WATTLING FOR the Wimbledon tennis championships in England, Althea Gibson, high ranking U.S. player reached the quarter-finals early this week, and had advanced to the women's doubles semi-final with Darlene Hard. The Gibson-Hard team defeated Angela Mortimer and Pat Hird of Britain to reach the semi-finals in doubles.

Robinson tops in All Star ballots

NEW YORK (ANP)—Frank Robinson, Cincinnati Redsolar outfielder last week joined his fellow teammates in winning a virtual sweep of the Listing for the National League 1957 All-Star baseball game to be held at St. Louis July 9.

The hard-hitting leftfielder, who is just completing his second year in the major league, compiled the largest number of votes in the final tabulation reported by the baseball commissioner's office.

His total — 745,894 — topped that of Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox leftfielder, and Mickey Mantle, New York Yankee centerfielder. The latter two tallied 255,969 and 253,019, respectively.

Cincinnati almost made a clean sweep of the balloting. And a last minute surge of homework votes indicating an all-Cincinnati team might have selected caused Commissioner Ford Frick to reopen the ballots of Cincinnati's probable starters.

He selected Stan Musial for centerfield, and Hank Aaron for rightfield. However, the final tabulation showed Musial winning in his own right, 362,782 to 272,653 for George Crowe of the Redlegs.

RESULTS OF the final poll follow

NATIONAL LEAGUE: First base: Stan Musial, St. Louis, 383,782; George Crowe, Cincinnati, 272,653.

Second base: Don Hoak, Cincinnati, 678,200; Ed Matthews, Milwaukee, 156,723.

Third base not given.

Shortstop: Roy McMillan, Cincinnati, 651,246; Al Dark, St. Louis, 165,417.

Left field: Frank Robinson, Cincinnati, 745,689; Wally Moon, St. Louis, 75,849.

Catcher: Ed Bailey, Cincinnati, 737,851; Hal Smith, St. Louis, 53,072.

AMERICAN LEAGUE: First base: Vic Wertz, Cleveland, 124,265; Bill Skowron, New York, 89,428.

Second base: Nelson Fox, Chicago, 247,330; Billy Martin, Kansas City, 17,316.

Third base: George Kell, Baltimore, 93,503; Gil McDougald, New York, 77,488.

Shortstop: Harvey Kuenn, Detroit, 176,086; Joe DiMaggio, Kansas City, 31,109.

Left field: Ted Williams, Boston, 255,969; Roy Sievers, Washington, 33,296.

Center field: Mickey Mantle, New York, 253,019; Jim Piersall, Boston, 42,243.

The managers for the classic are Walt Alston of the Brooklyn Dodgers and Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees, pilots of last year's championship teams. They will select the starting pitchers.

All-Tan garden for NL lineup

ST. LOUIS — An all-colored outfield will open for the National League team when the annual Major League All-Star game is played here next Tuesday afternoon.

Commissioner Ford Frick protected this situation late last week when he ruled out an avalanche of votes which would have eliminated two of the three tan aces.

As final plans are being laid, Willie Mays of the New York Giants, Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves, and Frank Robinson of the Cincinnati Redlegs, will patrol the garden for the senior loop.

The surge of votes from Cincinnati would have swept seven Redleg players into the starting lineup, thus leaving only one position open for the rest of the league to fill. That would have been first base where Cincinnati ballots were not quite sufficient to displace Stan Musial with Redleg first sacker George Crowe.

HAD FRICK let the overload stance stand, Mays and Aaron would have been forced out of the lineup in favor of Gus Bell and Wally Post, Cincy outfielders.

Although the action of the Cincinnati fans was regarded as unsportamanly in many quarters, it was looked upon as quite an accomplishment for Crowe, George has been filling in most satisfactorily for the ailing Ted Kluszewski, and apparently has won the favor of Redleg fans.

THE PITCHERS and the remainder of the two league squads will be chosen by the managers later this week. The starting lineups follow:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

1B—Stan Musial, St. Louis
2B—Johnny Temple, Cincy
3B—Don Hoak, Cincinnati
SS—Roy McMillan, Cincy
LF—Frank Robinson, Cincy
CF—Willie Mays, N. Y.
RF—Hank Aaron, Braves
C—Ed Bailey, Cincinnati

AMERICAN LEAGUE

1B—Vic Wertz, Cleveland
2B—Nelson Fox, Chicago
3B—George Kell, Orioles
SS—Harvey Kuenn, Detroit
LF—Ted Williams, Boston
CF—Mickey Mantle, N. Y.
RF—Al Kaline, Detroit

Steele and Curry to repeat as East-West game pilots

CHICAGO—A couple of old hands at piloting East vs. West Classic teams, Ed Steele and Homer (Goose) Curry, have been named to manage the squads in the Silver Anniversary game on Sunday afternoon, July 28, at Comiskey Park.

Dr. J. B. Martin, of Chicago, president of the sponsoring six team Negro American League, announced that Steele, of the Detroit Stars, will head the East squad and Curry, of the Memphis Red Sox, the East.

Curry, a long-time figure in colored baseball, will be making his second straight appearance as pilot of the West, which lost last year, 11-5.

Steele, on the other hand, will be showing up as All-Star head for the third straight season. The Detroiter broke into the win column last year after losing in his freshman start in 1955, by a 2-0 score.

CURRY, with players from his own club as well as the Kansas City Monarchs and the New Orleans Bears, one of the two new teams in the circuit this season, was delighted when informed that he was getting another shot at manager in the big game. He said:

"Naturally, I'm happy on being chosen the second straight year. It indeed is an honor. It's these little surprise that makes the game what it is, believe me.

"I've seen enough good talent thus far on the three teams that we'll draw our players from, to give the East a good game, if not a beating."

STEELE WILL draw his stars from his own Detroit club: the Birmingham Black Barons and the other new entry, the Mobile Havana Cuban Giants. When notified he was to lead the East for the third time, Eddie responded with:

"Well, they're giving me a chance to move above the .500 class. Of course, it could work the other way, too, but I believe I can come up with a winning combination."

Giants split even on trip to N.C.

The Baltimore Giants returned to the city after a three-day trip to North Carolina with an even record.

At Maden, N.C., Friday, the game ended 4-4 after rain halted play in the fourth inning. In Statesville, N.C., Sunday, the Giants split, winning the first game, 15-8 and losing the nightcap, 7-4. Lewis Weldon hit a homer in the opener.

The Giants return to Westport Park Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Major league baseball roundup

CHICAGO (ANP)—Some people in baseball regarded Brooks Lawrence's pitching performance last season as something of a fluke. The Cincinnati righthander won 13 straight during the first half of the season, then won only 6 the rest of the year while losing 10.

This season has been different. During the early portion he pitched in-and-out ball, but more recently he has hit his stride, bagging three wins in a week. Now Lawrence has 8 victories and four losses and could be on his way to his first 20-game victory year in the majors.

His latest victory came over the New York Giants 3 to 2, a 4-hitter.

The Giants on the following evening exploded for one of their most productive games of the season, winning 17 to 7. Willie Mays had one of his exceptional days. He got four hits drove in four runs and stole two bases, running his base theft total to 23 for the season.

CONNIE JOHNSON, righthander for the Baltimore Orioles, twirled a 3-hit shutout against Kansas City Athletics for his sixth victory of the season, evening up his won-and-lost ledger.

Hank Aaron is always regarded as a pestiferous individual insofar as the National League champion Dodgers are concerned. He proved it again last week, delivering a 2-run triple to give the Milwaukee Braves a 2-to-1 triumph.

In another game, Aaron, Wes Covington and another Brave hit consecutive home runs off Don Newcombe, with Milwaukee winning eventually, 13 to 9.

Aaron, by the way, continues to lead National League home-run hitters with 20. He was batting .296 as of last Thursday morning, and tied for fourth place among the hitters with Frank Robinson, Cincinnati outfielder.

After being used mainly as a pinchhitter this season, Julio Racquer, the Cuban, was given the first base assignment by Manager Cookie Lavegetta of the Washington Senators. He responded with a long triple that produced the only run in a 4-to-1 defeat at the hands of the Detroit Tigers.

Larry Doby's hitting figured in two Chicago White Sox victories over the Boston Red Sox, which helped them regain the American League lead. His infield hit paved the way for a 2-run homer by Walt Dropo in a 3-to-1 win, and his three hits, including a pair of doubles, were a factor in a 7-to-5 decision.

THE CHICAGO Cubs last Sunday chased "Big" Don Newcombe, with a ninth-inning blast, and went on to nose out the champion Brooklyn Dodgers, 3-2 in the opener of a doubleheader in Wrigley Field. The Dodgers won the nightcap, 5-1.

A short-sleeve crowd of 39,208 saw Newcombe, a 25-game winner last year, mow down the Cubs for eight innings but wilted in the ninth as the Wrigleys put together three hits—two singles and a double—to knock him out of the box.

Ernie Banks, the Cubs star shortstop last season but now playing third base for the Cubs, blasted a double in the final frame to give the Cubs the victory.

Newcombe, making a slow start this season, lost his seventh game to even his won-lost record.

HARD HITTING George Wanamaker, infielder of the Indianapolis Clowns, will be one of the mainstays as the Funmakers play the New York Black Yankees in Baltimore's Westport Stadium, Friday night, July 13, then swing into Virginia for games at Portsmouth and Newport News Saturday and Sunday.
