Final round opens Sunday in Baltimore Unlimited play

Big games are scheduled in the amateur baseball circuits Sunday afternoon.

The final round will begin in the Baltimore Unlimited Loop with Walbrook and Centre A.C. battling at Sients Field at 3 o'clock. These two are deadlocked for second place in the first half race.

Dolphins and Gage will clash in a crucial tilt in the Maryland Unlimited Loop. Gage nosed out the Fins in the opening round chase. This tilt will be played at Druid Hill No. 2 at 3 o'clock.

Another red hot battle should be played in the Maryland Club loop when DunPoint and Seven Eleven Allstars hook up at Penwood Park at 1 o'clock. The Pointers won the first round race with the Stars close behind in second place.

* * *

MOVING TO the Baltimore Club, Leones, champs of the opening round will battle at Parkville at Bloomingdale Oval at 3 o'clock. The Harford Roadsters finished third in the opening half.

Old rivals meet in the Baltimore Junior Loop tomorrow afternoon when Dobkin and Gordon clash at Clifton No. 1 at 1 o'clock. This contest will mark the opening of the final round in the Baltimore race.

THE GAME between Junior Rockets and Moose at Clifton No. 3 at 1 o'clock should go a long way towards deciding the final half championship of the Maryland Loop chase. Both nines are unbeaten in the second round.

Rosedale and Northwest, also undefeated meet in the top Optimist Junior contest at Mullan Field at 3 o'clock.

In the C.Y.O. junior Loops, St. Jerome and St. Agnes clash in the big game in the Western. St. Rita and Ascension battle in the major Eastern Loop tilt at Dundalk.

Giants win over Tigers at Westport

The Baltimore Giants scored a 7-5 victory over the Mitchellville Tigers at Westport Park Friday night, then headed for North Carolina.

At Newborn, N.C. Saturday, the Giants battled to a 8-8 deadlock with the Pittsburgh Crawfords with the contest halted because of rain. They tried again in Newborn Sunday, but rain once more forced cancellation.

On Sunday, the Giants will play a twin bill, beginning at 2 p.m., with the Druid Giants on the latter's home lot.

U.S. picks Althea

NEW YORK—Althea Gibson has been named as one of the four official representatives of the United States in the coming Wimbledon tennis championships, it was disclosed late last week.

Miss Gibson shares the distinction with Louise Brough, Hamilton Richardson and Herb Flam.

All are currently competing in Europe. Miss Gibson having won two tournaments within the past two weeks — the Surrey Lawn Tennis tourney, and the Northern England championship. It will be her first entry under sponsorship of the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

The other three have previously been sponsored by the USLTA. Miss Brough is a seven-time Wimbledon titlist.

Young hopefuls point for Turners Station meet

Boys and girls between the ages of nine and 16, are looking ahead to the Community Church Association field day, to be held June 29, at the Southern Point High-School field.

The CCA affair is to be jointly sponsored by the Turner Station Recreation Council and the YMCA.

It will feature events for boys and girls, with cups and medals for first, second and third places.

A team trophy will be awarded to the church that amasses the most points. The feature event is to be a special 50-yard dash for the ministers of the churches in the area.

When the event was mentioned in the Ministerial Alliance Meeting last Saturday, the Reverend David S. Banks was rather vocal as to how he was going to run over the rest of the ministers in the feature race and the next morning asked his congregation for a pair of tennis shoes to improve his chances.

The Reverend Dockery Thompson didn't agree with Rev. Banks and expressed his confidence.

From all appearances a new type of rivalry has been born.

Key games slated in amateur baseball Sat.

The second round of the Inter-Club League will begin tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon with four games scheduled on local diamonds. The big game of the contest at Spring Grove Oval between Seagers and Martin Bombers. Both were contenders in the still race.

Fitzberger, runner-up in opening round, will tackle Buffalo at Bloomingdale Oval. Camden Fruit tackles Gene's Tavern at Clifton No. 1, and Social Security battles Arcadia at Herring Run No. 2.

The Saturday Junior also opens its final round. Martin Local, unbeaten in the first half will face Rebels at Patterson No. 3 at 11 a.m. The team from Clifton is holding third in the opening round.

* * *

IN OTHER top games, Red Shield meets Rodgers Forge in the Baltimore Midget at Patterson No. 2; Govans and Loch Raven battle in the top Maryland Midget fray at Mt. Pleasant Park, St. Agnes and Saints Phillips and James clash in the feature American Midget tilt at St. Agnes Oval.

In the CYO Midgets, St. Mary's and St. Dominic will battle at Dewees Field in the outstanding Northern Loop contest; St. Agnes and St. Mark's "A" meet in the feature Western fray and Pompei and St. Wenceslaus Clash at Patterson No. 2 in a crucial Eastern League game.

All's Atlantic and Eastwood clash in the outstanding Baltimore Cub game at Graceland Park and Northwest and Westport battle for first place in the Optimist Club. This game is scheduled for Gowanda Oval.

Baseball Roundup

TOLEDO (ANP)—Al Smith, the Cleveland Indians' jack-of-all-trades' performer, shackled by one of the worst slumps in his major league career, showed signs last weekend of emerging from his batting troubles.

Smitty had been as discouraged because of his lack of hitting that he was considering taking glasses. Part of his troubles also may stem from the fact that he has been constantly shifting from one position to another. So far this season he has been used at third base, center and left field.

On last Saturday, he had one of his best days of the season against the Washington Senators. He led the Indians to a 6-4 victory with three hits in four trips to the plate, including a double, triple and single.

This raised his average to .250 truly subpar for Smith. His batting had reached its nadir a week earlier when he tailed off to .236.

* * *

HITTING OF tan players generally had dropped off. For the first time in a week Hank Aaron dropped out of the first 10 National League hitters. The Milwaukee outfielder and defending NL batting champ dropped to .324, although he hit his 14th home run of the season Sunday and held leadership in that department.

Frank Robinson, Cincinnati's sophomore outfielder, also was in a slump. He was down to .340 which left him fifth in batting.

* * *

NEW YORK Giants' Willie Mays had fallen off to .333 Both Mays and Robinson had hit 10 home runs each, as of Saturday.

Aaron slid back to second in runs batted in. His 38 placed him 4 behind Stan Musial, of the St. Louis Cardinals, the pacesetter. Robinson was tied for fourth with 33.

* * *

AMONG THE American League hitters, Vic Power and Harry Simpson, Kansas City teammates, remained among the leaders, with a .304 mark. Minnie Minoso of the Chicago White Sox, had 33 RBI's, giving him a tie for third in the AL.

Brooks Lawrence, after a long wait, finally notched his fifth victory of the season, although he needed help in relief in a 4-1 victory over Brooklyn to pitch Cincinnati back into the American League Lead.

* * *

ERNIE BANKS, who certainly is having a disappointing first half of the season, clouted a 3-run home run to lead the Chicago Cubs to a 7-to-3 victory over the surprising Philadelphia Phillies, in the first game of a Sunday doubleheader.
