WATKINS—A Mother's Day tribute to our dear Mother, LILIA, who departed this life, October 7, 1950:

Years of sacrifice, little of play.
Loving and giving, and smoothing the way.
Life is too short, mother, ever to pay.
Strong in adversity, ready to do.
Gentle, unselfish, a friend ever true.
Our proudest possession, dear mother, was you.

Her Devoted Daughters,

ALBERTA THOMAS,
GEORGIANNA SPENCER,
WILLIE MAE KNIGHT
THELMA JENNINGS

SUMMERVILLE — In loving memory of our dear mother, ESTELL, who died two years ago, May 6, 1955:

BLACK — In memory of our dear mother, SADIE, who passed October 15, 1956:

We saw you fading like a flower,

We nursed you with tender kindness
Until God called you away.
You fought the pain so bravely,
We heard you did not bend;
We kept the watch with you, dear Mother,
Yes, even to the end.
O, Mother, dear, we loved you,
And our hearts ache for you still;
Forgotten by some others,
But by us you never will.

LOVING SONS,
DAUGHTERS AND

GASKINS — In loving remembrance of our dear mother, LOVIE G. GASKINS, on Mother's Day.

We miss you today, Mother dear,
We miss your cheerful smiling face;

THORNTON—A tribute to our dearest, beloved Mother, MINNIE L., who for the first time is not with us on this Mother's Day:

"MY ALTAR"

JOHN H. STYLES, JR.

I have worshipped in churches and chapels
I have prayed in busy streets.
I have sought my God and have found Him
Where the waves of His ocean roll;
I have knelt in the silent forest
Where the leaves of some ancient tree,
Was raised at my Mother's knee.
I have listened to God in His temple,
I have caught His voice in the crowd
I have heard Him speak when the breakers
Are roaring long and loud;
Where the winds blared soft in the tree tops
My Father has spoken to me.
But I never have heard Him more clearly
Than I did at my Mother's knee.
The prayer in my life that are sacred
Were borne in my Mother's breast
Her teachings are always the magic
Of my own humble life expressed.
The years that have brought me
Have taken her away from me.
But memories keep me from drawing
Too far from my Mother's knee.
God, make me the child of her vision,
And purge me of selfishness,
Give me the love that used to be
Of standards
And help me to live to bless.
God, Hallow the Holy memories
Of the years that used to be
And keep me a pilgrim forever
To the chain at my Mother's knee.

Her Loving Children,
CLARENCE, EARL,
WILLIAM AND JAMES
THORNTON,
LILLIAN M. BATES,
MELVINA A. JACKSON.

ALSTON — A Mother's Day tribute to my beloved mother, ELLA ALSTON, who departed this life on July 19, 1954:

I miss you today, Mother, dear,
Your memory to me is a keepsake
With which I shall never part.
Tho' God has you in His keeping,
I still have you in my heart.

Your Devoted Daughter,
MRS. EDNA CHISLEY.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF MOTHER

MAJOR—A Mother's Day tribute to MRS. ARINTHIA MAJOR, who departed this life April 20, 1949:

New York City.

PRICE—In loving memory of our dear mother, ANNA D., who passed away five years ago, May 3, 1952:

Your memory to us is a keepsake,

We still have you in our hearts.

DEVOTED CHILDREN
AND GRANDCHILDREN

WALKER — A Mother's Day tribute to our beloved Mother, MRS. VIRGINIA LOVE WALKER, who departed this life November 21, 1929:

Why did she go, when life seemed fair,
And no dark clouds were near
To dim the brightness of our lives,
Or stain the bitter tear?
We thought not at the close of day,
When night veiled earth and sky,
That one so full of life and hope
Would breathe her last goodbye.

Although you have departed this life,
We feel that you are still with us;
Knowing that you are with God
Makes us so happy as we shall ever be.

KING—A Tribute to our beloved wife and mother, DAISY B., who departed this life, May 14, 1954:

Years of sacrifice, little of play,
Loving and giving and smoothing the way.
Life is too short, wife and mother, ever to pay.
Strong in adversity, ready to do,
Gentle, unselfish, a friend ever true.
Our proudest possession, dear wife and mother, was you.

DEVOTED HUSBAND,
REV. F. F. KING,
CHILDREN—
HERSHONE, DAISY,
IMOGENE and FRANCIS.

ALLEN—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, OTELIA, who passed away November 8, 1954:

We saw you fading like a flower,
But could not make you stay;
We nursed you with tender kindness
Until God called you away.
Oh, Mother dear, we love you,
And our hearts ache for you still;
Forgotten by some others,
But by us you never will.

HUSBAND,
THREE DAUGHTERS,
SON and GRANDCHILDREN.

LUCAS—A Mother's Day tribute to our dear mother, SARAH R. LUCAS:

When a Mother breathes her last farewell,
The stroke means more than tongue can tell,
The world seems quite another place
Without the smile of Mother's face.

TURNER
A Mother's Day tribute to our dear Mother, SUSIE TURNER:

We do not forget you, nor do we intend,
We think of you often, and will to the end;
Gone and forgotten by some
But dear to our memory you ever will be.

DAUGHTERS, SONS, AND SISTERS

SMITH — WRIGHT
In loving memory of our beloved Mothers,
ALVERTA SMITH and MARY E. WRIGHT
ON MOTHER'S DAY
To those who have a Mother,
Tender her with care;
For you do not know her value
Until you see her vacant chair.

JONES—In loving memory of our mother, ANITA (HARDEN) JONES, who entered eternal rest, August 18, 1956:

We think of you with all our love
And wish that you were here;
But our hearts grow less sad
Knowing you are above,
Mother, dear,
You will always have our love.

YOUR CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN.

Mr. Blue, who lived alone, was 102 years old. For 80 years he had been a member of Orchard Street Methodist Church.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Sunday in the home where just four weeks ago this past Sunday he took communion.

Burial was in Mt. Calvary Cemetery. On April 28 friends missed Mr. Blue from his pew for the first time in many years. Upon inquiry they found he was not feeling well and he explained that he had been ailing about a year.

DESPITE HIS declining physical condition, Mr. Blue worked at his part-time job as a janitor at Hopkins in the Lexington Market until April 22.

He was born August 3, 1855 in Chester County, Pa., the only son of free parents, and was educated by a Quaker family.

Mr. Blue was the last survivor of a line of a family with longevity. His mother died at the age of 111 and his grandmother at the age of 112.

On his 100th birthday, August 3, 1955, Mr. Blue was given a birthday party by the Lexington Market Authority which presented him with a cake and a purse.

In August, 1956, his 101st birthday, his friends repeated the party and had planned for the 102nd birthday celebration this coming August.
