Joseph H. Thomas Sr., an old philosopher, dies at 87

An old philosopher, Joseph H. Thomas Sr., 87, died last week at his home 110 Orleans St.

May 27, the date of his death, will mean little to persons not included in the small circle of family and friends, but to those close to him it was the end of a brilliant man whom the poets say was, "a flower born to blush unseen and waste its sweetness on the desert air."

Although unknown, and one who did not achieve fame, Mr. Thomas was a scholar, a student of the classics, a well-read, old fashioned gentleman, skilled in Victorian courtesies and manners.

He had a library of more than 500 valuable books — now shared by his descendants.

ONE OF them is James A. Thomas, a grandson, 1635 Gwynns Falls Parkway, a clerk investigator of the U.S. Department of Health and Welfare for 17 years.

He is better known as "Count Thomas" — musician who played with Tracy's Kentucky jazz band of the 1920's and Lou Russell's aggregation.

The other, a son, is Harry Thomas who lives in Atlantic City.

Another son is Joseph H. Thomas Jr., who resides in Baltimore and who has been an employee of the wholesale fish market for over 40 years.

HIMSELF A lover of books, and the fine manners of the "olden days" James Thomas recalls vividly the philosophy of his grandfather.

"He was an individual, one of a kind," the grandson states.

"He believed that persons who joined clubs and lodges lacked the personality to meet people as individuals.

"He often stated that if the formality and ritual were taken out of the church, no one would attend.

"He did not belong to any group but the church for he believed what the Bible says:

"If two are assembled for prayer, I am there and their prayers will be answered."

"He hated vanity, he loved culture.

"He looked up to God alone, he looked across at all men and looked down on no one," James Thomas stated.

THE ELDER Mr. Thomas was born Feb. 6, 1870 five years after Emancipation Proclamation. He was reared by his grandmother, a slave, known as Jane Anthony, who was born in 1810 and from whom he inherited the love of culture.

He finished the third grade in normal schooling but having an innate yearning to be well read, he poured through books volumes and found recreation in studying them.

Through the years he collected many books such as the Crudence Concordance which is more than 100 years old.

Many volumes bear the publishing dates of the earlier 1800's (1809-1817) the years Thomas Jefferson was President of the United States.

FOR 67 years Mr. Thomas was married to Mrs. Jennie P. Thomas who died in Jan., 1957.

She never worked away from her home simply because Mr. Thomas believed home was the place for all women and he held working women in contempt.

Mr. Thomas termed himself a "cosmopolitan gentleman." He upheld strict moral training.

As he lived inconspicuously, so he died. He suffered much but three weeks before his death.

ON MEMORIAL DAY funeral services were held at A North Caroline St. funeral parlor at 10:30 a.m. with only the family and a few friends present. Burial was in the Arbutus Memorial Park.

The Rev. Cyrus Bridell, a friend presided.

Mr. Thomas is survived by his sons, Harry and Joseph H. Thomas, sisters, Jennie A. and Mrs. Alice Jackson and Mrs. Dorothy Deal of Washington, also nine great-grandchildren and eight great, great grandchildren.

Mrs. M. Carpenter dies, Psalmist Baptist member

Funeral services were held Thursday at the Psalmist Baptist Church for Mrs. Marcella Carpenter, 67, 1148 N. Carrollton ave. who died June 4.

Mrs. Carpenter was a member of the Eastern Star Lodge and the St. Luke's Order and since 1912, a member of the Psalmist Church.

She was born in Northumberlain County, Va., on April 4, 1890, the daughter of the late Jerry and Addie Johnson. In 1911 she was married to Solomon Carpenter who survives.

Other survivors are four sisters, Mrs. Mollie Campbell, Northumberlain County; Mrs. Mary Jackson, and Mrs. Catherine Ennis, both of Fredericksburg, Va., and Mrs. Madeline Dates of Cherry Hill, N.J. a brother, Roosevelt, of Wildwood, N.J., also survives.

Charles H. Wright dies was retired teacher

Funeral services were held Monday for Charles H. Wright, 62, 1909 Wheeler St., who died May 31. Burial was in the Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Mr. Wright was held of the Falls Road Elementary School No. 158 for 21 years. When his health began to fail, he transferred and taught at School No. 113, but resigned in 1947 when he became too ill to continue.

He was a lifelong member of the St. Andrews Methodist Church in Mt. Washington and lived on Kelley Ave. there for more than 40 years.

BORN AND reared in Baltimore County, at Ruxton, Mr. Wright was educated in the county schools.

He graduated from Hampton Institute in Virginia in 1904 and spent one year at Howard University. Following this training he was appointed teacher in Baltimore City schools and entered service as a city school teacher with the Baltimore County Division in 1918.

He was married to the former Miss Mary Moore, a Baltimore teacher, in 1913. They moved to Baltimore in 1950.

Mr. Wright was a member of the Mt. Carmel Methodist Church of trustees and superintendent of the Sunday School for many years.

A staunch member of the church, Mr. Wright pledged his property in 1925 so that the church edifice might be built.

FUNERAL SERVICES were conducted by the St. Andrews Methodist Rev. Mrs. Estella Brooks, who was assisted by a family friend, the Rev. Edward Carroll, pastor of Sharp St. Methodist Church in Baltimore.

Mr. Wright is survived by his wife, Mrs. Wright; and three daughters, Mrs. Edna S. Childs, Fieldtown, Pa.; Mrs. Mary P. Harrison and Mrs. Edith R. Carruth, both of Baltimore.

A son Clarence R. Wright, Wellsville, Pa., also survives.

Also, Dr. Franklin Phillips, Mrs. Lola Menson, and Mrs. Ethel R. Hughes, city school teachers, who are first cousins; and eight grandchildren.

Three cars damaged in Sunday crash

A collision at Russell and Cross Sts., resulted in damages to three cars Sunday afternoon.

Police said the accident took place following a collision between cars driven by Mrs. Louise Mitchell Harris, 52, 1611 E. Biddle St., and Dwight Floyd Holloway, 37, 1631 N. Caroline St.

Loss of homes is AFRO's top Newstip

Biggest tip this week involved more information on home owners who face the very real possibility of having to pull up stakes to make room for a new school building proposed for that area.

A $5 check has been mailed to the alert AFRO reader who scooped the News-tip to CITY Desk.

Another tipster received $3 for the old wives tale of the fatal shooting of the little girl on Lafayette Ave., and tipsters who called in the following leads received $1 each:

The death of a veteran educator out in the county, police bullet which went into home on Woodbrook Ave.; graduates from Catholic School and fire at Mt. Winans School.

Also, tip on lady found dead in McCulloh St.; accident involving two children who fell from 3rd story window, and illness of the Rev. W. W. Walker.

ALSO, DROWNING of child at Falls Road; first colored graduate of the School of Pharmacy, University of Maryland; and damage to residence of Dr. Smith in Morgan Park.

Additional $1 checks went to other tipsters for:

Lead on fire in Pennsylvania Ave. caused by man who went to sleep; a laundry holdup at North Ave. and Payson; funeral crowd that came to view remains of girl slain by stray bullet, and tip regarding first colored priest to officiate at funeral in Catonsville.

$50 is the total sum set aside each week for News Tips and News Photos. For NEWS TIPS, call MU. 5-6015, 6016, 1812 and 1813. If no answer, call LA 3-3024. You can always bring your NEWS and Photos to the City Desk.

Requiem mass said for James W. Flint

Requiem high mass was said Wednesday morning at Catonsville's St. Mark's Catholic Church for James William Flint, 75, of 36 Bloomingdale Ave., in Catonsville.

Mr. Flint died suddenly (39 years) resident of Catonsville, died on Sunday at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Burial was in New Cathedral Cemetery.

Officiating at the mass was Mr. Flint's nephew, the Rev. Eugene J. Hicks, assistant priest at St. Charles Borromeo Church in New York. Milton Dugger Jr., a great nephew of the deceased, served as acolyte.

UNTIL HIS retirement five years ago, Mr. Flint conducted a grocery store at the corners of Frederick and Cumberland Sts. in Baltimore.

He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Nellie Hall, whom he married 39 years; a daughter, Miss Nellie E. Flint, Catonsville; and a son, James W. Flint Jr., of Baltimore.

Also a grandson, James Robert Flint. And, two sisters, Mrs. Geneva Clark, Baltimore; Mrs. Anna Murphy, Rockaway Beach, N.Y., and a brother, Bert Lewis Flint, Jamaica, L.I., N.Y.

Mrs. S. Matthews

Funeral services were held Matthews, 92, 1707 Calvo St., who died May 30 at Provident Hospital.

Mrs. Matthews is survived by her daughter Mrs. Isabelle Langforth.

Mrs. Edna Johnson

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Mrs. Edna M. Johnson, 54, 2914 Spellman Road, died June 2.

Mrs. Johnson was a native Baltimorean and a member of Union Chapel AME Church.

She is survived by her husband, Harry Johnson; two daughters, Mrs. Beula Wilson and Mrs. Edith Redmond; and four sons, Harry Jr., Clifton, Lawrence and Raymond.

Also surviving are three sisters, and eight grandchildren.

on," one declared. "He (Divine) is alive, but he appears to be a very sick individual."

IN ADDITION to the TV appearance, Father Divine appeared during the week end before approximately 300 of his followers.

The showing was brief. He appeared from the balcony of his S. Broad St. headquarters. He waved, but did not speak.

The report that Father Divine was dead stems from a statement made, last week, by Bishop C. M. (Daddy) Grace.

He told a group of followers at a meeting in South Carolina: "Father Divine is dead."

MY LUCK CHARM

MRS. MILDRED RUSSELL

This statement was made by Mrs. Mildred Russell of Newport News, Virginia: "I believe the promise that God made to Moses. I saw the burning bush of the Mazuzah and sent for one. Since receiving it, I have had nothing but LUCK. My enemies are now my friends. I have money and the bad luck cross has left me.

"I believe in the Mazuzah, in the Shield of Faith as millions of others do. I believe it is a Divine Omen of good luck and a protection against evil and misfortune. I fell it has made my life worth living, and a happy one, because of all the good things that have happened to me. When I went to see Doctor Anderson later, I could well understand why so many people have so much faith in him."

The Mazuzah is a beautiful piece of jewelry about one inch long, with the Divine promise inscribed inside, and it may be worn around the neck with pride and joy. The price is very small for such a wonderful luck charm: ONLY $3.00.

FINANCIAL BLESSING may be had when you send for FAST LUCK biblical incense — Fast (E.S.) Send right away for the MAZUZAH and FAST LUCK biblical incense—both for $6 C.O.D. plus charges.
