CHERRY HILL CENTER

Emblems For Girls — The Gay Companions, one of the women's groups at the Cherry Hill Center, have purchased awards to be given to girls participating in athletics. A girl who has earned 250 points will receive an emblem.

Those earning 500 points will receive a letter. The name of the athletic organization for girls is known as the Hilltoppers.

The Emblem has the name "Hilltoppers" and "Cherry Hill Center" on it. Girls may sew the emblem on a sweater or jacket.

The earned letter is a large "H" standing for Hilltoppers and may be worn on a sweater or jacket.

The Second Annual Club Conference will be held at Cherry Hill Community Center on Tuesday, April 30, beginning with a club supper at 6:30 p.m. The conference is being planned for women and teen-age girls.

Letters have been sent to clubs; groups who did not receive communications on the conference are invited to contact Mrs. Lucile Sharp or Mrs. A. W. Parham at the Community Center.

THE MAJORETTES are progressing rapidly in their preparation for the parade in which they will take part at the opening of the ball season in Cherry Hill on April 25.

General practice for girls playing softball is being held each Monday afternoon 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Practice began on Monday, April 1.

There are two groups of girls who are a part of the charm club. During the past two weeks, group No. 2 has been learning the fundamentals of the modern dance and waltz-ing.

Group 2 has been studying about skin care, arrangement and care of the hair, clothing for different occasions, and the control of the voice and gestures and how these are all related in making a pleasing personality.

The ages of the girls in this group are 12, 13, and 14 years. Group 1 included in their study posture, how to walk properly, sit and stand in a manner that adds charm to one's personality.

THE LITTLE Homemakers Club, ages 9, 10 and 11 years are working hard making favors and invitations for a supper to which their parents will be guests on Wednesday, April 17.

During four interesting periods of work, the Hobby Club and the Craft Club completed their project of making kites. The Hobby Club meets on Monday and the Craft Club meets on Friday, ages 9-11 years.

The kites were completed in March. The kites ranged from 12½ inches to three feet in height. Each boy painted his favorite design on his kite. Once completed, the kites had to make a test flight.

Only two were successful in surviving the elements and the hazards of weather conditions. Boys who constructed kites were: Chris Campbell, James Myrick, Brenford Young, John Coates, Larry Smith, Nathaniel Smith, Calvin Goynes, Albert Diggs, and Michael Rawling. Clarence Willis, Bureau of Recreation staff member, worked with this group.

Carver-Easterwood

As part of the observance of Community Services Week, Easterwood "Held" a Doll Show. Thirty dolls were entered by contestants, six through 12 years of age.

Winner of the showing contest was Virginia Miles, who exhibited a tall, stately brown paper doll which took prizes for the most original doll, ugliest doll, and funniest doll.

Estella Spears won the second highest honors with the most dolls and the largest doll. Brenda McKella had the "best dressed" doll; Joan Dorsey, oldest doll; Ann Best, heaviest doll; Thelma Dyson, most unusual doll; Joan Dyson, smallest doll; Marian Vaughn, tackiest doll; Patricia Kelly, fanciest doll; Roberta Pope, most beautiful doll.

Other participants were: Patricia Walker and Ann Best. The judging was done by three men, who did quite well in that capacity. They were Mr. Martin, Mr. Chandler, and Mr. Jennifer.

THE THIRD annual Mother-Daughter banquet at Somerset Homes went over with a bang on Thursday, March 28.

Mrs. Mae K. Falkes, former supervisor in the East Baltimore area, was the speaker.

The program included numbers by the Somerset Homes Rhythm Band, under the direction of Mrs. Alice Caster. The dance group, directed by Miss Mary Lockhart, performed. Corsages were presented to the youngest mother, Mrs. Owens; the oldest mother, and to Mrs. O. Jones, who had five daughters present.

Certificates of honor were presented to three persons in the community for outstanding services in the area over the past three years. They are Mrs. L. Grinage, Mrs. H. Harrison and Mrs. O. Jones.

A FASHION show was held at Lafayette Courts Center on Thursday. The show featured party, evening and sports wear for teenagers. Also modeled were clothes by little tots for sports and party occasions.

The following individuals participated in the fashion show:

G. Lancaster, R. Blackburn, T. Stinneth, E. Farube, D. Curlier, B. Mooring, F. Rivers, A. Brown, Y. Waller, J. Wallace, B. Tinker, G. Shirrill, P. Johnson, C. Williams, S. Berry, E. Jones, R. Wallace;

W. Thomas, B. Ash, B. Humber, A. Ebb, L. Pollett, H. Pollett, E. Rivers, H. Brown, M. Brown, Mary L. Brown, M. Crapper, M. Blackburn, E. Tunage, R. Washington;

Also B. Fortune, J. Fost, C. Wallace, R. Watts, William Watts, W. Lewis, J. Gladden, S. Price, J. Gaylord, S. Henneycutt, M. Henaycutt, C. Cherry, C. Mooring, M. Mooring, P. Pollett, U. Cain, H. Casar, L. Jones, G. Wilker, V. Gross, D. Williams, R. Kilpatrick, and M. Terry.

Song and dance numbers were performed by Gloria Lancaster, Ernestine Rivers, Helen Brown, Beradine Haber, Ann Brown, Carolyn Williams, Bernice Williams, Alice Ebb, Leonard Pierce and Jean Gaylord. John Gladden sang a solo.

The fashion show was under the direction of Miss Carlene Ribers, who was assisted by Miss Classie Doyle, and Miss Delano Bryant, students at Morgan State College.

EACH MONDAY and Wednesday evening, there is a pinochle class at Carter Woodson Center for the junior and senior members. A Morgan student, James Green, is in charge.

Among students enrolled in the classes are Valeria Bennet, Barbara Henderson, Beverly Carter, Lois Goins, Ann Holt, Louise McFadden, Ruth Fullon, Joseph Small, Reba Lewis, Laura Williams, Arthur Johnson, Lee Turner, Theresa Clark, Ronald Francis, John Bland and William Scott.

Three other Morgan College students assigned in connection with participation at the Woodson center, each of whom is doing a splendid job. Miss Carter and Miss Stone are working with the younger group with new games and dancing.

George Dennis is with the larger group and will be placing emphasis on track and field.

On March 28, there was a play-off for the Midget Cherry Hill League champs, the final score was 44 for the Trotters and 14 for the Dodgers.

AL teams expected to ask hotels here to house all their players

By SAM LACY
AFRO Sports Editor

W. PALM BEACH, Fla. — The Kansas City Athletics are expected to join the Chicago White Sox in the move to seek the elimination of jim-crowism in Baltimore hotels.

Third baseman Hector Lopez told the AFRO early this week that he plans to ask Joe Di Maestri, the Kansas City team's player representative, to urge the owners to act in the Baltimore situation.

Baltimore is the only city with a major league franchise that discriminates in its hotels against the colored players of visiting clubs.

The Emerson and the Lord Baltimore, which house American League teams during the season, refuse to admit any but the white athletes and officials.

LAST WEEK, Sherm Lollar, player representative of the White Sox, became the first to pledge action before the players' grievance committee.

He told the AFRO in Tampa that he would ask the group to suggest to the owners that they explore the matter and try to remedy it.

Lollar represents Larry Doby Minnie Minoso and Earl Battey, along with other Chicago players.

Harry Simpson, Vic Power and Curt Roberts are expected to join Lopez in his talks with Di Maestri.

'A narrow escape,' erring youth warned by Koger

"This is a narrow escape. You should never serve these 60 days. Your business is to avoid trouble."

This was the advice Magistrate Linwood G. Koger Sr. gave Tuesday in Northwestern Police Court to 18-year-old Robert Clark, 600 block Greenswillow St., who along with a 17-year-old companion was charged with larceny of two pairs of men's slacks from a car parked in the vicinity of Vincent and Pitcairn streets.

Joseph Leggett, 17, 700 block Sterling St. was sentenced to 30 days in jail on the same charge. Clark was fined $25 and placed on probation for six months.

Miss Gloria Campbell, 1300 block Gilmor St., who witnessed the larceny and called the police testified: that Leggett, I "went in and got the pants."

The Clark boy, who had the pants when arrested said that Leggett had given them to him and that he thought they were from the cleaners.

"Go and seek some other companion," Magistrate Koger told young Clark.

IN ANOTHER case, James Walker, 21, 2800 block Harlem Ave., was held in $5,000 bail for grand jury action, on charges of breaking into a barber shop in the 500 block E. Pratt St. and stealing $35 worth of property and of larceny of photographic equipment and clothing from a car parked on Hamilton St. Robert Rawlings, 31 500 block Oxford St. was held in $3,000 bail for grand jury action on charges of breaking into a tavern in the 500 block Oxford St. and stealing $240 worth of equipment and with disorderly conduct.

Negro American League set to meet in Memphis

CHICAGO—The Negro American League will meet in Memphis next Friday (April 12) to map out this season's schedule and to consider the petitions of two clubs for membership.

At a meeting in Memphis this month, Willie Davis and Jim Turner, respective owners of clubs in Mobile, Ala., and Jacksonville, Fla., applied for franchise in the league.

THE LOOP has been operating since 1944 with only four members—Kansas City Monarchs, Memphis Red Sox, Birmingham Black Barons and the Detroit Stars.

According to J. B. Martin, league president, Davis and Turner will attend the meeting at that time whether or not their applications has been accepted.

UNOFFICIAL REPORTS indicate that club owners are favorable to extending the loop to six members.

The team officially began spring practice the first of the month and will open the exhibition season two days after the league meeting.

BROOKS — In loving memory of my dear husband, GARRETT BROOKS, who passed away April 3, 1955.

The thought of you comes back today
With meaning deep and true
How much of joy
along life's way
You have been the cause of you.
Your memory to me is a keepsake
With which I'll part never Though God has given me life keeping,
I'll always have you in my heart.
