Prayer room dedicated

WASHINGTON
Association House, national headquarters of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, recently was the scene of two activities — the dedication of a Prayer Room and the installation of the Irene McCoy Gaines Community Club.
The latter group was inducted as a member of the Washington and Vicinity Federation of Women's Clubs, an affiliate of the national association.

* * *

THE prayer room was endowed and dedicated by the Rev. Eulah Smith of Los Angeles, Calif., who is the national chairman of press and publicity.
The Irene McCoy Gaines Federated Club was organized by the headquarters secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Williams, formerly of Chicago.

* * *

MRS. GAINES, while inducting the club, asked the young women to learn the history of the national association for the past 61 years.
She also told them to keep its traditions, revere its pioneers, and fulfill its motto: "Lifting As We Climb."
Among the guests were the Rev. Eulah Smith, Los Angeles, Calif; Dr. J. O. Alexander, Col. and Mrs. Edward Barber, Miss Virginia Williams and Miss Sybil Moses.

U.S. right-to-vote bill given congress

WASHINGTON, D.C. (ANP) —Congressman Victor L. Anfuso (Dem., N.Y.) introduced a "Government Employees Right-to-Vote Bill" last week. The measure provides that Federal employees be given sufficient time off to vote in person in national, state and local elections.
According to the bill, "government employees are to be excused for at least two hours but not more than four hours, without loss of pay or deduction from annual leave, to enable them to vote in person.

Anti-bias commission seeks baseball help

The Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations early this week sought to enlist the aid of baseball clubs of the American League in its drive to erase segregation in the downtown hotels of this city.
The commission was set up by Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin for the purpose of finding ways and means of solving desegregation problems as speedily as possible. It has placed at the top of its agenda the removal of fim crowism in public housing, with downtown hostelries as the No. 1 target.
Having failed to shake the hotel owners' association in its policy, and having been unsuccessful in other endeavors on a local sc
