Bears eye 9th CIAA track title

A strong contingent of thin clads from North Carolina arrived in the city Thursday with a mind to throw the first scare in almost a decade at the powerful Morgan State College track and field squad.

Comprised of athletes from Winston-Salem Teachers College, North Carolina College, A and T, etc., the Tarheel aggregation is aiming to topple the Golden Bears from a throne they have occupied for eight consecutive years.

It has been just that long that Morgan has dominated the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association cinder world, the championship renewal of which gets under way today (Friday) at the school's Hughes Stadium.

* * *

ACTUALLY, coach Eddie Hurt and his charges are not nearly as concerned over the challenge as the rest of the conference would like to believe. It is true that the Tarheel schools have strengthened considerably over the past two years and may make it closer than has been the case previously.

But there can be little doubt that the Bears are too deep to be uprooted.

WINSTON-SALEM surprised by winning the shuttle hurdle event at the Penn Relays. But the CIAA has no such event.

The best the Rams can hope for, then, is a win in the hurdles races. And Morgan hasn't been their chief contention in that test for the past three years.

Lee Calhoun, the Olympic King, poses the big obstacle for WST in the fence matches.

BETWEEN THEM, the Rams and Eagles can also offer competition for the Bears in the relays and, possibly, in the individual sprints. But the depth of the Hughmen in these events, plus their mastery in the high jump and other field contests, appears to signal doom for the invaders.

As the AFRO sees it, the Bears should pick up the team trophy again; Winston - Salem figures second, with North Carolina and Hampton, depending on the physical condition of injured Jennis White, battling it out for third.

Dunbar nine wins, loses MSA tests

Coach Sugar Cain's Dunbar High School baseball team staggered to an even break in games played this week when it won and lost in a pair of Maryland Scholastic Association contests.

On Monday, the Poets gained a 9-2 verdict over Carver at Clifton Park, but through no fault of their own. The following afternoon they dropped a squeaker to Patterson Park, 2-1, victimized by home runs.

DUNBAR followers must have considered their team lucky to gain a split, when it is revealed just how impotent was the attack of the Cainmen. Only seven hits were obtained in the two games.

Carver outhit the East Baltimore aggregation, two to one, collecting eight blows while the Poets were managing but four. However, Coach Sodie White's youngsters committed four big errors to seal their own fate.

* * *

THE PATTERSON battle was a hummer, but the home-run pitch proved the net downfall. Cain's ace righthander, Lawrence Smith, was reached for circuits in the first and sixth innings while his mates were being held to three safeties and one run.

Bill Karpowicz broke a 1-1 tie when he blasted a homer in the sixth. Previously, Dave Trail had homered in the first.

Poet thinclads top Forest Park

Track athletes of Dunbar High School ran out a 102½ to 83½ victory over Forest Park in a dual meet at Kirk Field on Monday afternoon.

Pinky McCready and Dick Howard paced the Poet triumph.

The former won the 100-yard dash in 11 seconds, and 220 in 25.4. Howard took the 440 in 55 seconds flat and repeated in the broad jump with a leap of 19 feet, 1 3/4 inches.

Balto. Giants meet Sox at Westport

Fresh from breaking even in their double-header of a week ago, the Baltimore Giants and Galesville Hot Sox tangle in a return engagement at Westport Park, Sunday afternoon.

The two rivals met last Sunday at Galesville, and the Giants captured the nightcap, 8-4, after losing, 9-5, in the opener.

The Mother's Day contest will get under way at 2 p.m.
