Montgomery passes law to ban interracial sports

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (ANP) — More segregation laws were on the time prohibiting interracial athletic participation came off the press of the City Commission last week as politicians here moved to keep sports white.

The latest addition to a series of recent bias bills forbids any athletic contest between white and colored players participating.

One official immediately declared that the new anti - mix order would ban a scheduled exhibition baseball game here, April 9-10 between the Kansas City Athletics and the Birmingham Barons.

The new law states:

"It shall be unlawful for white and colored patrons to play together in any game of cards, dice, dominoes, checkers, pool, billiards, softball, basketball, baseball, track, football, golf and at swimming pools, beaches, lakes or ponds . . . and at games of athletic contests either indoors or outdoors."

Redlegs 'sincere' in bid for Newcombe, Gabe Paul says

By SAM LACY
AFRO SPORTS EDITOR

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — The Cincinnati Redlegs were "positively" sincere in the offer they made for Don Newcombe last week.

That is the word of Gabe Paul, general manager of the Cincys, who appeared irritated by the question when it was put to him here Monday.

The Redleg boss was peeping over the upturned collar of his raincoat when approached by the AFRO just prior to the calling off of the washed-out exhibition with the St. Louis Cardinals.

* * *

SEVERAL COLUMNISTS had openly questioned the sincerity of the reported seven-player bid to the Dodgers for their ace righthander. Others had made snide references to the quality of the players in the Redlegs' package.

Would Paul care to comment on either or both?

"The same newspapermen," said the Cincy GM, "have been talking about how deep the Dodgers are in pitching. They've had it. Newcombe's arm is sore and that his attitude is more to (sore).

"If this is the situation in Brooklyn, why shouldn't we try to deal in an effort to improve our own pitching. We're willing to gamble on any player's condition, physical or mental, if we think he can help us.

* * *

"AS FOR the calibre of the players (Paul wouldn't verify the number involved), they are good men.

"It positively was a genuine offer."

Does Cincinnati still entertain hope of getting Newcombe?

"We offered over a quarter-million dollars for him in December," Paul said, obviously referring to the reported $300,000 bid last winter.

"That should clarify our desires.

"But aside from discussing deals which already have been discussed, I can't say more.

"If I did," Paul concluded, "it might be interpreted as tampering."

PHILADELPHIA

Folks in our town are all discussing the pros and cons whether or not John Kennedy, try-out shortstop with the Phillies will make the team.

Now ordinarily if Kennedy were trying out on any other ball club in the National League he would hardly rate a paragraph because he happens to be colored.

Jackie Robinson took care of that type of copy years ago when he was pioneering.

But not so in our town. Bob Carpenter, Roy Hamey, Mayo Smith and Co. still are trying to find a colored ball player who:

Hits like Hank Aaron, runs like Bill Bruton, fields and throws like Willie Mays, thinks like Roy Campanella, and has the durability of Don Newcombe.

John Kennedy is a natural shortstop. Contrary to anything you may hear otherwise, Kennedy has a strong arm; can run and hit consistently and has good movements in making the double play.

Rumor has it that the Phillies are still trying to make a deal for a seasoned shortstop. Could be true but we doubt this very seriously.

It is our belief that the Phillies, management has vacillated so long in obtaining a colored ball player—that they are afraid to let the fans in on their true feeling and intentions toward Kennedy.

Last Christmas, we wrote a letter to Santa asking him to give to us this year a colored ball player to represent the Phillies.

We are optimistic enough to believe Santa did not let us down.

We feel that come opening day of the baseball season—Kennedy will be playing a shortstop for the Phillies—and he is there to stay.

Remember also when Kennedy develops into a star—Billy Yancey found him. Billie is one of the best baseball scouts in the game.

Get ready for a hilarious afternoon of fun and laughter—plus some good basketball to boot.

On Sunday March 31st the one and only Goose Tatum will bring his Harlem Magicians here to play an all star College team composed of Hal Fear, Fred Cohen, Hal Reinfeld and others.

Coming along with Goose is Marques Haynes, world's greatest dribbler, Chuck Cooper and others.

Game will be played at the Arena, 46th and Market Sts. 3 p.m. This will be the first opportunity basketball fans will have to see Hal Fear play this season.

Hal, you know, is the former Temple All-American that could not make the Phila. Warriors (Ex-NBA champs) after being given a five minute tryout in seasonal competition.

He just set a new Eastern League scoring record, and against Sunbury scored a measley 66 points.

"Too little" said the Warriors. Jackie Moore has the opposite fault — too big, — we guess.

Three great guys are working like mad these days to make a huge success of their annual award banquet.

It's to be presented on Monday April 29th — 7:30 p.m. at the Jones Tabernacle AME Church 2017 Diamond St.

The affair is being sponsored by the North Phila. Federation of Older Boys Clubs.

Oh yes — the guys are Howard Johnny Green, and L. Hopewell.

Al Lewis, Grey Rogers, Ray Radenwiski are all in line for awards when the Big Shrine Basketball classic is held on April 5th at Penn's Palestra.

Remember the forward Phila. area college Seniors and the CIAA college Seniors.

Last year Will (Dippy) Chamberlain put in his appearance at this game—and efforts are now underway to get him here again.

North Carolina College, the Nation's No. 1 basketball team, lived up to all expectations in the Semi Finals of the N.C.A.A. tournament.

The entire team played like seasoned Pros. All the experts are picking North Carolina to win the tournament.

But not us— we have seen "Dippy" Chamberlain play since he was 13 years old and only 8 feet, 7 inches tall.

We predict Kansas to win the championship. We say any time old timers and "Dippy" could go all the way.

That's how high we rate our All American Will Chamberlain.

Injured leg keeps K.C.'s Simpson idle

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — A torn ligament in his right leg has sidelined Harry (Suitcase) Simpson for the past two weeks.

The slender slugger of the Kansas City Athletics was injured in a pregame drill before an exhibition with the Phillies at Clearwater, March 14. He is still in a foot and ankle cast and may not be available for at least another week.

Simpson hit .300 for the A's in 1955. Last year, his average dropped seven points to .293, but the long - legged Georgian set a new club mark for runs batted in (106) and for triples (11).—SAM LACY.

Hank Aaron back in Braves lineup

BRADENTON, Fla.—His injured ankle back to normal, Hank Aaron returned to the Milwaukee Braves in left field yesterday against the Cincinnati at Tampa.

Trainer Bob Feron told the AFRO here Monday that Aaron might have played at Petersburg on the weekend but it was deemed best to take no chances.

"Fred (Manager Fred Haney) and I discussed it," said Feron, "but when we realized he'd misjudge one game Friday, Sunday and Wednesday, we agreed it couldn't hurt to let him miss it."

THE BRAVES were scheduled to play their Wichita farm team in Wichita, Monday, with Tuesday an off day.

Aaron, the 1956 National League batting champion, turned his right ankle in the March 17 game here against Washington.

If was the same ankle he broke during the 1954 season — SAM LACY.

Underdog team wins Ill. prep cage title

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (ANP) — With 6'3" Ivan Jefferson expertly playing the backboards, the Herrin Tigers last Saturday won their first state high school basketball tournament, outdeuling favored Collinsville, 45-42, before 6,095 fans in the University of Illinois' Huff gymnasium here.

In winning the state crown, Herrin replaced Rockford West, last year's champion. But the Tigers had to fight an uphill battle to do it. They scored their first upset victory over play. Collinsville and Herrin previously unbeaten, were rated 1-2 favorites to win winning- 66-60, in quarter-final the state title.
