Cooking Is Fun

By FANNIEJOE REID

The next time your family has a yen for an extra special dessert, surprise them with a cream pie with fruit. It's just the thing to top off a light salad meal.

All you have to do is mix together three-fourth cup of sugar; six tablespoons flour; one-fourth teaspoon salt and add two cups of milk. Cook over boiling water, stirring until thick.

* * *

COVER AND cook 15 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Add the hot mixture to two eggs slightly beaten. Cook a few minutes longer, then remove from heat. Add two tablespoons of butter and one-half teaspoon vanilla or one-fourth teaspoon almond extract. Chill.

Pour into a cool nine-inch baked pastry shell or graham cracker shell. Chill. Spread with one cup sweetened whipped cream before serving. Garnish with slices of fresh peaches or whole strawberries.

THAT TRADITIONAL hot-weather thirst - quencher, lemonade, is back again. And nothing goes better with a tall glass of ice cold lemonade than spicy raisin cupcakes. Try it sometime.

And here are some other refreshing summer drinks: Peppermint Milk, Grape Rickey and Coffee Sparkle.

For the milk specialty, take a half pound peppermint candy and soak in a cup of milk for several hours, stirring occasionally until candy is dissolved. Add this mixture to plain milk according to taste. The youngsters will love it.

* * *

TO MAKE Grape Rickey, all you need is a quart of grape juice; one quart of water; one-fourth cup of lime or lemon juice, one cup of orange juice and sugar to sweeten. Combine ingredients and serve over ice in tall glasses.

Coffee Sparkle is made by adding a half pint of vanilla ice cream to a pint of cold, freshly made coffee. Beat with egg beater until creamy. Fill glasses three - quarters full, then fill with ginger ale.

When the children awaken fretful and unrefreshed after a hot night's sleep, try serving them frosty Soup Nog for breakfast to brighten their day.

Mix together a can of condensed cream of chicken soup which has been chilled overnight, and a soup can of milk. Beat in two eggs and a dash of nutmeg. Pour in a tall glass and serve.

* * *

ANOTHER BREAKFAST treat is a baked sandwich. Spread four slices of bread with three tablespoons softened butter or margerine. Place in greased 8-inch square baking dish.

Place one slice Canadian style bacon on each slice of bread and top each bacon slice with two well-drained apricot halves. Dot fruit with one tablespoon butter or margerine and sprinkle with one tablespoon brown sugar.

Add one-half teaspoon salt and one cup milk to two beaten eggs and beat and blend well. Pour egg mixture into center of baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) about 35 minutes. Makes four servings.

Quick dish for hot days

Hot Sticky Days! The porch is where you'll want to be and cool "Sardine Rice Salad" is what you'll want to eat. Remember, too, you'll want to use the packaged pre-cooked rice for your salad.

2/3 cup packaged pre-cooked rice
½ teaspoon salt
¾ cup boiling water
¾ cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Dash of pepper
1 teaspoon onion juice
2 tablespoons chopped dill pickle
½ cup diced celery
1 can (4 ounces) sardines, drained and cut in large pieces
5 tomatoes
1 hard-cooked egg

Add packaged pre-cooked rice and salt to boiling water in saucepan.

Mix just to moisten all rice. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 13 minutes. Then uncover and let cool to room temperature.

* * *

ABOUT 1 hour before serving; combine mayonnaise, lemon juice, pepper, onion juice, dill pickle, and celery, mixing well.

Add cooled rice, mixing lightly. Then add sardines and mix lightly. Chill.

To serve, cut each tomato to form 5 petals, making cuts about 2/3 through tomato, spread open, and sprinkle with salt and pepper.

Place sardine and rice mixture in center of tomato. Serve on crisp lettuce. Garnish with a wedge of hard-cooked egg. Makes 5 servings.

SEASON FAVORITE — Strawberries are here again which means strawberry shortcake — good all during the summer. Shortcake, to be its best, should be a sweetened, biscuit enriched a bit by the addition of melted butter and egg along with milk or cream. Serve it with sugar-sauted berries and plenty of cream. Pour the cream from a pitcher or whip it and spoon a mound on each serving.
