Stranger strikes youngster in back, fined $50 by Koger

Charged with striking a four-year-old boy for no apparent reason, James C. Taylor, 2200 block Ellsmont St., was fined $50 in Northwestern Police Court on Sunday.

Testimony indicated that the child, Claud Barr, was playing outside his home in the 2600 block Brighton St., when Taylor walked by and struck him in the back.

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

By ELIZABETH MURPHY OLIVER

A Super flitting around the ringtom come that great day.

Methodist Conference says it's a June wedding for the Rev. N. B. Carrington, pastor of Union Memorial and secretary of the conference.

Bride elect is Miss Agnes Allen of the conference secretarial staff.

John J. Oliver, AFRO mechanical superintendent is to be best man, says Rev. Carrington.

WHAT ELSE is cooking up at Ames? Why, the AFRO's corn bread lady, Mrs. Fannie-Joe Reid is serving corn muffins for breakfast to over 700 delegates, ministers and wives and visitors.

Three meals a day include roast beef and ham with wine (?) sauce, I hear.

However, according to the host pastor, the Rev. F. J. Frye, Mrs. Reid is "ruining the folks" with her fine cooking. They may never eat at home again.

The exotic Mexican fruit salad was good.

* * *

MRS. VIVIANNE GRAY, missionary to Ghanga, Africa, which is 133 miles from Monrovia, has been there since 1948, is home on forlough, lives in Houston, Texas.

No one seems unhappy since all the secrets are out on Sunday's appointments. Plenty free and easy breathing.

Is Rev. C. A. Scott coming out of the West Baltimore district? If so, what other changes will ensue?

Dignitaries upon the Ames church scene Wednesday were Dr. L. Scott Allen, editor of the Christian Advocate, New Orleans;

And Dr. Charles F. Golden, associate secretary of the Board of Mission, New York; the Rev. Daniel G. Hill, Dean of Howard U. chapel; Dr. Harry B. Richardson, president of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta.

* * *

METHODIST MINISTERS' widows present were Mrs. Mamie F. Thomas widow of the Rev. R. W. S. Thomas, Baltimore; Mrs. Robert Moton Williams, D.C.; Mrs. W. H. Dean, Baltimore, and Mrs. R. F. Coates.

Bishop Love's high command (cabinet) includes district superintendents: the Revs. Extra Williams, N. Baltimore district; Christopher A. Scott, West Baltimore District;

And, Kelly Jackson, Washington district; E. P. Clark, Charleston W. Va., district; Edgar A. Hall, Va., district and J. Lloyd Garrison, South Baltimore district.

The Rev. Mr. Daniel Ridout, although secretary to Bishop Love, is technically a member of the Delware Conference. He and his bride were up Philadelphia last week for the Delaware Conference.

* * *

DR. WILLA B. PLAYER, Bennett College president, smartly dressed, dining at the YW with Rev. and Mrs. Julius Carroll.

Dr. Player is house guest of the Rev. Howard Cornishes during her stay here.

The Rev. Julius Carroll was named precentor (head of conference music).

Ames Church Boy and Sea Scouts directed traffic, helped out-of-towners around. Polite little fellows.

Did the mid-night shampoo party carry out the threat to wash blue hair back to its natural gray shade ere the end of the staid conference?

Word is that Mrs. Juanita Mitchell has resigned as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Sharp Street Church Community House.

* * *

CROSSTOWN AT Whitestone Baptist:

Baptist convention leaders expressed a note of sadness in that illness kept away staunch members, the Revs. Baxter L. Matthews, Union pastor; C. E. Browne, Memorial minister, and M. W. Wilkerson of Zion.

The Rev. Marcus Garvey Wood's refusal to leave his Providence flock is still the talk. He could have been Religious secretary of the national NAACP, remember? The Rev. J. L. Tilley was cited by his co-workers for his vote-campaign work, while the Rev. W. L. Clayton will receive a doctorate honorarium in June from Va. Seminary.

The Rev. Isaac Williams of Mt. Pleasant which takes up a whole block, was congratulated for the church's unusual progress; and the Rev. Walter E. Paige received citations for the renovating his church and the installation of the $25,000 air conditioning system.

* * *

THE REV. A. J. PAYNE, although chairman of the nominating committee, is not on the present roster of officers this term, however he heads a very important committee—the one which proposes to unite the Maryland Baptist Convention (now under the presidency of the Rev. J. R. Butler of Mt. Sinai) and the United Baptist Missionary Convention (whose president of seven years has been the Rev. Tim Boddie.)

The committee is to meet with the Rev. Butler, are the United Baptist convention disbands today.

Baptists mourned deceased members: the Rev. E. A. Jordan formerly of Ebenezer, who died Sept., 1956, and Dr. Miles W. Connor, staunch member of Sharon.

* * *

IN THE Baker and Longwood St. area where the Baptists are meeting, flashy high priced cars contrasted with the modest, economy line displayed around Carey and Baker Sts. in the vicinity of the Methodist Conference.

Baptist Big Ten includes the Revs. M. G. Wood, A. J. Payne, Luke G. Reynolds, R. M. Williams, N. H. Wicks, Walker E. Paige, Tim Boddie, C. H. Churn, Isaac Williams and J. L. Tilley.

Thursday's inspirational message at Women's Conference came from the eloquent Rev. James Everett, pastor of New Shiloh in Turner Station.

The Pauline L. Wharton Girls Choir from Dunbar under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Williams made a hit, as did Faith Baptist's carol choir, and Wayland's Young People's choir.

Miss Mary Fields is charming president of the Baptist Young People's department, while Mrs. Evelyn Clayton is president of the Women's Convention.

Boys' story worth 6 years for defendant

"Now Keene, here is a woman who engages in honest work to support herself, and from what I gather you've done nothing but avoid taking care of your wife and children."

With this admonition Friday Judge S. Ralph Warnken imposed Penitentiary terms totaling six and a half years on Charles Herbert Spencer Keene, 30, 600 block W. Franklin St.

Mr. Keene was convicted of burglarizing the home of Mrs. Bertha Dudley, 1013 W. Lanvale St., for which he received five years, but pleaded guilty to non-support of his wife and two children and received an additional 18 month.

John Weiss, prosecutor, said Mr. Keene was arrested the day after the burglary when two boys notified police they saw Mr. Keene removing merchandise from the W. Lanvale St. home.

Beats jail in tavern brawl with officer

"I'm frank to say I was going to send him to jail for six months. The only thing that gives me pause is that he is supporting his mother and sisters."

With this observation on Tuesday Judge S. Ralph Warnken imposed a one-year suspended sentence on Floyd Mosely, 26, 1200 block Chatham St., and placed him on probation for two years.

Mr. Mosely was convicted of assaulting Special Officer John Chapple, 818 N. Bond St., during a brawl on May 4 at a tavern in the 1500 block Ashland Ave.

* * *

MR. MOSELY, who denied inflicting a stab wound in Mr. Chapple's back, said he supports his mother, Mrs. Nannie Mosely, and three young sisters.

GRENADES SOUGHT

A search for a box of hand grenades reported taken from a Pennsylvania Railroad box car at Haven and Lombard Sts., and scheduled for delivery to the Marine Corps, was launched Thursday morning by police.

Heywood to get award at 'Hokus Pokus' show

Eddie Heywood, pianist-composer, whose "Canadian Sunset" was a top seller last year, an award for the song hit.

His appearance will be in conjunction with the premiere performance of "Hokus Pokus," a song and dance fantasy performed by the Bernice Hammond School of Dance.

Miss Hammond, veteran creative dancer, will play the lead role with her two sons co-starring in prominent supporting roles.

ONE SON, Freddie, 3, will play the part of a youngster too young to read and persuades his older brother to take him into the land of make-believe.

He does this by getting the older brother to tell stories in which the mother and many others perform as fairies in a dazzling array of costumes and gay assortment of original songs.

The costumes and choreography are a Hammond creation as is the entire script for the fantasy.
