Cadets win awards at ROTC day

Nearly 100 of the 438-man cadet corps won trophies, medals and ribbons last (Thursday) in the Ninth Annual ROTC Day activities at Morgan State College.

Climaxing a series of competitions which began at 1 p.m. in Hughes Stadium, Company F of the 2nd Battalion commanded by Cadet Captain Wendell Baker of Philadelphia won the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspaper Company Trophy for the best company.

CADET COL. William Cummins Jr. of Upper Marlboro, Md., was a triple winner in the non-competitive area winning the Sumpters Medal, the Col. West A. Hamilton Trophy and the Reserve Officers Association Subscription.

The competitions marked the final drill day at Morgan State College to be held under the leadership of Lt. Col. Willard C. Stewart, who has been reassigned to Korea, effective June 11.

Col. Stewart, in an unusual action, was retained at the college for four years instead of the customary three and is credited with having developed the Morgan corps into a topflight one. He will be succeeded by Lt. Col. Edward C. Johnson.

ADDING COLOR to the ROTC activities were exhibitions given by the Scottish Bagpipe Band, the Women's Army Corps (WAC) Drill Team, both of Ft. Meade, Md., the Maryland State College Drill Team from Princess Anne, Md., and the Pershing Rifles Company of Morgan State.

Forensic group to induct students

A chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha, National Forensic Honor Society, will be formally installed at Morgan State College, Wednesday, May 29, at 7 p.m. in the Truth House Lounge.

Dr. Karl Moll of Rutgers University, governor of the Eastern Division of the society, will present the charter to Morgan and induct charter members.

Founded in 1908 in Indianapolis, Ind., Tau Kappa Alpha is the nation's largest debate honor society and requires for membership both superior achievement in the forensic field and a high level of general scholarship.

Five Morgan debaters, two of them graduate students, conducted as charter members of the society, Harold B. Chinn, director of debate and sponsor of the chapter, said.

They are: Ulysses Prince of Washington, D.C.; Henry Sands of Baltimore, Md.; Brandel Tucker, Dundalk, Md.; and former students Addie Myrick, and J. Tyson Tildon, Baltimore.

Original opera to be presented

A folk opera, "Tell Joe," written by two Morgan State College instructors and a private music school head, will be presented in the Little Theatre at the Morgan Christian Center on Sunday evening at 7:30.

The text is by Waters E. Turpin, associate professor of English at Morgan. Orchestration is by R. Hayes Strider, associate professor of music, and music is by Herman Schwarz, who heads a music school bearing his name in the unit block of W. Preston St.

Players, all students of Mr. Schwarz, are Miss Barbara Dunger, soprano, of 2627 Hilton St.; Mrs. Dorothy L. Davis, contralto, of 1008 W. Lafayette Ave.; Moore L. Carson, bass, of 1411 Division St., and Joseph Nettles, tenor, of 1619 Druid Hill Ave.

Dixon speaks

City Councilman Walter T. Dixon (Dem. 4th Dist.) told the Council Thursday that he was very gratifying to see the number in which the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission has swung into action and he congratulated the group on its choice of an executive secretary.

Declamation winners at School 181

Recently the Houston Junior High School No. 181 held its third annual Declamation Contest. First prize winner was Kenneth Lane, 9A, pupil, who recited a speech by Patrick Henry.

For her recitation of one of Franklin D. Roosevelt's speeches, Gwendolyn Lewis, 9A, was awarded second prize.

Leah Garrett, 9A, won third prize for her citation of one of Henry A. Wallace's speeches. Jessie Kerr was mistress of ceremonies and prizes were awarded by Freda Starvis, president of Houston Student Council.

JUDGES WERE Mrs. Mary W. Jones, teacher at Douglass High School; Mrs. Irma Roy, teacher at Carver Vocational-Technical High School; the Rev. Richard Swift, S.J., pastor of St. Monica's Catholic Church; and Chuck Richards, radio personality.

Music was furnished by the Houston Choralettes under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Potter.

Mrs. Hilda B. Parker and Raymond T. Carpenter were the faculty sponsors. Frank J. Sorrell is principal of the school.

In Memoriam 1

HANDY— In loving memory of our husband and father, JAMES DANIEL, who departed this life, May 26, 1956.

Our hearts still ache, our Darling,

And our tears still freely flow.

For no one could ever realize

How we miss you so.

So sleep on, our dear love

And take your rest.

You loved your dear darling,

But God loved you best.

Lovingly,

GLADYS

Daughters,

DELANIA AND SHELIA

HARGIS— In memory of JOHN H. HARGIS, who departed this life one year ago, May 25, 1956.

Gone but not forgotten

Sadly missed CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN

HILL— In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, ROBERT HILL, who passed away one year ago, May 25, 1956.

Sleep on our dear husband

Your hearts are at rest.

Our hearts are breaking

Your loss we deplore.

Sleep on, dear husband,

We miss your voice

For one long year has passed

And our hearts still ache for you.

Loving Wife,

DORA HILL

AND CHILDREN.

HUTCHINS — In loving memory of my dear son, JOHNNY W., who passed away May 27, 1942.

A man is from my household gone,

A voice I loved is stilled.

A place is vacant in my home

Which never can be filled.

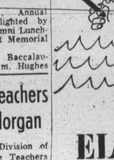
Some may think you are forgotten

But memories you are with me,

As long always were before.

His Loving Mother

MRS. ESTONIA HUTCHINS



JACKSON — A tribute to my husband, LIAM JACKSON, who departed this life May 25, 1956.

I miss you so much

Johnny, I miss you so dearly

As the years go by

Eight years have been so lonesome without you. But I took away

From you in the sweet bye and bye.

Devoted Wife,

MARY JACKSON.

LIVELY — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOSEPH A., who passed away May 22, 1952.

I've missed the sound of your footsteps,

And your voice since you have gone;

And though I no longer see you,

In my mind you still live on.

And so I shall in the future,

But some nights my heart is sore.

Yes I'll meet the dear one I took away.

To life's portant and Golden shore.

Loving Wife, CLARA

LIVELY — In loving memory of our dear brother, JOSEPH A., who passed away May 22, 1952.

You're not forgotten, Brother dear,

Nor ever shall be

As long as life and memory last,

We shall remember you.

Loving Sister and Brother-in-law,

LOUISE AND ALBERT EPPS.

MURRAY — In loving memory of our dear mother, MARIA L. MURRAY, who passed away May 22, 1955.

The memory of you dear mother

Time can never part

Is like a soothing balm

To my broken hearts

Loving Daughter, EDMOND LEWIS MURRAY, ROSETTA SAMPLE, WILLIE MURRAY, Granddaughter, CHARLOTTE MURRAY and NIECES.

PURVEY — In loving memory of our dear father, THOMAS (TINEYHILL), who passed away May 25, 1956.

Sleep on, dear father, our thoughts,

You are there

Where we go;

Always in our hearts, dear Father,

Because we love you so.

Loving Children, BESNICE A. BUTLER, IDA M. POINDEXTER, LEROY B. PURVEY, MADISON R. PURVEY.

THOMPSON — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, NOLEAN W., who passed away two years ago, May 27, 1955.

Shed a tear and sigh a prayer,

Dear in our hearts lies a picture

Of a wonderful husband and father laid to rest.

For each of us you did your best

In memory's frame we shall keep

Dear

We miss you now, our hearts are sore

As time goes by, we miss you more

Your loving smile, your gentle face

No one can fill your vacant place.

Loving Wife, DAISY THOMPSON, and Sons, JOHN A., NORMAN W. and GARY L.

YARBOROUGH — In loving memory of our son, FAY ALLEN YARBOROUGH, who passed away on May 22, 1946 in Munich, Germany.

A precious one from us has gone,

His voice is hushed and stilled,

His place is vacant in our home

Which can never be filled.

God doth His own in safety keep

He giveth His beloved sleep.

Loving Mother, STEPFATHER, GRANDPARENTS, and RELATIVES.
