'Move your men up according to ability,' Com. Hepbron

"We cannot get as many recruits as we want. We will take every colored applicant who can pass the examination. You can rise on a basis of ability."

Police Commissioner James M. Hepbron was speaking Tuesday at the Frontiers' Luncheon. He further stated that in a recent discussion with district police captains he had clearly told them:

"I don't want to tell you how to run your districts, but you move your men up according to ability, regardless to race, creed or color. I see no colored men in radio cars; there must be some good ones."

DURING HIS talk, the Commissioner expressed alarm at the increase in the number of crimes committed by juveniles.

"You are just as dead if you are killed by a 15-year-old boy, as if you are killed by a seasoned thug who just got out of jail," he asserted.

"Murder, robbery, fraud, and rape," he spelled out as serious crimes committed by juveniles.

"Criminals don't spring full grown, except for crimes of passion," Commissioner Hepbron said, explaining that environment and home training have a lot to do in determining how a person reacts to temptations.

FOLLOWING HIS address, Frontiersman Howard Murphy asked: "When an officer serves a warrant in a neighborhood that seems to be respectable, is there any way a person can be spared the humiliation of riding in a paddy wagon?"

Commissioner Hepbron replied: "Once a warrant is issued—produce the body." He continued: "We have had some complaints about the hour at which warrants are served."

The commissioner admitted that 2 o'clock in the morning is not a justifiable hour to serve a warrant, unless the crime for which the warrant is being served is a serious one.

"Before a warrant is issued, the court has to have a lot of information," Commissioner Hepbron added.

REFERRING TO the police, Commissioner Hepbron added: "We are trying to teach these men to be understanding, courteous, efficient. The lot of a policeman is not a happy one.

"We are damned if we do, and damned if we don't."

In conclusion, Commissioner Hepbron invited the Frontiers to visit police headquarters and see first hand, how the Baltimore City Police Department operates.

"If you know of any good men who want to make police-ing a career, for Heaven's sake send them down; we certainly can use them," he pleaded.

Dr. Furman L. Templeton, executive secretary of the Baltimore Urban League, will be next week's speaker.
