whits bastiste and with it she wore a magnificent pearl and MORE on mach. 4-gal. 109 mor rhinestone square necklace.

And then there was Mrs. Reva Lewis in low-cut strapped ice-blue nylon lace sheath dress with net panels in the back from the waist down, accented with silver and navy blue accessories; Mrs. Violetta Lee gowned beautifully in a pressed flowered faille, outlined in gold thread and highlighted by white accessories and rhinestone eweiry;

Mrs. Juanita Hill eye-catching in a Princess line black flowered white pique with white accessories; Mrs. Cora Gibson regal in a beige lace sheath, accented with rhinestone jewelry and patent leather accessories; and Mrs. Julia Harden of Washington looking really stunning in a sheath of teale blue pure silk, accented on jacket with crystal buttons.

There were no long drawn out speeches, which of course made the evening more enjoyable. The guest speaker was Dr. Parlette L. Moore, president of Coppin State Teachers College.

In keeping with its Bigger and Better Business Project, an award was given to the Parks Sausage Company for its development of a successful business in this community and one to Alfred A. Dixon for his outstanding contribution to the community, to education and to his fraternity.

An interesting feature of the evening was the music by the orchestra of the Modern School of Music, Washington, D.C., with W. Sherman Smith, conducting and Mrs. Mildred Austin Smith, soloist. Mrs. Smith is a member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority of Washington. There was never a dull moment during the one hour and forty minute program, due to the expert handling by that most capable toastmaster, Dr. Bernard Harris Sr.

Attending the dinner as guest of the chapter was Mrs. Mabel Braxton, widow of Brother Winford J. Braxton, second president of the Chapter and a very excellent officer. He died while in office.

ON SUNDAY, Parran Dwight Ruffin and Alan Syvester Kelly were given a dinner to celebrate their birthdays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ruffin.

Hostesses were the godmothers of the boys, Mildred E. Smith and Thelma Ruffin.

Guests were:

Pamela Young, Anna Smith, Thomasina Watkins, Theresa Kelly, Sylvia T. Ruffin, Patricia Holsclaw, Eugenia Anderson, Noreen Johnson, Arlene Kelly, Yvonne Ruffin;

Phyllis Ruffin, Monica Jones, Helen Ray, Denus Ray, Denyer Smith, Melvin Tilley Jr., Billy Freshwater, Laurence Owens, Jo Ann Williams;

Bernard Watts, Dwight Franklin, Maurice Smith, Albert Maddox, Alan Henson, Wayland Jones and Michael Lipscomb.

BLANCHE DAVIS BECKHAM was the hostess at that delightful shower which honored Carlotte Elizabeth Hughes on Saturday afternoon. Miss Hughes is to be married to Charles R. Wilson tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

A color scheme and decoration motif in pink and white was used . . . from the pink and white carnations for the table to the umbrella which hung above the stack of gifts.

Out-of-town guests at the party were Mesdames Dorethy Harris, Suzanne Price, Dorothy Mullings and Dr. Bertha Martin of Washington.

From hereabouts were Mesdames Sarah Browne, Ann McAllister, Janet Hughes, Nancy Brown, Audrey Thomas, Carolyn Stubbs, Mary C. McPherson, June Barker;

Also Mesdames Alice Davis, Catherine Speed, Ann Evans, Geraldine Dorsey, Lucille Gurdiel, Inetta Gross, Grace Stokes and Teley Ford;

And Misses Jacqueline Spencer, Miriam Hughes, Carolyn Hughes and Audrey Briscoe.

Assisting as hostesses were Mrs. Blanche M. Lindsay and Mrs. Charlotte P. Swan.

POT-POURRI: The Joe (Dorothy) Bostics, both of whom received degrees from Morgan State College, dashed down from New York in their swishy new Cadillac, Monday, to see their son, Lee, follow in their footsteps.

Coach Eddie Hurt, and three of his track men, flew off to California, following graduation. Mrs. Hurt went to New Jersey and New York to visit with relatives during his absence.

A typographical error fowled a line herein about Coach and Mrs. Talmadge Hill, last week. What I intended to have said was that they will leave for Europe around the 18th . . . to pick up their daughter, Freddie, who has been studying in Switzerland for the year, and then tour the continent.

Mrs. Elba Gross came down from Newark, N.J. to see her granddaughter, Barbara Locks (Miss Morgan) graduate.

About every other question I've faced today was "Did Marion Anderson wear any of her fabulous wardrobe numbers while here?" Miss Anderson wore a very simple black dress, a self-embroidered coat topping it, a white felt hat, black shoes, and topped the whole with a black and white tweed coat when necessary.

Edith L. Cook stayed about for the Morgan commencement, then packed and took off Tuesday morning, for Darien, Conn., where she is visiting a cousin, Mrs. Herbert Leavering. Mrs. Levering is an advertising saleswoman for the Cannon Co. Edith will stop in New York for shopping and will return here the latter part of this week.

Cooking Is Fun

By FANNIEJOE REID

Continuing the summer plan of adding an idea a day to our cooking repertoire, and thereby warding off any boredom that might sneak into our kitchens, here are another batch of summer time notes.

An appetizing way to start off a warm weather dinner is to chill canned consomme for several hours. Before serving, break up slightly with a fork and stir in thinly sliced radish es, green pepper strips and chopped olives. Garnish with lime wedges.

TO MAKE elegant cinnamon rolls for a special breakfast treat, spread a rectangle of baking powder biscuit dough with softened butter and then with orange marmalade.

Sprinkle with chopped walnuts and cinnamon. Roll up like jelly roll. Cut into slices and bake in muffin tins.

EVEN IN warm weather you need a hot dish. Grilled avocado and bacon sandwiches, with bowls of tomato soup (you might try this on the rocks) make a mighty satisfying lunch.

Use either mashed or sliced avocado and crisp cooked bacon.

AND FOR dessert: Lime sherbet dishes with split lady fingers, topped with a small scoop peppermint stick ice cream in center and cover generously with well-drained canned fruit cocktail mixed with sliced strawberries.

And speaking of ice cream, here's an ice cream that's less expensive to make than many recipes because it uses evaporated milk instead of whipping cream.

Marshmallows help make it light and smooth while chocolate and roasted almonds add plenty of flavor. Stir up a batch of "Almond Rocky Road Ice Cream" next time you feel like fixing a treat for your youngsters.

Almond rocky road ice cream is made with 1 teaspoon plain gelatin, ½ cup milk, 2 (1-ounce) squares unsweetened chocolate, ¾ cup sugar, few grains salt, ½ teaspoon vanilla, ¼ cup roasted unblanched almonds, 6 marshmallows, and 1¼ cups chilled undiluted evaporated milk.

Soften gelatin in 1 tablespoon milk. Heat remainder of milk. Add chocolate cut fine, sugar and salt, and cook and stir over low heat until chocolate is melted and mixture is smooth. Remove from heat and add softened gelatin, stirring until gelatin is dissolved.

Blend in vanilla. Cool. Chop almonds. Cut marshmallows into eighths. Whip thoroughly chilled evaporated milk until light and fluffy. Fold into cooled chocolate mixture, along with almonds and marshmallows.

Turn into refrigerator tray and place in freezing compartment with control set at lowest temperature. Freeze without stirring to desired consistency. Reset temperature control to normal.

Makes about 1 quart.

ENTREES that serve as well for supper as luncheon are hard to find. They must be different enough to please the "girls" and yet hearty enough for the "boys."

Asparagus Luncheon Rolls is one of those rare recipes that is successful on both counts. Slices of boiled or baked ham, chicken or turkey are rolled to enclose tender stalks of cooked asparagus and then baked under a savory "Cheese-Olive Sauce" until lightly glazed.

Crumb - topped baked tomatoes go very nicely with this dish and crisp rolls give a pleasing contrast. Garnish the plates with a few more of the elegant ripe olives that are featured in the sauce.

Asparagus luncheon rolls are made with 16 to 24 large cooked asparagus stalks, 4 to 6 large slices boiled or baked ham, chicken or turkey, salt, pepper, melted butter, and cheese-olive sauce.

Cheese - Olive Sauce requires 2 teaspoons instant minced onion, or 2 tablespoons finely chopped raw onion, 2 cups rich milk, ½ cup ripe olives, ¼ cup butter or margarine, 1/3 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon salt, and ¼ cup grated American cheese.

Arrange four asparagus stalks on each slice ham. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, and brush with butter. Roll over to enclose asparagus. Arrange in shallow oblong casserole or baking pan. Cover with Cheese-Olive Sauce and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 20 to 25 minutes to heat and lightly glaze.

Cheese-Olive Sauce: Measure onion into milk. Cut olives into medium-sized pieces. Melt butter; blend in flour and salt. Add milk mixture slowly. Cook and stir until thickened and smooth, about 10 minutes. Stir in cheese and olives.

Makes 4 to 6 servings.

If raw onion is used, cook until soft in the butter.

CHICKEN PARISIAN is a delicious French-style dish that makes good use of left-over fowl and is highlighted with fine coffee.

Roast chicken, turkey or duckling seem especially appealing at this time of year, but after they have been enjoyed, there is the problem of left-overs. Turn the problem into a culinary triumph with Chicken Parisian.

Be sure there's plenty of steaming coffee served with this dish. Good coffee adds zest to this interesting meal.

Chicken parisian is made with 2 pkgs. frozen broccoli, 1 can condensed mushroom soup, 1/3 cup heavy cream, 1/8 teaspoon coarsely ground black pepper, ¼ teaspoon rosemary, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 tablespoons dry sherry, sliced left-over chicken, turkey or duckling, 4 slices packaged process American cheese, and ½ cup buttered soft bread crumbs.

Cook broccoli until fork-tender and drain. Meanwhile combine soup, cream, pepper, rosemary and Worcestershire sauce. Heat stirring, until smooth. Add sherry. Arrange broccoli in shallow, greased casserole. Cover with sliced chicken.

Arrange cheese slices on chicken. Pour sauce over all. Top with buttered crumbs. Place in hot oven, 425 Degrees F., until crumbs are golden brown, about 10 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Pecan pie

When families get hungry for a really special dessert, can you think of anything that's more welcome than a big, old-fashioned Pecan Pie?

It seems to be just about everybody's favorite dessert, and believe me, the compliments come faster than ever when you use this wonderful recipe for Pecan Pie made with Pet Evaporated Milk.

You've never tasted a pie like it — it's so rich and delicious — the creamy-smooth caramel filling covered with lots of crunchy pecans. And here's the amazing part! Rich and perfect as this pecan pie is, you don't use a speck of butter in it! That's because it's made with Pet Evaporated Milk, the milk that's twice as rich as ordinary milk.

PECAN PIE requires 3 tablespoons flour, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup dark corn syrup, 2 eggs, ½ cup Pet Evaporated Milk, 1 cup broken pecans, 3/4 teaspoon vanilla, and a 9-inch unbaked pie shell.

Mix in a 1½ - quart bowl the flour, sugar and salt. Mix in syrup well. Beat in eggs with a fork, one at a time. Mix in milk, pecans and vanilla. Pour into a 9-in. pie pan lined with unbaked pastry. Bake near center of 375 oven (high moderate) about 50 minutes, or until firm. Cool before serving.

Raisin cookies

RAISIN SPECIALTY Cookies are made with 1 cup light or dark raisins, 6 to 8 ounces semi-sweet chocolate, 2 eggs, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, ½ cup melted butter or margarine, 1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour, ½ teaspoon salt, and ½ teaspoon baking powder.

Rinse and drain raisins. Cut chocolate into small cubes (or use packaged "chocolate bits"). Beat eggs well. Stir in sugar and vanilla. Cool butter slightly and stir into egg-sugar mixture. Sift together flour, salt and baking powder, and add to batter. Blend in raisins and chocolate.

Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 15 to 18 minutes. Remove to wire rack to cool.
