.

AT LEAST nine players from each team of the six-team American League are expected to fill the two squads. Club owners are sponsors of the classic in which the West leads the East 15 to 9.

Included in the accepted Memphis group are the league's top three hitters — James Banks, first sacker; outfielder Lonnie Harris and catcher Isaac Barnes.

"Banks, currently leading the league in homers with five, is also leader in doubles, banging out eight while hitting .434, good for 10th in that department. Harris and Barnes are hitting .358 and .367.

OTHER MEMPHIS performers include Albert Strozier, shortstop; Eugene Roberts, left field; Rufus Gibson, second baseman; Eugene Williams, and Frank McCullum, pitchers, and James Valentine, third base.

Three Kansas City Monarch players were chosen Tuesday night. They are catcher Ira McKnight, rightfielder Frank March, and William Jones, 20-year old righthander with an 8-0 record, best in the league.

Bill (Dizzy) Dismukes of the Monarchs will manage the West and Eddie Steele of Detroit will be in charge of the East. Rufus Lucas, Memphis outfielder, will serve the East in that capacity.

Althea Gibson may play in Massachusetts meet

BOSTON (ANP) — Althea Gibson, Wimbledon victor and first of her race to win a major tennis championship, may make her first appearance at Longwood Cricket Club in the National Doubles in August.

Mrs. Hazel H. Wightman said "Althea definitely promised me last fall that she would play here. I haven't been in touch with her since she arrived from England ... But I hope to talk to her soon."

She added "I sent her a cable of congratulations when she won the final at Wimbledon, but, of course, did not mention the tournament."

MISS GIBSON, the recipient of a tremendous welcome celebration from NYC officials and neighbors this past week, has never played in a New England tournament.

According to Mrs. Wightman, Miss Gibson indicated last fall that she not only would play in the doubles, starting Aug. 19, but might first play in the annual women's tournament at Essex Country Club, starting Aug. 12.

There is a strong possibility that Miss Gibson will take part in the Wightman Club matches scheduled to be played on clay courts for the first time on Aug. 10-11 at Pittsburgh.

MRS. WIGHTMAN is reported to have mentioned another reason why Miss Gibson may agree to play in the National Doubles for the first time.

"She has a regular partner now," commented Mrs. Wightman, "something she never had before. She and Darlene Hard have been training up and, of course, they won at Wimbledon."

TO THE VICTOR—Shirley Kyle (left), president of the Baltimore Racquet Club, presents the men's singles championship trophy to Harold Freeman of Washington, D.C. following his victory in the BTC tournament last weekend. Freeman vanquished Billy Davis of New York City, 6-1, 5-7, 7-5, to gain the honors.

Muny swim draws 400

Four hundred contestants—a record high for the affair—are entered in the Municipal swimming meet, slated for tomorrow (Saturday) at Clifton Park.

Among the stronger contenders are the teams entered from Chick Webb Center and the Druid Hill Park pool. But neither of these aggregations is expecting an easy path to the title.

The 400 competitors awaiting the opening gun are spread over nearly 800 competitions, getting under way at 2 p.m.

Tomorrow's meet is the third to be held under the integrated setup in Baltimore recreation.

MAJORS' TOP GUN—Here's Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves. Here's the young man who's wielding the biggest bat in major league baseball, leading the National League in hitting with a .348 average, and topping both leagues in homers (29), runs batted in (77), and hits (130).

Notes on sports

CHICAGO (ANP)— One of London's best known tennis writers has accused the Wimbledon gallery of unsporting treatment at Althea Gibson, recent winner of the Wimbledon women's single title.

"This cold shoulder act is shocking," wrote Laurie Pignon. "Anything is better than pseudopolite Wimbledonites who load the dice against players they don't want to win. Miss Gibson is the latest victim.

"They hide their favoritism behind the old guise of pulling for the underdog, an old British institution, which has been criticized before by Americans and Australians who have earlier felt its whip."

THE CLEVELAND Indians, who well could use a little outfield punch now, might look to one of their farm prospects for immediate help. At the Tuscan training camp last spring, Joe Caffie, who had done well in a September trial, wasn't considered ready.

Recently, his hitting surge sparked the Buffalo Bisons' drive to the top of the International League. His output at one point included 17 hits in 34 at-bats. The .500 clip raised his season's mark to .335.

A New York Yankee minor league prospect is heading for St. Petersburg in the Florida State League. Cleo Vaughn, an outfielder and catcher, had been resting at his home in Lima, Ohio.

Vaughn was hitting a lusty .348 at Modesto, Calif., when he aggravated a basketball injury. At St. Petersburg, he hopes to concentrate on catching.

Cleo won letters in basketball at Ohio State as a sophomore and junior before the Army beckoned him. He spent 18 months in Germany. He plans to return to OSU in the fall.

Avatus Stone, former Syracuse back who recently signed with the Chicago Cardinals in the National Football League may find himself in midst of a squabble over his services.

Stone played last season with the Ottawa Rough Riders in Canadian football. Ottawa's general manager, Jim McCaffrey, commenting on Stone's hopes to catch on with an NFL team, said:

"Stone accepted money on this year's contract three months ago and that, in any man's language, makes him our property."

Stone contends that he became a free agent when the Riders didn't renew his contract, which expired last May. Stone was drafted by the Cards in 1953. He is an outstanding punter and a talented offensive and defensive back and pass receiver.

JOHN NISBY, former College of Pacific star lineman who was recently named to the College All-Stars who meet the prof champion New York Giants here Aug. 9, is a judge expert. He is considered the best lineman ever developed at COP.

Juan Pizarro stylish Puerto Rican lefthander who was recently sent down to Wichita (Kan.) by the Milwaukee Braves, won his first start in American Association competition, but was routed his second time out.

Manager Fred Haney of the parent Braves believes Pizarro needs regular work in the minors and will be a better prospect next season.

"He needs more experience and regular work," said Haney who added, "I am confident that when he comes back to us next spring he'll be a winner.

Maryland youth cutting capers in PCL baseball

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—One of the delights of the season for manager Clyde King of the Hollywood Stars, has been the play of William (Bill) Causion, slugging outfielder from Towson, Md., on the outskirts of Baltimore.

Causion last week was nominated by King as a strong contender for "rookie of the year" honors in the Pacific Coast League. A former pitcher with the Brooklyn Dodgers, King is considered an authority on young ball players.

Bill and another tan prospect, Lennie Green, of Vancouver are rated among tops in centerfielders in open classification and Triple-A minor league baseball. Green is the property of the Baltimore Orioles of the American League.

Observers regard Green as player and his higher batting average gives him the call over Causion in this respect. But Causion admittedly boasts more power at the plate than his counterpart with the Mounties.

A FORMER high school star in Maryland, Bill is hitting at a .330 pace as this is written. He is credited with contributing largely to the Stars' climb to third place in the PCL standings.

The son of the late Wilbur A., and Sarah E. Causion, Bill has behind him much experience in the lowbr minors. He began in Class C in Wisconsin and gradually moved up to the just-below-major bracket.

Bill has two brothers, Wilbur A., and Robert R. Causion, and three sisters, Dorothy Dixon, Sarah Whye and Tracilea Hall.

Bears vs. Hawks feature Maryland grid calendar

Red letter day of the 1957 collegiate football season in Maryland, possibly in the East, comes on October 12.

That is the afternoon on which the Morgan State College Bears tangle with the Maryland State College Hawks in a game that has been long awaited by college gridiron fans.

This is an intra-state rivalry that has the potential for one of the hottest in Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association circles. And coach Vernon (Skip) McCain and his Princess Anne Hawks are already priming for it.

In her opening publicity, the Eastern Shore school laments the passing (via graduation) of William Jordan and Lanny Butler, two of the Hawks' top-flight performers of the past two years. It is pointed out, however, that the toughness of the Maryland State schedule could offset the loss of these reliables.

OPENING WITH the always respected Virginia State Trojans in the Dub bowl, Saturday, Sept. 28, McCain must get ready for consecutive meetings with Morgan, A. and T., North Carolina College and Delaware State.

These are the first five hurdles that await the perennial giant killers from the Eastern Shore.

The Shrine-sponsored fishbowl affair shapes up as a stellar offering at the William and Mary Stadium.

Maryland, undefeated in her appearances there, must move smartly to stop the Virginia entry, who, by the way, gave the Maemen the jitters last year when the Hawks eked out a 10-7 win.

NOBODY SHOULD write too soon, however, on Maryland State's bleak tomorrow.

The Hawks have three top-flight backs, including sharp-shooting quarterback Andy Demment and the galloping duo, John Sample and Stan Jones.

Vernon Vaughn, one of the East's finest ends, and Roosevelt Turner, a whale of a guard, do not spell good times for opponents.

If the Delmarva lads get three capable reserves up front, they could be the suprise package of 1957.

TV sole IBC interest in title fight

CHICAGO (NNPA)—Truman Gibson, secretary of the International Boxing Club, Friday, informed the California Athletic Commission by telephone that the IBC's participation in Archie Moore's defense of his light heavyweight title against Tony Anthony in Los Angeles' Gilmore Stadium Sept. 11 will be restricted to the national television presentation of the fight.

Co-promoters will be the Los Angeles Olympic Auditorium and Hollywood American Legion Stadium.

GIBSON SAID TV rights to the fight have been sold for $75,000 to the sponsor which usually sponsors the IBC's Friday night TV bouts.

The fight will be shown over the network of the National Broadcasting Company.

The money, $75,000 will go to Moore, $4,000 to Anthony, and $1,000 to the IBC.

MOORE has been guaranteed $85,000 by the Union of the Olympic and Jackie Leonard of the Hollywood Legion. He also gets $5,000 for training expenses.

Anthony, former New York Golden Gloves champion, is to receive 20 per cent of the net gate receipts, in addition to the $4,000 from TV, which Gibson said will be paid by IBC for training expenses.

'Foreigners' Threaten In Eastern Track Meet

A host of "invaders" will bear watching here Saturday afternoon as the 8th annual Eastern track and field championships are run off at Morgan State College's Hughes Stadium.

Approximately 200 athletes have been entered in the 21-event program and a highly successful day is in prospect, despite the absence of several "old reliables" on overseas junkets.

SLATED to come in from New York are the crack Pioneer and New York A. C. contingents, the latter bringing a high of 35 for the affair.

Also down for participation are the talent - laden Philadelphia aggregations, the Shanahans and Philly Pioneers.

Included among the "foreigners," too are the clever and always - formidable Falcons of Washington, D.C. The Falcons made one of their infrequent visits to Baltimore a winning one last weekend when they captured the Greater Baltimore Track Association meet with room to spare.

OF COURSE, the usual old guard will be on hand to defend the local cause. Baltimore's strong Olympic Club will share this responsibility along with the Cross City, Prince George County aggregations as well as the Oriole Track and Field Club.

Morgan State College's National Collegiate AA champion Bob McMurray will run in the 440-yard dash. McMurray is also entered in the 220-yard dash, where he'll meet the speed of Ed Waters, a former captain of the Golden Bears, and the crack Falcon duo of El Miles and Jim Hammond.

SPECTATORS will get another view of Francis Washington, of Winston - Salem Teachers College, too. Washington was a top performer in the CIAA championships at Hughes last May. He's entered in the hurdles and favored to win.

Action gets under way at 2 p.m., with trials in the timber and dash events.

Speaking before a $25-a-plate Freedom Fund Dinner in the Terrace Casino, the former Brooklyn Dodger star assured his audience that now is the time for every American to speak for our civil rights.

Among other speakers included Dr. T. R. M. Howard, refugee from Mississippi, now of Chicago; Willoughby Abner, Chicago NAACP president; the Rev. Morris Tynes, local pastor, and Franklin Williams, West Coast attorney.

Richmond youth steals net show

A talented young racquet wielder from Richmond, Va., stole the show from older and more publicized heads in the annual tournament sponsored by the Baltimore Tennis Club here last weekend.

schoolboy from the Old Dominion capital city, took down top honors in two classifications, the junior singles and boy singles.

Young Ashe won from William Neilson, clever young stroker from Hampton and maintay on the strong Piedmont net squad, in the junior event. The score was 6-4, 0-6, 6-3.

In the boys bracket, Ashe vanquished Thomas Hawes of Wilmington, N.C., 6-3, 6-2.

THE MEN'S singles, usually the big event of tournament play but overshadowed this time by the brilliance of young Ashe, went to Harold Freeman of Washington, D.C.

The younger member of the veteran Freeman brothers combination whipped Billy Davis, of New York City, 6-1, 5-7, 7-5.

Later Harold teamed with his brother Clyde to gain the men's doubles crown, defeating Ernest Ingram nd Edgar Lee, also of Washington, 6-4, 6-4.

GWEN McEVANS, a fast-rising newcomer from Detroit, captured the women's singles after a marathon battle with Arvella Mitchell of New York. Mrs. Mitchell fought doggedly, but finally succumbed, 14-12, 6-4.

The senior siggles crown went to Edgar Lee of washington. Lee thowned Reggie Watts of the host club, 6-1, 6-0.

BALTIMORE did not wage a completely lost cause, however. Some balm was found in the results of the girls' singles and in the mixed doubles competition.

Beverly Jackson, of this city, needed two deuce sets to achieve her title but succeeded in outlasting Ethel Reid of Lynchburg, Va., 9-6, 5-7, 6-4, to take the girls' crown.

In the mixed doubles, the veteran William (Babe) Jone, paired with Miss McEvans to conquer Ernestine Jones, a husband and wife team from New York City, 6-3, 6-2.

L.A. Rams lose injunction case

CALGARY — The Alberta Supreme Court discarded a request Monday night that the Rams recently for a temporary injunction to forestall a gridiron star from playing with the Calgary Stampeders.

The Rams of the National Football League contend they have rights to Ernie Warlick, ex-North Carolina College and Bolling AFB end.

Basis for their assertion is a contract for the 1956-57 season which included an option on Warlick's services for 1957-58.

JUSTICE NEIL PRIMROSE threw out the Rams' plea because Warlick was in the Air Force during the 1956-57 season when the contract ordinarily would have been honored.

No wages were received, the Judge said, therefore the agreement couldn't be upheld.

An outstanding performer in both football and basketball while at NCC, Warlick was known as "Hands" throughout the CIAA because of the devastating use to which he put his hands.

The 6-5, 230 pound North Carolina native continued his illustrious career while stationed at Bolling in Washington, D.C.

IBC files for another trial

NEW YORK (ANP) — The International Boxing Club of New York last week filed a motion for a new trial in the latest development in the government anti - trust action against the powerful boxing combine.

Filed in the Federal District Court of Judge Sylvester Ryan, the motion alleges errors in previous court proceedings and in interpretations of points of law by Judge Ryan.

It was Judge Ryan who issued the original decree that the IBC is guilty of attempts to monopolize boxing and thus is in violation of the Sherman Anti-trust law.

More recently he has ordered Jim Norris, IBC president, and his partner, Arthur Wirtz, to dispose of their controlling interest in the Madison Square Garden and Illinois clubs. He granted the IBC a stay until November.
