Canada inks S.C. grid ace

ORANGEBURG, S.C. — McClinton Jackson, 240 pound lineman and captain of S.C. State College "Bulldogs," has signed a contract to play professional football with the London Lords of London, Ontario. He will play guard while in the play-foreply ranks.

The 23-year-old Industrial Education major also has been offered a lucrative job during the off season.

He will report on July 1 for pre-season practice. He was graduated from S.C. State College in May.

While at South Carolina State College, Jackson played center, guard, and tackle. As a linebacker, he was good diagnosing plays. He intercepted four passes last year, one of which was a stray North Carolina College pass with which he ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

TRACK CHAMPS — On their marks from left to right are: Howard Winston, J. V. 440 yard dash champion; Glen McGuire, varsity 880 yard dash champion who will represent St. Matthew and George Lyons, J. V. 880 yard champion who will represent New Shiloh Baptist Church. The meet will be held on Saturday, June 29, 1 p.m. at Soldiers Point High School Field. Entries close at YMCA office on June 27 at 4 p.m. experience, neither seemed willing to admit that their race had anything to do with it.

Emmett Gary, however, secretary of the MSGA, gave the AFRO what was tantamount to an admission that the rejection of Mayfield and Savage was due to a discriminatory policy.

Gary, whose signature was attached to the letters to the two boys, replied that the Baltimore Country Club was responsible for the ban.

"The association had no objection to the boys' playing, but it has to abide by the rules of the club where the tournament is held."

Did the secretary mean that the BCC was responsible?

"I want to be truthful," he replied, "that's the way it looks to me. However, I'd rather that you got your information from the vice president of the association, Mr. Emich.

JOHN A. EMICH, vice president of the Maryland State Golf Association, could not be reached for the two days leading up to the tournament. Efforts to contact him Wednesday and Thursday, were unavailing.

Gary declared that Mayfield and Savage met the age requirements and were on time with their entry blanks and fees.

"But one of the stipulations on the application forms," he asserted, "is that they are 'subject to approval or rejection by the association or by the club entertaining the tournament.'

"The Baltimore Country Club is entertaining this year's tournament."

He explained that the BCC has been host to the tourney for the past three years "because it is easy to get to."

At the club, it was pretty much the same story in reverse.

"I don't know anything about it," declared Kenneth C. Albaugh, manager of BCC. "The Maryland State Golf Association handles the entries. We just provide the facilities."

As far as Albaugh is concerned, could he say whether or not BCC maintains a policy that is opposed to colored use of the course?

"There is nothing further I can say about the matter. You will have to talk to the golf association.

Morgan athletes in AAU track meet

DAYTON, Ohio — Three Morgan State College athletes and one-ex-Morgantie are here this weekend awaiting the start of the National AAU track and field championships (June 21-22 and 23 days).

They are high jumpers Robert Barksdale and George Dennis, quarter-miler Robert McMurray and sprinter Ed Waters.

The National AAU games are held annually to determine the the amateurs in track. They are to the United States what the Olympic Games are to the world.

Barksdale, Dennis and McMurray are non-Baltimoreans. Waters, who was graduated from Morgan in June, is a native of that city.

ED IS 22-years-old, the son of Mrs. Elnora Williams, of 1841 West North Ave. He is an only child. He attends Gilis Memorial Church and expects to begin work with the Bureau of Recreation next week.

Waters is running in the colors of the Cross City Club of Baltimore.

Barksdale enters his senior year at Morgan in September. A Baptist, he is the son of Mrs. Eddie K. Barksdale, of Norristown, Pa. He aims to coach athletics on completion of his work at Morgan.

Dennis, like Barksdale entering his senior year in the fall, hails from Allentown, N.J. He is a Catholic and the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Dennis. He too wants to become a coach.

Winner of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) 440 - yard titles the previous two weeks, McMurray was confident he could repeat in the nationals here — SAM LACY.

Brown tops Zulueta to keep title
DENVER, Colo. — A 15th round technical knockout victory enabled Joey Brown, of Baton Rouge, La., to retain his world lightweight title here in Wednesday's televised bout.
Victim of the TKO was Orlando Zulueta, workmanlike 135-pounder from Havana, Cuba.
Referee Ray Keech stepped in to interrupt the proceedings at 2:29 of the final round. A crowd estimated at close to 3,000 booed the action, but ringsiders and many televiewers were convinced it was the humane thing to do.
Zulueta had taken a brutal going over in the last three heats and twice had been floored by the champion. The Cuban was down for a nine count in the 13th and again in the 15th just prior to the finish.
A LEFT HOOK floored Zulueta in the 13th and he never seemed to regain the poise that had carried him through the first 12 stanzas. Much of his aggressiveness was lacking thereafter.
A combination of rights to the head and body set up the 15th round knockdown by Brown. And it was clearly evident that the Latin challenger was whoozy and unable to offer an adequate defense when Keech stepped in.
Zulueta's handlers protested that the referee's action was too hasty. But it was to no avail.
Orlando utilized his speed and a good left hand to keep Brown off balance through the early going. This fact, plus the champion's tendency to pace himself for the full, 15-round journey, led many to believe that the fight was fairly even up to the two knockdowns.
BROWN HIMSELF, admitted that he felt he was behind going into the 13th.
On the AFRO scoreback, he had a slight edge in points based on hard-scored the cleaner, harder blows.
