Lincolnettes win D.C. women championship

WASHINGTON

The Southeast Lincolnettes won the District women basketball championship for the fourth consecutive year by defeating Saint Martin Aces, 47-22, on the Cardozo Court, Tuesday night. Playing brilliant defense and offense, the Lincolnettes pulled away in the second half and led the game all the way.

Lincolnettes Gloria Williams hit 24 points, while Lois Delaney got 13 and Audrey Williams 10.

SINCE JOINING the D.C. Recreation League (unlimited) in 1953, the Lincolnettes have won four of the five championships they have entered.

To date, they have a record of 15 wins and one loss.

Coached by Earl (Ben) Wright, the Lincolnettes' lineup includes Gloria Williams, Lois Delaney, Audrey Williams, Bertha McCord, Evelyn Hamilton, Mignon Giles Bowie, Jeanette Taylor, Mary Merritt, Juanita Burke and Sneta Boston.

The team was organized in 1953 under Miss Helen T. Capers, then director of the Lafayette Playground, Sixth and Streets, SE.

March 29 the Lincolnettes will take a trip to Richmond, Va., to meet the Richmond Rocketettes on the Cardozo Court.

Morgan ROTC Rifle Team ranks second

The Morgan State College ROTC Rifle Team recently fired a score of 2,223 to finish second in the Maryland Military District ROTC rifle competition.

Other schools in the competition were: Johns Hopkins University, which placed first with 2,261 points; Loyola College, third, with 2,185; and Western Maryland College, fourth, with 2,120 points.

Teachers present award to Thurgood

NEW YORK — Thurgood Marshall, NAACP special counsel, has been awarded the John Dewey Award of the New York Teachers Guild in recognition of his "outstanding services in advancing American democracy."

Presentation of the award was made to Mr. Marshall in absentia on March 2 at a luncheon meeting of the teachers organization here.

The plaque was accepted for Mr. Marshall by John A. Morsell, assistant to NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins.

Baltimore boxer wins Army title

Cpl. Willie G. Barnes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Barnes, who reside at 1007 Poplar Grove St., was crowned U.S. Army flyweight champion after defeating Sherriedale Morgan of the Second Army during the finals of the 1957 All Army Boxing Tournament at Fort Campbell, Ky.

He won by a unanimous decision. Cpl. Barnes is stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky with the 101st Airborne Division.

Trotters to play here

Basketball's mighty Harlem Globetrotters return to the Opiseum on Saturday night, March 30. In their encore engagement, the celebrated cagers will take on the Philadelphia Sphas in another hoop program of cage spot and added attractions.

The Trotters have continued their unbroken win streak since their last appearance here and the Baltimore game winds up the sensational 1956-57 regular season. However, in facing the Sphas, the Trotters remember that it was the Philadelphia team which twice in recent years stopped the wards' win streaks after they had passed the 100 mark.

* * *

ON SUNDAY, March 31, in New York's Madison Square Garden, this same Trotters team will face the 1957 College All-Americans in the first game of the eighth annual basketball World Series, a cross-country tour of 21 games. To date the Trotters have not lost a series championship. Last year they won out, 11 games to 9.

Three stars from the Trotter farm clubs have showed up here are Tom (Tarzan) Spencer, 6-foot, 7-inch ace from Maryland State College in Princess Anne, Md., who has was the hero of the SHAPE quintet which won the Army's European tournament scoring 52 points in the Paris game; Charles (Tex) Hairston, a 6-3, North Carolina College of Durham and Henry A. Kean Jr., 6-3, Tennessee State University in Nashville.

They have been with the team since March 1—of course the Trotters still have Meadowlark Lemon, sensational comic; Leon Hillard, dribbling master; Capt. Clarence Wilson; Handy Andy Johnson; Wardrow Saddlebefty, Willie Gardner and Charley Hoxie.

The gala show at 8 p.m., is sponsored by the University of Maryland "M" club Benefit Grants and Aid Fund.

Soccer titles at stake in 2 games

League soccer championships in the Department of Recreation will be decided on Sunday, March 24, when unlimited teams play for the second place position and the juniors meet in the playoff for No. 81 League title.

The Juniors will get things under way at Canton at 11 a.m. when Pompei and Highland-town Exchange battle for No. 81 League championship.

In the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at Patterson-Ortman Field, the unlimited clubs will try to establish the second place team. This battle will be between Community Jewelers and Spikes.

Just Away
We know you would want the ones they leave
To grieve for them today:
We want not say that they are dead.
For they are just away,
Away upon a journey,
Up and land that's bright and fair;
And though we all do miss them here,
We know they're happy there.
And memories of them will bring,
New comfort every day
As we recall they are not dead
But they are just away.

LOVING CHILDREN
SISTERS AND BROTHER.

EVANS — In memory of THEODORE ROOSEVELT EVANS, SR. who departed this life on March 19, 1956:

His Devoted Wife,
BESSIE HARRIS
AND LOVING SISTER.

HUTCHINS — In loving memory of my dear mother, ELIZABETH, who passed away March 23, 1938:

The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair,
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile,
Of the one who once sat there.

Loving Daughter,
MRS. ESTELLA HUTCHINS SMITH.

PINDER — In loving memory of my dear husband, DRAPER, who passed away five years ago, March 21, 1952:

Take my hands when days are dark,
Comfort me when I cry
Walk with me in this weary life
Always by my side.
Someday, sometime my eyes shall see
The face I loved so well:
Someday I'll clasp your loving hand
And never say farewell.

Loving Wife,
