BIGGEST BECAUSE IT'S THE BEST!

STROLLING THE AVE.

Meandering a colossal 4th of July weekend at Carr's Beach in Annapolis is Illinois (Flying Home) Jacquet.

Avenuers will recall that it was tenor sax man, Illinois Jacquet's recording of "Flying Home," with Lionel Hampton on vibes that was a real groovy hit a few years back.

That same sax man is "flying home" at Carr's beautiful beach this holiday weekend.

When the great Chu Berry mug with his fatal accident, Illinois Jacquet filled the spot in Cab Calloway's band.

The Jacquet is leaving the big band of Count Basie 'specifically for this tour.'

Also at Carr's Beach for the weekend are Huey Smith and his orchestra, Ann Cole and Bobby Marcran, popular blues singers.

THE WHOLE town is heading out to Sparrow's Beach Sunday. "There is no better place to beat the heat. Chuck Willis, recording artist, whose 'C. C. Rider'" is now a disc hit, will get off the "C. C. Rider" train for an unforgetable evening of entertainment.

Stopping off with him will be the great orchestra of up and going Rory Gaines.

WANT TO divorce yourself from the hard reality of life? Well, it isn't necessary to go to Nevada to go to Las Vegas.

The Las Vegas Club at Lexington and Warwick Ave., featuring the Rocker and the Rhythm Rockers is an entertainment oasis during these hot shifting sandy days.

Meet the celebrities each and every Wednesday night at the Las Vegas Club, and incidentally, there is a membership dance there every Tuesday.

The Las Vegas is also available for reservations, cocktail parties and banquets.

Speaking of parties —if you want to have a real party, grab your friends and come on out to Chick's air-conditioned Bar and Lounge, Baltimore and Greene. There, organ man, Flink Johnson is leading his all-star combo, singing, and, shill we say, entertaining.

Chuck Willis will get off the 'C. C. Rider' train Sunday at Sparrow's Beach. Stopping off with him will be Rory Gaines and his rhythmic orchestra.

IF YOU ARE out Randallstown way, and even if you are not it's worth a special trip out, stop by the Oakland Park Tavern on Oakland Park Rd.

The proprietor and manager, Alice and Louis Tucker are sparing no pains to make the Oakland Park Tavern, one of the finest around.

If you like class with your fried chicken, you will like the Oakland Park Tavern.

There is plenty of room at the Oakland Park Tavern. Not only a glimmering new horseshoe bar at which 30 people can be seated, but also a spacious patio where feasts and cocktail parties have guaranteed elbow room.

A rare treat may be in store for visitors to the Casino Club, 1500 block along The Avenue, accustomed to hearing the Bembamboo trio featuring Cornell Drew, row, manager Allen Quille is lending a hand, or rather a voice on the vocal side.

Coolest news of the week is that Chico Hamilton, modern jazz drummer, of the West Coast School of Modern Sound, opened Tuesday with his quintet at the Club Tijuana, 2674 Pennsylvania Ave.

THE JOLLY JOLLY JAX (recording artists of "Walk On," and "Mickey Mouse Rock") are appearing at Jerson at the cool Comedy Club.

Tre three Jax, brothers all, are among the most versatile performers around town. Given a piano, organ and drums, wow! the results are not only jolly, but terrific.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

You who are observing birthdays between July 3-9 are asked to be extra special careful while celebrating this week. The death toll during holidays is great enough without foolishly flirting with death.

And in all sincerity, the AFRO and its readers take this opportunity to say HAPPY BIRTHDAY to all of you.

If a friend, relative or loved one is having a birthday in the near future, write the AFRO at 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore 1, Md., listing the correct names, dates and cities.

This service is free of charge. All correspondence, however, must be in the office two weeks in advance of publication date.

Queen names Gov. general for Ghana

LONDON (NNPA) — Queen Elizabeth has appointed the Earl of Listowel as governor-general of Ghana to succeed Sir Charles Arden - Clarke, Buckingham Palace announced Sunday night.

Lord Listowel, a Socialist peer, was the last secretary of state for India and Burma. He relinquished these posts when India and Pakistan became Dominions in 1947 and when Burma became a separate independent state in 1948. He was secretary of state for colonial affairs from 1948 to 1950.

His appointment seems to be the first result of the visit to London of Dr. Kwame Nkrumah, the Prime Minister of Ghana, who was here to attend the conference of British Commonwealth Prime Ministers.

Tenn. State adds 5 professors to staff

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Five professors have been added to the summer school faculty of Tennessee State University, Dr. A. V. Boswell, vice president, said last week as he announced an increased summer enrollment.

Coming to the school of education faculty are Dr. Charles U. DeBerry of Elizabethtown, N.C., education administration; Dr. A. Anderson Dumas, Washington, education;

Dr. Frank A. Tolliver, Asheville, N.C., education administration; Dr. Charles Rochelle, Dr. S. O. Roberts, Nashville, Evansville, Ind., education; psychology.

CHICAGO U. SCHOLARSHIP

BLUEFIELD, W. Va.—Cleveland A. Chandler, instructor of economics and accounting at Bluefield State College, has been awarded a tuition scholarship for the summer quarter to study newer trends in the teaching of economics at the University of Chicago.

Adah K. Jenkins' MOMENTS MUSICAL

The measure of success in musical accomplishments, as well as in other fields of endeavor, may well be marked by the contribution to the general welfare of the community.

Musicians, by and large, are noted for their generosity along these lines. Stars of international fame and many lesser lights devote hours to charitable and civic programs.

Last Friday morning the opening of the AFRO-AMERICAN Clean Block Campaign gave opportunity for a number of younger musicians to display their talents for a worthwhile effort.

Performing were Michael Spruill and Mathilda Sheppard, pianists and Patricia Johnson, soprano. The young people gave a good account of themselves and were personally complimented by Governor Theodore McKeldin, who was one of the speakers.

* * *

EDITOR CLIFF W. MACKAY presided in his usual genial manner and Mrs. M. Francis Mackay, director of the Clean Block, greeted her forces of young people from all sections of the city.

As usual the program included the Clean Block songs, with four new ones from Classes 32, 42 and I. O. Group of School 113.

* * *

AMONG THE 50 students receiving awards and scholarships at the Dunbar Senior High School graduation were several outstanding music pupils.

The John Denues Scholarship was won by Joan Marie Dorlance, who also was the recipient of the Dunbar Music Department Award in voice and the Lovey Hunketh Music Guild scholarship (presented for the first time this year).

Queen Esther Reynolds also received a Music Department award for excellence in voice and Milton A. Hawkins for outstanding work in instrumental music.

The music for the graduation exercises was conducted by Mildred M. Williams, with Jamesetta Holliman, of the June Class, 1954, as accompanist.

* * *

ON FRIDAY July 5 the No. 2 Municipal Concert Band, conducted by Harrison M. Dodd, will give a concert from 8 to 10 p.m. at School 74, 22nd Street and Homewood Avenue.

To be presented will be "Princess of India Overture," "Atlantic" "Invercargill March" and Gershwin's "Strike Up the Band" and a number of late popular airs.

Two more enjoyable student recitals added to the list of June musical activities this season. They were by students of Katrine N. White, held in the auditorium of Carver Vocational School and by pupils of Alma J. Thomas Caswell, given at Payne Mem. AME Church.

Mrs. White's pupils proceeded their program with an entrance march to their places, to the played by Michael Spruill. Varied talents of elementary, intermediate and advanced pupils were displayed during the evening.

The program was interestingly planned, with such engaging numbers as "The Sly Fisher," "The Frolicky, Rollicky Wind" and "Brazilana." In addition to standard teaching pieces there were numbers by Bach, Mozart, Hadyn, Beethoven, Grieg, Nevin, List and Massanet.

* * *

A DELIGHTFUL interlude, that combined the arts of music and dancing, was afforded by students from the studio of Gwendolyn Biddle, who appeared in a Japanese offering and a ballet.

The recital concluded a highly artistic performance of Rachmaninoff's "Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini" for two pianos played by Mrs. White and Louis Shub, guest artist.

Patricipating in the student recital were Maxine Slaughter, Sheila and Paula Brooks, Read Thompson and Clarence Sims, Paulette Anderson, Cassandra and Michael Spruill, Denard Hones and Jo Ann Davis.

Also, Eugenie Anderson, Charlotte Baskerville, Carolyn Fitbugh, Jean Spender, Rosemary Backus, Mildred Harlee, Betty Bwyn, Beverly Turner, Catherine Spender, Veronica Brown, Rod. Chambliss Jr., and Patricia Scott.

Also Jeannette Mebane, Bernardine Evans, Irene Simms, Madeline Dammond, Zenobia Cornish, Lonnie Spruill, Janice Chase, Beatrice DeShong, Francine Lewis, James Alston, Carveretta Robinson, Barbara Chase and Wilma Boyd.

The dancers are JoAnn Williams, Karen Griner, Celeste Barnes, Bernadette Daniels, Norsen Johnson, Tamathea Chandler, Catherine Davenport, Carlotta Brewer and Janice Bradley.

* * *

A STUDIO setting of palms and soft lighting added much to the pleasant atmosphere of Mrs. Thomas' recital, which opened with an entrance march of the students, followed by the Crusader's Hymn sung by the entire group.

A number of the young musicians displayed their varied talents by playing several numbers and three were seen in ensemble offerings at the concluding section of the program.

There was considerable interest in the performances of the adult students, who played numbers by Beethoven, Kubisa and Mozart. Mrs. Thomas also presented the annual awards for punctuality, effort and cooperation, with the assistaance of Mrs. Louise Person.

Participating were: Celestine Cole, Shirley Banks, William Lee, Carlet Matthews, Joyce Ann Cregiler, William Mobley Jr., Emmie Black, Joseph Gresham, Evelyn Grisson, Keith Winslow, Marlyn Ross, Jo Ann Blake, Kenna, Rita and Jacqueline Bass, Everline Hawkins, Carolyn Billups, Sylvia Savoy, Carolyn Kane, Nadine Epps, Vanessa Westcott, Arlethia Davis, Rosalie Purnell, Ethel B. Boone, Louise Person and Vincent Conner.

White youth wins Kentucky Elks oratorical contest

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (ANP) — A 15-year-old white high school student here was the winner of an oratorical contest held under the auspices of the Elks.

Having previously won the Louisville competition here and receiving $75, young Jimmy Wiseman, a student at St. Xavier High School, became the first white student to ever win the speaking contest sponsored by the Kentucky State Association of the Elks.

Wiseman received a $100 savings bond for his victory. He will compete in the regional contest in Chicago next month where top prize is a $1,000 scholarship.

White cleric heads Miss. jr. college

WEST POINT, Miss. (ANP) — During the interim of the vacation of the president of Mary Holmes Junior College here, a white minister has been named as acting president of the school.

He is the Rev. Reese Henderson, of Louisville, Miss. the Rev. Mr. Henderson will assume the duties as acting president of the institution until President Harry J. Brandt returns from vacation.

* * *

THE MINISTER was named temporary head of the college at a meeting of the school's advisory committee.

A group of white students from Kansas University recently defied traditions in this state and enrolled for two weeks in the colored college, where they mixed freely while studying race relations.

'Campus Rover' picks up 65 pounds in 5 years as 'hitchhiking' ends

SAMUEL LOGAN
Hitchhiker of 1941

SAMUEL LOGAN
Social worker of 1957

By ART CARTER

Fifteen years make a lot of difference in a man's life.

Sometimes the difference is for good; sometimes for bad. It a'l depends on which way the ball bounces, as the teenagers say.

Take Samuel Logan. The first time Logan was in Baltimore was April, 1941.

Sam, then 17, was known as the "Campus Rover" and "The Champion hitchhiker." The latter tag was given him by the AFRO; the former by his classmates at Booker T. Washington High School in Rocky Mount, N.C.

* * *

LOGAN earned the "champion hitchhiker" title after he "thumbed" his way 400 miles from Rocky Mount to Baltimore with only 12 cents in his pocket.

He made the trip just to see his friend, Holman Williams, defeat Gene Buffalo in a boxing match in Baltimore.

Sam not only saw the fight; but he did so from a ringside seat. After the long trek, he said, "My dogs don't hurt because my thumb did all the work."

At the time, Logan was a stringbean of a lad, standing 6 feet, 160 pounds with gangling arms, bright eyes and enthusiasm to match. He hitchhiked everywhere he could.

LAST WEEK Logan again visited Baltimore and made the AFRO office one of his stops. He is now 225 pounds, 6 feet, 2 inches and beginning to show a little middle age girth.

In fifteen years, Sam has earned two college degrees, done some work on his doctorate, married and is holding down steady employment with the Urban League.

But he still has that wanderlust spirit in his heart, though now he prefers to go by plane, train or auto.

THIS WEEK, Logan took over as director of neighborhood services for the Urban League in South Bend, Indiana. He moved up to this post after serving nearly five years as community organization director for the Urban League in Pontiac, Michigan. Sam still gets around.

After leaving Rocky Mount, Logan graduated from St. Augustine College in 1949, then earned his master's degree at North Carolina College in 1952.

In Michigan, he has done some work on his doctorate at Wayne University.

* * *

HE IS married to the former Jane Harris of Cleveland, Ohio, where he did social work for nearly a year prior to his assignment in Pontiac.

During his "travelling days," Logan estimates he hitchhiked an average of 3,500 miles per year, or approximately 35,000 miles.

"I loved it," he recalls "and I'll tell you this . . . it was educationally stimulating as well as entertaining."

What about now? "Well, I don't exactly miss it because I have many other things to keep me busy, but I have a lot of fond memories of fine friends I met and big events I saw."

In Baltimore this time, Logan was guest of Mrs. Bertha James and family, 1022 N. Stricker St.

BOBBY MARCHAN—One of artist. Other show stoppers day at Carr's Beach is Bobby Marchan, outstanding blues artist. Other show stoppers are Ann Cole, Huey Smith and his orchestra and the inimitable Illinois "Flying Home" Jacquet.

'I'll go to jail,' Alan Paton says

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (ANP) — Alan Paton, author of "Cry The Beloved Country," writing in the South Africa Quarterly "Africa South," predicts that there may be civil disobedience amongst South African whites as a result of the government's latest apartheid laws.

He says that if the government uses their "Native Laws Amendment Bill" to interfere with freedom of association, he for one will disobey the law. "Even with the drastic penalties in mind," he says, "the idea of civil disobedience has been alive, in the minds of many opponents of the Government.

'You've got to behave yourself,' dad is told

"You've got to work, behave yourself and support your family. If you don't you are going to go down to the House of Correction."

Judge E. Paul Mason speaking Tuesday in Criminal Court, suspended a two years sentence in the House of Correction on condition of good behavior, for Richard F. Shedrick, 36, 1300 Sack Argyle Ave.

The defendant was charged with carnal knowledge of his 15-year-old deaf-mute step - daughter.

Assistant state's attorney, John Weiss said that the incestuous act occurred on May 9 and that the child, who can neither speak nor hear, somehow communicated to a younger brother that her stepfather had been intimate with her.

When the child's mother learned of this, she immediately contacted Sgt. Violet Hill Whyte of Northwestern Police Station, Mr. Weiss declared.

Mr. Weiss said also that arrangements have been made to place the child in a school for the handicapped.

Liberty hotel crowded with guests for holiday

ATLANTIC CITY — The last weekend in June was one of the busiest ever experienced by the Liberty Hotel management prior to the annual July 4 holiday.

The damands for accomodations followed on the heels of the June 20-22 weekend when many guests had to be turned away because of the reservations made by delegates to the regional conference of Jack and Jill, Inc.

June has also been a busy one for the Liberty management in entertaining guests who registered under the Special Honeymoon Plan.

ADVANCED reservations for July and August the seasonal convention months, indicate a profitable summer and early fall season for both the Liberty Hotel and this famous resort as a whole.

Nkrumah pressing for Volta project

LONDON (NNPA) — Dr. Kwame Nkrumah, Prime Minister of Ghana who attended the Prime Ministers' Conference here, addressed the Commonwealth Correspondents' Association Monday.

He said he is determined to press to the utmost his claim for the realization of the $640 million Volta River project.

Queen Elizabeth II granted an audience to Dr. Nkrumah at Buckingham Palace. The Ghana Prime Minister also called upon Prime Minister Harold Macmillan at No. 10 Downing St. for one of a series of talks Mr. Macmillan is having with delegation leaders.

Union obeys Meany's order to end racism

CLEVELAND — Threatened loss of its charter moved lily-white Local 38, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, to begin processing the application of Theodore Pinkston, to be its first colored member.

AFL-CIO President George Meany and IBEW President Gordon Freeman ordered Local 38 to end racial discrimination by next Monday (July 1) or have its charter lifted.

Mr. Pinkston, who reported he was given an examination Wednesday night by Local 38 officials to test his skills as a craftsman and his qualification for membership, said he was "optimistic" that he had passed.

* * *

"I DON'T KNOW anything definite until they let me know," Mr. Pinkston declared and added that "It was a good, fair test."

A veteran of the Korean War who learned his trade in the service, Mr. Pinkston learned on returning here that he could get jobs only with colored contractors.

When a foreman at a city light plant refused to give him employment unless he had a union card, the war veteran began his battle to get into Local 38.
