NEW HAIR GLORY AS SCALP IS IMPROVED

New Medicated Formula of Advanced Sulfur-8 Works "Miracles" Both Ways

A Magnificent Head of Hair. Sulfur-8 actually brings out soft new hair beauty with deep lustre and longer, healthier, richer appearance. Important experts know why the new, enhanced Sulfur-8 can do so much to build up the glory of even the most measly scalp and how soon it begins to reveal its true, full natural length . . . so silky-smooth and radiantly lovely.

SCALP AWAKENED by new scientific stimulation of Sulfur-8, is invigorated to feel more alive and germs that often aggravate scalp trouble itching. See how your scalp thrives on Sulfur-8!

NEW SCIENTIFIC MEDICATION, now in Sulfur-8, combats surface germs that often aggravate scalp problems. Only Sulfur-8 has that great secret formula, powered with special scientific sulfur.

HAIR TOO SHORT? When brittle, dry strands keep cracking off, and frizzy split ends make it look even shorter, that new, penetrating sulfur-lanolin formula can help redeem the glory of your hair.

A MARVELOUS DIFFERENCE! Her hair now glows with magnetic new charm, and looks so much softer, silkier and longer, thanks to the beauty-action of enriched Sulfur-8, with that new luxury fragrance.*

Millions Now Know, something wonderful happens when you give Sulfur-8 Hair and Scalp Conditioner a real chance to work.

ington. Special guest at the luncheon will include Miss Joan Coles, a June graduate of St. John's College in Annapolis, and Miss Anne Bomar, a student leader who was dismissed from South Carolina State College because of her is now a student at Morgan State College.

A puppet show is planned for the entertainment of the young daughters present.

Mrs. Sallie Fletcher heads the May Week Committee, of which the luncheon is a part of the program. Mrs. Vivian Washington is president of the chapter.

ELIZABETH TELLEY invited a few friends in Saturday, for coffee with two who were to have been her holiday house guests; Josephine Walker, Cleveland, Ohio attorney, and Naomi Carter, widow of Justin Carter, attorney.

But came Saturday Mrs. Walker was downed with an ear infection, and believe it or not, Mrs. Carter was tucked in Poly Clinic, Harrisburg, Pa., having undergone emergency surgery.

Despite the unwelcome news of the illness, the Baltimorean spent a lovely and relaxing evening in Mrs. Telley's Alto Road home, returning again and again to fill plates with the delicacies from the flower-bedecked table and coffee from the magnificent silver service over which Mrs. Leonard Underwood was presiding.

Thereabouts were Mesdames John Hall, Mary Jones, Marie Gibson, Mary Wilson of Philadelphia; who was house guest of Edna and Bill Stanford; Charles Hinton, Mrs. Mark Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Henson, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty Jr. and Mr. Stanford.

A WEDNESDAY AGO the Northwest Child Study Club had two parties—for their youngsters entertaining the one to 10-year-olds from three to five, and the 10 to 13-year-olds from six to nine in the evening.

The small children were quite dressed up in their holiday finery, boys in suits and bow ties and girls in frilly dresses for a real party.

Games were directed by Mrs. Anita Myers and she kept them busy the whole time. Movies were shown and party refreshments, souvenir balloons, were given to all.

Members and guests about for this party were:

Roderica Johns, Ann Smith, Richard Watson, Patricia Hayes, Charles Cephas Jr., Benjamin Phillips, Charles Woodland III, Gregory and Craig Johnson;

Stanley Freeman, Kirk Dungee, Lisa and Bonnie Randolph, Tanya Quille, John Clark, Harolyn Clark, Laverne Nicholson, Philathea Hall, Karen McGlothern, James Gittings, Candice Scott;

WHEN GRACE Patterson met Pearl Moulton and Mae F. James at the Club Tijuana on Friday she thought it was only for lunch before attending a movie.

Instead, 14 of Grace's friends were assembled for lunch and cocktails. Each had a gift for Grace's junior or uniorette, as the case may be, who is expected in June.

Grace was overwhelmed, but calmed down enough to enjoy the cocktails and lunch.

Looking very chic as well as enjoying themselves were Kisiah Lyles, Marion Stoakley, Maggie L. Goodrich, Frances L. Holloman, Lois Barnes, Phyllis Fowlkes, Helen Maxwell, Gloria Tucker,

Also Mary L. Carrington, Dolores Puryear, Lenora Johnson and Geraldine Brown.

YW counsellors wanted for camp

Three junior counsellor positions in the YWCA Day Camp program remain to be filled before opening day of camp according to Miss Cecile Willis, camp director.

Miss Willis said that girls 16 years old and older with skills in arts and crafts, nature lore, dramatics and sports would be considered for the three vacancies in this Red Feather Agency sponsored camp.

The day camp will be conducted at Central Branch, YWCA, Park and Franklin and Gwynns Falls Park beginning on June 24.

Cooking Is Fun

By FANNIE JOE REID

Fresh fruits add lively flavor to springtime menus. Feature them often as they become plentiful. Strawberry Blintzes star as a dessert with a continental air.

Mix your favorite griddle-cake batter a bit thinner than usual. Thinner batter makes a more delicate pancake.

Make the griddlecakes about 5 or 6 inches in diameter. Fill the middle third of each baked griddlecake with sweetened strawberries. Roll up, and tuck the ends under.

Spoon commercial sour cream over the Blintzes and garnish with additional sweetened strawberries.

FRESH strawberries give a lift to heretofore-seasons breakfasts. Their bright color and sparkling flavor perk up listless appetites.

Make your favorite recipe for quick coffee cake or make one from a package. After mixing, pouring the batter into the baking pan, spread the pan with 2 tablespoons of melted butter or margarine.

Sprinkle with ¼ cup sugar and arrange 2 cups sliced strawberries over the butter-sugar mixture. Then pour the toast cups.

IN ARLINGTON, Va., Mrs. Theo DeFebio, a Smith College graduate, poses with her three sons, left to right, Nicky, 9; Teddy, 14; and Carl, 4. Mrs. DeFebio has refused to sign the pupil placement applications, created by the Virginia Legislature last year as part of its plan to maintain segregated schools, and the Fairfax County school board has expelled her two oldest children from school.

batter over the strawberries. Remove from the pan immediately after taking the coffee cake from the oven.

STRAWBERRY Muffins provide a flavor flourish for spring salad luncheons. Add 1 cup crushed, sweetened strawberries to the egg and melted shortening in a basic muffin batter. Then pour the liquid ingredients into dry ingredients and stir only enough to moisten the flour. Fill muffins pans 2/3 full and bake.

TODAY'S WISE homemaker doesn't waste food. To use hard-cooked eggs left from Easter, cream them and serve in individual muffin rings.

Served in golden-brown toast cups, Eggs-in-Mislard Sauce make an attractive and satisfying luncheon dish. To make toast cups, trim crusts from slices of fresh enriched bread. Press gently into muffin pans and brush with melted butter or margarine. Bake until toast is lightly browned. When toast cups are baking, make Eggs-in-Mustard Sauce. Add about 2 teaspoons dry mustard to a creamy white sauce. Chop hard-cooked eggs and add to the mustard sauce. Heat thoroughly and pour over toast cups.

FRESH RHUBARB lends an appetizing tartness to springtime meals.

Cook 2 pounds rhubarb for about 2 minutes in ½ cup water until tender. Beat 3 egg yolks with ½ cup sugar until fluffy. Fold in cooked rhubarb.

Beat 3 egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually add ½ cup sugar and continue to beat until meringue holds stiff peaks. Fold into the fruit mixture.

Fill baked tart shells. Makes enough filling for 8 tarts.

If you're lucky enough to have ham left from dinner, Ham Tuck-Away will help you extend its richness to the last flavorful bite:

To ½ pound ground cooked ham, add ¼ cup cooked tomatoes, 1 egg, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, ½ teaspoon dry mustard and 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Spread this mixture into an 8-inch square baking dish which has been lined with a basic drop biscuit dough.

Drop additional biscuit dough on top of meat mixture and bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 35 to 40 minutes.

Mother Tests Law

ARLINGTON, Va. — Virginia's school placement law, part of a group of laws enacted by the legislature last year to maintain school segregation, headed for its first test this week.

The new law, which requires all new pupils entering the Va. school system to fill out placement applications, is generally viewed as a device to keep the races separate, although school officials decline comment on the subject.

A deadline for the signing and returning of the placement application within 15 days from its receipt by the parent has been set by the state's three-man placement board.

IF IT IS not returned within this time, registrations call for expulsion of the pupil.

Unexpectedly, the first parent to challenge the placement law turned out to be not of one of the colored pupils whom the state seeks to keep out of "white" schools, but the two sons of a Fairfax County white woman cabdriver.

Mrs. Theo T. DeFebio, a Smith College graduate, enrolled her two boys, Nicky and Teddy, in Fairfax schools on Jan. 18, two weeks after the placement law went into effect.

AS A RESULT of her refusal to sign the placement applications, Nicky, nine, was expelled from the Hollins Hills Elementary School on Wednesday. Teddy, 14, was expelled from Mount Vernon High School two days later.

Mrs. DeFebio said that her refusal to sign the placement forms was "a matter of conscience and morals," and added:

"The purpose of this placement program is to deny to a segment of the American population the right to equal education. I didn't object to putting my sons into segregated schools, but I object to being pressured by the South into going along with their views."

Six nations now know Freddie Hill

Last year they called Freddie, Emily Myra Hill "the sweetheart of the Morgan State College campus."

This year she's the "sweetheart" of people in six foreign countries.

And how did such a situation come about in a year—well the answer is
