STROLLING THE A.V.E.

Modern music at its best is what they are serving this week at the COMEDY CLUB. The chief chef is Julian (Cannonball) Adderley with a quintet that features the talents of his brother, Nat Adderley.

Tuesday night was opening night for the outfit and from their first number it was pretty evident that some cool sounds will fill the COMEDY CLUB this week.

It was also evident that quite a bit of work must have gone into the intricate arrangements they use which showcase to top advantage, Julian on the sax and his brother on trumpet.

Every once in a while you hear a musician being billed as the "New Charlie Parker," and most of the times you can dismiss such claims without any hesitation.

However, Cannonball comes closest to Parker and has much of the same flow of ideas that made the late Mr. Parker the number one man when he was in his prime.

UP AT THE RED FOX ROOM, Pennsylvania Ave. at Fulton, there's a young lady, Ruby Glover, who is singing up a storm. With her are the Jazz Sounds, one of the newest and freshest groups in town.

On top of all this you have Primo on the conga so you can see with a bill like that you are assured of a good time at the RED FOX.

"Jubilee Nights" are what they are having at ROSSITER'S down at 1001 Hanover St. Free dance lessons are being offered from 8 to 9 p.m. in such fields as the cha-cha, mabo, calypso and of course the merengue.

If you pay a visit on Friday or Saturday you will be treated to the Calypso King, "Lord Kave," and the Ko-Ko-Mo Quartet.

BY POPULAR demand Gene Smith's Fool' Notes have been returned to the CARNIVAL LOUNGE, 1345 Poplar Grove St., the city's new look nitery with the old prices.

Fantabulous is the word for the rock and roll show that will play at SPARROW'S Beach tonight (Friday). Featured will be Ruth Brown, the Coasters, Bo Diddley, the Drifters, the School Boys, Smiley Lewis, the Five Satins, the Spence Twins and Paul Williams.

Then on Sunday the High Priest of Bop Land will be on hand. Naturally it couldn't be anybody but Dizzy Gillespie with his horn of plenty.

CONTINUOUS ENTERTAINMENT is being featured at the CLOVER CLUB, Fayette and Wolfe Sts., with Al Brown and the Original Tune Toppers plus Dave Ross at the organ. They say if you name it; Dave will play it.

Every Wednesday night there are free movies. Plus a big matinee on Sunday. Starts at 6 p.m. but get there early.

Kitty Noble and her Kitty Kats are the featured attraction at the RAIL INN, 2630 W. North Ave.

MODERN JAZZ sessions are being offered at the CLUB TIJUANA every Saturday. The sessions are really good and with some of the best talent in Baltimore joining in.

But hold on to your hat, the good news is just starting. On Tuesday night, which, according to our calendar which has never been wrong is June 25, Max Roach opens up shop at the TIJUANA.

We assume that everyone has heard of Max, but just in case you haven't let's just say that he is one of the true greats in sounds.

It is quite a feather in the cap of TIJUANA to have obtained Max Roach and the Modern Jazz Quintet and true jazz buffs will be flocking to the TIJUANA this week for the treat of hearing the great one.

After Roach the club has coming up Chico Hamilton, the man from the West Coast, and Carmen McRae. Sounds impressive and interesting. Big name musicians in a beautiful club. What more could you ask?

Flink Johnson and his all star combo are at CHICK'S, Baltimore and Greene Sts. Dancing is offered at the KNOTTY PINE CLUB, Park Ave., and Biddle St.

Don't forget CARR'S BEACH down in Annapolis where the living is always easy. That's it. Have fun....

Planning Commission backs three new school sites

The City Planning Commission approved three new school sites in Northwest Baltimore, at its meeting Wednesday, for which condemnation ordinances have been readied for action by the Board of Estimates and the City Council.

The new school ordinances are:

(1) No. 1495, a proposed elementary school within the area bounded by Ellamont, Pressman, Rosedale and Belmont Ave.

(2) No. 1496, a proposed elementary school in the area bounded by Pressman, Strickler, Laurens and Gilmor Sts.

(3) No. 1497, a proposed junior high school within the area bounded by Winchester St., Whitmore, Lafayette, Braddish and Claymont Aves.

THE ESTIMATED costs of the elementary schools are $1,110,000 each, and that of the junior high school is $3,200,000.

William E. Lehr, assistant superintendent for school facilities, stated in a June 11 letter to George A. Carter, director of Public Works, that the proposed elementary school in Ordinance No. 1495 is necessary because school children in the Ellamont-Rosedale area total 1,300 more than the capacity of two present schools there.

These are Elementary School No. 155, on Poplar Grove St. near Lanvale, and Elementary School No. 148, at Rosedale St. and Westwood Ave.

The proposed elementary school in Ordinance No. 1496, the Pressman-Strickler area, is needed, Mr. Lehr said, to eliminate part-timeness now necessary to handle students in that area.

The new junior high school proposed in Ordinance No. 1497, for the Braddish - Lafayette area, Mr. Lehr stated, is part of a plan of four such schools needed by 1960, to handle the increasing number of students now in elementary schools.

These ordinances call for the condemnation of many homes. However, the City Council adjourns for summer recess on Monday and no further action will be forthcoming. Public hearings will be set, after the Council convenes again in September.

STAMP ON SALE

Acting Postmaster William F. Laukaitis has announced that the three cent stamp, to honor the Teachers of America, which will be first placed on sale at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on July 1, during the Centennial Convention of the National Education Association, may be obtained locally at the main post office and classified stations and branches after that date.
