Grandmother wins Norge range at AFRO home show

A stroke of luck brought happiness to a youthful looking grandmother at the opening session of the AFRO's 27th Home Service Show Wednesday night at the Coliseum.

As she was about to leave the auditorium with the idea that she had lost the chance to win a Norge Gas Range, Mrs. Lillian A. Monroe, St., was declared the winner after a previously announced winner proclaimed "I'm single."

The contest for the grand prize, open only to married women, reached its climax when through a misunderstanding, Miss Margaret Bailey of 1206 Etting St., answered when her number was pulled from a box containing five cards.

After advising the AFRO's Advertising department head D. Arnett Murphy that she was a Miss and not a Mrs., a second card was drawn.

MRS. MERRITT answered to the No. 2327 and screamed with delight when she was declared the winner.

Her first words, after gaining composure were: "I can't believe it. I just can't.

"I'm so happy I don't know what to do."

When accompanied to the stage by her granddaughter, Miss Lillian Brooks, a freshman at Morgan State College, Mrs. Merritt stated if her prize and finally said," I was hoping it would be me."

Sharing in her grandmother's joy, Miss Brooks said:

"When the first number was called, I said: It's too bad mother couldn't win it.

"During the drawing she kept saying, 'I hope its me,' I told her, 'Mama, at least your number is in the box."

MRS. MERRITT, whose home is across the street from the Coliseum said she was so happy that she could put the stove on her back and carry it home.

"I really got what I needed she stated:

"I haven't baked in over a year because the door on my oven has been broken. I could only use the burners.

"Last week I told my husband that we had to get a stove.

"He will be surprised when he comes home. He works at the Signal Depot in Tobyhanna, Pa., and is only home on week ends."

[illegible] HAVE been going to the AFRO Cooking School all dressed up every year and never won anything," Mrs. Merritt added.

"This time I went to the school from work and didn't bother to dress up and look what happened! They even pinned an orchid on me."

She is the mother of Benjamin C. and Melvin O. Brooks, and is the grand-mother of four.

Her husband is Bernard Brooks.

APPROXIMATELY 2,000 first nighters turned out for the Cooking School which featured the preparation of tasty-tempting dishes by the AFRO's Jean Harris.

The demonstration showed how dishes could be prepared on the most up-to-date kitchen equipment.

Merchandise was displayed at the show by the Wilkins Rogers Milling Co. of Washington, Flour; Schmidt Baking Co., makers of Blue Ribbon Rolls; the Gunther Brewing Co., makers of National Bohemian.

Other merchants with exhibits at the school included the William J. Schlaberitz Co., makers of Eskay Products; the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. the Kronheim Co., distributors for Old Crow; the Exchange Furniture Co., Gas and Electric Co; Marvel Cash and Credit Co.; and Pet Milk Co.

Also Koester Bakery, Western Maryland Dairy; Madera Wine; Carnation Milk Co.; Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co.; Mt. Zion Wine; Associated Improvement Co; Wright Baking Co; the Henry Checkett Co; and Beauty Queen Co.

who is just five months old.

This year's show attracted over 5,000 housewives and some husbands who came to watch food demonstrations by AFRO Demonstrator Jean Harris, to look at the products exhibited by advertisers, and to share the $5,000 in prizes.

Over 200 bags chocked full with food products of the advertisers participating in the show were given during the two-day event which opened Wednesday evening.

Winner of the grand prize at the opening show on Wednesday was Mrs. Lillian B. Merritt, 2226 N. Monroe St., who won the $500 Norge gas range.

Other winners at the closing show on Thursday evening included:

MRS. HOWARD STOKES, 1644 Fulton Ave., who won the American Kitchen Sink given by the Associated Home Improvement Co. She also won an orchid presented by the Orchid Shop.

Mrs. Stokes had been advised by her husband that Thursday would be her lucky day.

"My husband told me I would win something," she said.

"I have never won anything before."

Mrs. Stokes is a housewife and the mother of two married children.

One of the most exciting moments of the two-day show came when Mrs. Sarah R. Leslie, 2317 Reisterstown Road, won the glider from the Henry Checket Co., and the ROTO-Broiler 400, given by National Bohemian Beer.

"I am tickled to death," she said.

"I guess I am just lucky."

Her husband is in the army at Ft. Linwood, Mo.

Another top prize winner was Mrs. Edith Wise, 907 Somerset St. She was recepient of the one-year free beauty service prize, given by Beautyrama.

A total of 102 lucky persons were winners of AFRO food baskets and other attractive prizes at the Thursday matinee session of the AFRO's Home Show.

One of the top prizes of the afternoon wts a six months free beauty treatment at the Beauty Fashion Center, Edmondson and Fulton Aves. This was won by Miss Blanche Dickson, of 2819 Harlem Ave.

A $22.50 pressure cooker, given by the Henry W. Checkett Company, of 2340 Warwick Ave., went to George Angins, poolollice clerk, of 910 Rosedale St.

Three other men, Andrew R. Hall, of 1940 Riggs Hill Ave.; Lawrence R. Roane, of 2317 Reisterstown Rd., and Earl Jones, of Richwood Ave., were among the winners.

PRESENT AT the matinee session was a Home Economics class of 46 young women from the Molon High School in Eastern.

They came by special bus, accompanied by their instructors, Mrs. Elaine Dashiell and Mrs. Carrie Henson.

There where some lucky winners in the Molon High School group, also. Three young women won AFRO food baskets and two others won Coca-Cola family packages. They were: the Misses Cora Brummell, Dorothy Holliday, Bertha Potter, Sandra Thomas and Gwendolyn Gibson.

—Ideal mother

looked at the AFRO.

As she continued to talk, her eyes became misty and she wiped away a tear.

A longtime civil and church worker, 63-year-old Mrs. Jackson was picked by contest judges because she is a devoted mother, an outstanding business woman and nationally known for her contribution to progress in human affairs.

For 27 years she has been president of the Baltimore NAACP, one of the most active in the country.

CHATTERBOX THAT she is, Mrs. Jackson continued to talk. "I just can't believe I'm the AFRO's ideal mother. I just can't believe it," she repeated over and over again.

As she spoke, her husband of 42 years, Keiffer Jackson, sat proudly by her side.

Surrounding them, on the walls, the long library table and the old fashioned upright piano were many pictures of her husband, her three daughters, her son, and her nine grandchildren.

Bronze plaques, certificates of citation, diplomas and framed letters of congratulation also lined the walls.

Throughout the interview, Mrs. Jackson was frequently interrupted by phone calls from people congratulating her on her new honor. But there were also other calls.

AS THE PHONE rang, Mrs. Jackson was instantly there with a strong 'hello.'

Once it was the hospital. Someone there needed Mrs. Jackson and she said: "Don't worry, I'll be there."

The next time the phone rang, it was concerning a meeting. Mrs. Jackson replied: "I'll be there, you can depend on that."

The phone rang again some one needed help...and Mrs. Jackson said: "Don't worry. It will be all right. I will see what I can do."

Returning to her old fashioned chair, the wonderful lady who is one of Maryland's most distinguished citizens, folded her hands quietly and said:

"It warms my heart. You take up the phone and you find you can do something for someone. What they need most is love (she spelled it out: L-O-V-E) and to think I can do something, just warms my heart."

ESTEEMED as a great woman whom history will record as one who was a mother to her people, Mrs. Jackson has received numerous citations for her work.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery
Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were emboldened to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoidal conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or surgery of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold on a money-back guarantee or money refunded. *Tm. L.
