Alphas cut late dancers to eight tardy couples

with Lula Jones Garrett

When Frank Ellis (he's president of Delta Lambda Chapter) told me that town Alpha Phi Alphas were definitely going to get their guests in the Alcazar ere midnight, I just snickered.

For, with their long history of turning up at dances at one o'clock in the morning, I just knew that my fellow Baltimoreans weren't going to leave their cocktail bars that early.

But do you know that only eight couples turned up after the deadline?

With the exception of the fact that the dance was jammed as usual, the whole affair was lovely. From the spacious lounge downstairs, the dance floor which could be seen from the horseshoe balcony, to the bar which stayed crowded four deep,-I'd add that the Alphas did it again with another first.

And just to show that it can be done, there were so many cocktail parties ere the affair that you had to draw straws as to where to begin.

Went real early to the Joe Bracy's (he was dance chairman) and found a crowd there already, including the Charles Stallings, John DeCollins, Rox Harrisses, Sam Phillipses, William Bowies, Richard Perkinses, Simon Carters, Percival Smiths, George Woodlands, Marvin Davises, James Carters, and Cleota Minor.

After the dance, all of these went back to the Bracy's for breakfast.

There were any number of others who also hosted at cocktails prior to the dance and breakfast afterwards.

The Frank Venoys, Liston George and Orville Swafford, among them.

The R. G. Rinkeits held forth at a cocktail party, and a sumptuous breakfast at their new Leighton Ave home, with guests including:

Lois and George Gilbert, Clarice and George Parris, Lucretia and Adrian Datcher, Edwina and Lamar Quarles, Muriel and Vernon Roberts and Anita and Medford Pritchett of Washington.

Incidentally, Shirley is mighty radiant, these days. What gives Shirl, Ole Girl? What's the secret?

The Cliff Mackays took their guests on to Rossler's for breakfast following the dance. In their party were Charlette and Wesley McNeill, Louise and William Turks, Meribah and Leslie Ball, Miriam and Granville Winburne, Terrie and John Gilmore and Gertrude and Henry Norris.

And list among the cocktail givers the R. Clarke Davises, the E. Lloyd Davises, the Arthur Spencers, the Simon Carters and the Bruce Edenys, both latter couples also holding fouth at breakfast afterwards, the Nathan Pittses and the R. Grant Picketts.

Breakfast hosts included Sandale Harry Cole and the Robert Whites. And me thought that Frank Ellis and Brown Handy, who combined their hosting chores, were going to have to swing their breakfast party into a dinner one . . . guests lingered so long.

Incidentally, in their first inter-city get together, Alphas from Washington's Mu Lambda Chapter will be guests Monday night of Baltimore's Delta Lambda chapter at a smoker.

The affair will be held at the A-Phi-A oasis, 2209 Eutaw Pace.

Frank C. Ellis, Delta Lambda's president, says business will be kept at a minimum to grant the visiting brothers a longer time to fraternize.

SCORES OF guests filed down the receiving line in that loving tall-ceilinged pastel living room of the Chandler Wynns, Sunday, as the Eldtonia Beach Club honored the president of Coppin State Teachers College, Dr. Parlett L. Moore and Mrs. Moore at a reception, flower-filled rooms for refreshments and chatter.

In the line, in addition to the honorees were the Beach residents, Mesdames Wynn, charming in pale blue embroidered satin; Victorine Adams, whose beige frock with the intricate back treatment drew many an eye; Odeal Poulson, smart in brocaded beige with shoulders; and DorothyNeal, chic in print.

Mrs. Moore also wore print, in white and blue, and intricately draped.

Among those who called were:

Messrs. and Mesdames W. Charles Fletcher, Milton B. A. C. Hughes, Jr., William Russell, George Judge, Benjamin Mitchell, Walter Thomas, Alfred Chisholm, Herbert Smith, Jr., J. L. Underwood.

Messrs. and Mesdames Allen, Warren Morris, James Caul, J. R. Hargrove, Richard Peed, U. Theodore Hayes, Earl Bunn, Elmer Burgess, John Wilson, Alfred A. Dixon, N. P. Moore, Solomon Baylor.

Messrs. and Mesdames Robert McKinney, Mark Patterson, William Parrott, Charles Bennett, George A. Brown, Robert McAllister, Edward Wilkins, Elbert C. Moore, James M. McGlathern, George H. Carroll, John H. Rich.

Father and Mrs. Cedric Mills, Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Harris, Sr., Dr. and Mrs. Leon Monk.

Mesdames Ethel S. Davis, Josephine Rogers, Helen M. Bishop, Marion Selby, Grace Johnson, Selby Lewis, Gertrude Mosby, James Gaston, Martha L. McDonald, Audrey strothers, Mary T. Hayes.

Mesdames Pearl Stanley, Nicki Randolph, Fannie Howard, Lettie Dorsey, Paul Henderson, Howard Hucles, Ernestine Palmer, Evelyn Sampson, Alma Perry, Bernice Maith, Mesdames Jean Francis, Eulalia Stevenson, Elizabeth Mason, Sylvia Liner, John W. Marshall, Lillian Parrott, Susie Graham, Ruth Fortune, Theresa Henson.

Mesdames Frances Graves, Carl Murphy, Susie Moore, Evelyn Rose, Gladys Phillips, Beatrice Mayo, Mable Perkins, Serena Forehand, Rosalie McGuire.

Mesdames Lena Lee, Hattie Tilghman, Hazel Butler, Clarice Morris, Josephine Brown, Vilean Brown, Florence Thomas; Misses Laura Jones, Estelle Hill, Elaine Shoemaker, Florence Dennis, Geneva Hill; Clarence Roberts and Father Edwin Smith.

TALKING about snowballing growth, I remember Iota Chapter's (Lambda Kappa Mu) first champagne party, which the sorors had the audacity to call a "smoker," and which piqued the men no end. It barely filled the Blue Room of the York Hotel. So imagine the Famous Ballroom being packed to the hilt at this year's affair.

The Saturday "champagne sip" (they dropped the smoker designation) was very attractively done, with flower-filled tables, sparkling crystal and trays of hors d'oeuvres . . . and was a fitting background for the beautifully attired hostesses and guests.

Entertainment was superb. Susie B. Myles introduced Pearl M. Jackson (who wore a sparkling white frock shot with silver) who, in turn introduced Zerita Stepteau, who was mistress of ceremonies. Shirley Pinkett lifted her voice in popular songs.

Gwendolyn Biddie danced (her partner being James Green). They did a Cha-Cha, and afterwards a Calypso, accompanied by Joe Davis on the guitar. Jacqueline Johnson, accompanied by Ida Chisolm, was another soloist.

And other dancers included Edna Green, Zerita, and Martha Harden, the latter doing the chorus on the drums. Then there was Cornell Muldrow, who is currently appearing at the Casino, to sing.

Among the out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Skinner of Alexandria, Va., Peggy Hawthorne, D.C. attorney; Selena Welch, Ida Jordan and Mrs. John Luncy of Washington; Mrs. Olan Brown, Mrs. Onyria Watson and Warren Henry of New Jersey and Mesdames Emmie Parkins and Helen. Millie of Washington.

There were simply too many smart elsewhere to go into that, but Mrs. William Rosby was too stunning in that yellow print with floating back panel and black pill box hat to go unmentioned, as was Mrs. Jennie Williams in cadet blue with picture hat laden with pink roses.

And Mrs. Grace P. Bruce, looking as young as the youngest of her brood of nine — one of whom, Susie Myles, was chairman of the affair.

Lambda Sorority held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Soror Margaret Robinson.

Final plans were discussed for "Luncheon Is Served" to be held on Saturday, May 18, 12-30 p.m. at Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Church, Dolphin and Etting Streets.

A fashion show will also be presented by Pauline Brooks, fashion Salon. This Fashion Show luncheon is for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

Plans were also discussed for the celebration of Founder' Day on June 1 at which time a candlelight service will be held.

Sorors Margaret Robinson, Ruth M. Robinson, and Willie Mae Scott were hostesses for the meeting.

Members present were:

Soror Emma H. Brown, Mary Crump, Claudine Franks, Gladys McCoy, Ida Newton, Mildred Ayers, Evelyn D. Wilker, Jessie Nicholson, Odessa Howard;

Sorors Thelma B. Waters, Mary Ames, and Fannie B. Poulson.

THERE WILL be twelve girls from Time Pharatria participating in the Ideal Teenager Contest sponsored by the Epsilon Sigma Tetra Sorority which will close today, (Friday).

A dance to be held at Saint James Guild Hall, will climax the closing of the contest.

Participants include girls from various schools all over the city and the twelve girls in Time Pharatria.

These twelve members are Harriet Brown, Beverly Jackson, Carmen Boston, Donna Tyler, Paula Lawson, Wendy Parker, Gwendolyn Alston, Patricia Roberts, Delores Lewis, Lurline Young, Maxine Brooks, and Maxine Brown.

Chaperoning the affair will be Mesdames Cornelia Smith, Lucille Williams, Frances Gaines, Frances Lucas, Beatrice Jefferson, Muriel Marshall, and Josephine Brown of the sorority.

KAPPA Silhouettes skipped quickly through selecting officers, Wednesday night, and then turned the remainder of the evening to plain fun.

Guiding the affairs of the group during the next term will be:

Gwendolyn Brooks, as president; Lettie Woodland, vice president; Delores Augustus, corresponding secretary; Veneciedoa Kane, recording secretary; Joan Carr, financial secretary; Lydia Musserden, treasurer; and Ruth Glenn, hospitality chairman.

Others attending the meeting included Vivian Burnette, Gloria Carpenter, Jeanne Davis, Doris Goode, Sara Gray, Lavada Hobson, Phyllis Johnson, Betty Knight, Gwendolyn Lynch, Lillian McDonald, Bernice Nickens, Piney Ross, Vaolia Taliaferro, Helen Thornton, and Rosita Uncles.

LEAVE IT to the men to have a real good party.

When William Alexander, Jr. chalked up another birthday (his 26th) on Saturday, 'twas his dad who fetched a huge birthday cake to add to the honoree's favorite of southern fried chicken, potato salad, steamed shrimp and macaroni salad that had been set up in the Blue Room of the York Hotel.

Joining Mr. Alexander on the occasion were:

Shirley Gordon, Kathleen Wilson, Anna Jones, Mary Gordon, Barbara Hoofer,

Also Joan Carroll, Myrtle Thompson, Bernice Spruill, Gloria Ray, Sherleen Collier, Jeanne Byrd, Alfredia Vaughn, Cathrine Byrd, Mary Turner, Dorine Jones, Lillian Thaniels.

Also Calvin Thaniels, Charles Byrd, James Collier, Charles Simms, Joseph Wallace, Earnest H. Conway Jr., Otho Murphy, Nat Pollard, Edward Franklin.

Also Savoir Graham, John Osborne, William Hall, Irvin Blackwell, Clifton Turner, Mitchell Johnson, S. Alston, Rudolph Roles, William Brosby and Dosley Graham.

Cherry Hill High pupils fete teacher

A pleasant letter arrived this week from Mrs. Carrie D. Scott, homeroom teacher at the Cherry Hill Junior High School, Seamon Ave. and Cherry Hill Rd., Mrs. Scott wrote.

"One of the nicest things that has ever happened to me in my many years of teaching was a surprise party given me by my class, 8A 105.

"They donated, money, planned the activity and executed their plans in a most efficient and extremely secretive fashion. They had the classroom decorated with appropriate Easter clobs and napkins and served the most delicious of menus. The boys brought records and record players.

"I have never been so impressed with the management of any activity as I was with this one. So I want to thank them and their parents who must have shared in the planning, and all other interested persons.

"They even contacted my son, Lieut. Wilbert A. James and my daughter Mrs. Peggy Riddick to be guests along with the principal and her assistant, Miss Hermione Wharton and Mr. Cyrus Marshall Jr.

"I shall certainly remember that event —it was a lovely one and I'm deeply appreciative.

"THE PUPILS who worked so hard to make my afternoon pleasant were:

"William Kelly; James Snowden, James Ashe, Robert Baylor, Michael Wyche, David Moore, Joe Connor, Richard Faulk, Joseph Wallace, Harriett Bailey, Elizabeth Duvall, Dorothy Harris, Frances Harris, Audrey Allen.

"Aleather Singletary, Gaile Booker, Bertha Weems, Ophelia Goodman, Juanita Middleton, Virginia Middleton, Shirley Turrentine, Amelia Reeder, Amanda Scurry, Nancy Nelson, Gwendell James, Veronica Middleton, Virginia Neal, Barbara Owens, Martha Baker.
