BIGGEST BECAUSE IT'S THE BEST

NBA Names Sugar Ray 'Fighter of the Month'

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson was named "Fighter of the Month," and light-heavyweight contender Harold John son was advanced to the No. 2 contender's spot in the latest rankings announced by the National Boxing Association last week.

Fred Saddy, chairman of the NBA's rating committee, said Robinson was selected for the top honor by virtue of his spectacular knockout of Gene Fullmer in the fifth round in the Chicago Stadium May 1. His selection covers the month of May.

JOHNSON, IN the midst of a successful comeback campaign, was advanced a notch from the No. 3 to No. 2 position among the contending light heavyweights.

Meanwhile, it was announced that welterweight champion Carmen Basilio may have to forego a proposed middleweight title match with Robinson.

Offered $105,000 to defend his welterweight title against the winner of the Kid Gavilan-Vince Martinez fight at Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium, June 17, Basilio said last week that he was setting June 13 as the deadline for Ray to make up his mind about the middle weight scrap.

* * *

SINCE THE $105,000 offer was made by William George, attorney, representing five New Jersey businesses, the possibility of a break between the welterweight champion and the International Boxing Club appears likely.

The IBC holds exclusive contracts to the services of both Robinson and Basilio.

Cross City would send ace to AAU

The Cross City track and field club is spending the upcoming weekend exploring ways and means of getting its ace sprinter to Dayton, Ohio next Friday to compete in the National AAU cinder championships.

Ed Waters, former Morgan State College speedster, has so impressed Cross City coaches in recent outdoor meets, that they are bent on getting him into the title events next Friday and Saturday.

Waters whipped Willie Williams in the Municipal games at Clifton Park last week, and was a blanket second to Ed Ken Kave in still another race. His victory was in the 220, in which Williams, who holds the world record of 10.1 seconds for 100 meters, was a fighting third. Waters was nipped by Kave in the 100-yard dash.

Cross City officials told the AFRO Thursday that they are confident Waters is at the peak of his form and that they are anxious to give him a shot at the AAU. They are soliciting help on the matter of expenses.

Turpin down 5 times but keeps title

LEICTSTER, England—Randy Turpin played the role of an elevator on the canvas here Tuesday night, but came out of his 15-round British light-heavyweight title fight with crown intact.

The former world middleweight champion was decked five times in his match with challenger Arthur Howard. However, he managed to gain the decision.

Howard, 27 years old and weighing 173½ pounds, connected with right hand punches that put Turpin down for counts in the second, fifth, seventh, eighth and thirteenth rounds.

Randy, also 27 and 172½ pounds, kept bouncing back, though.

SAA women's track meet set July 27

The South Atlantic Association will sponsor a sectional track and field meet for women athletes here on July 27, the AFRO learned late this week.

The affair is expected to draw several U.S. Olympic hopefuls, among Meredith Ellis of New York and Olga Connelly, the ex-Hungarian champion, who recently married an American star, Druid Hill Park will be the scene of the games.
