WARNING! BEWARE COUGHS THAT HANG ON FOLLOWING COLDS

A stubborn cough following a common cold may develop into chronic bronchitis—a condition far worse than the cold itself. Before it is too late relieve that cough with Creomulsion Cough Syrup right now. Creomulsion stops the tickle, comforts raw throat membranes, clears the breathing passages, fights the cause of irritation—quickly. It's safer, too, because it is free of narcotics or antihistamines. Don't let that cough break you down. Begin taking Creomulsion at once.

MRS. RUPERTA WATERS' mansion was the scene of the most recent meeting of the Northwest Child Study Club when she, co-hosting with Gloria Phillips, held forth at a session on Thursday.

Hellen Johns presided over the business portion, when they heard reports from chairmen.

Marjorie Chatman and Lucille Cephas gave plans for the Easter ball for two groups of children. Jimmy LaForest has arranged for floral arrangement demonstrations by George Washington. Alice Payne and Margaret Driver are completing plans for a splash party at the YMCA, this month.

And the whole aggregation was buzzing about the "gay party" they gave for their husbands recently.

The meeting was attended by the above, and also by Marguerite Sheffey, Mary Sprow, Anita Myers, Marion Myers and Florella Clark.

* * *

THEN TOO: there were a so of interesting little parties. Mrs Rose Davidson gave one for Mr Howard H. Murphy, at the latter's residence on the occasion of her birthday. Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames George James and William Murphy and Mrs. Grace Murphy.

Mrs. Alverta Boswell entertained at dinner in honor of the Rev. William L. Bransford, with guests including the Rev. Lyndsay Pitts, the Rev. Raymond Clayborne, Mr. and Mrs. John Gaither and Miss Luann Grainger.

The Rev. Mr. Bransford, who is professor of religious education, in the School of Religion, Howard University, was guest speaker at the re-dedication services of the First Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, Sunday. Mrs. Boswell is director of the Missionary Department of the church. The Rev. Mr. Pitts is pastor of Mt. Calvary.

THE BALTIMORE Club of the National Association of Business and Professional Women, at its recent March meeting, made plans for its annual Founders' Celebration in April.

The committee headed by Jessie Richardson announced that the organization will again present its National Sojourner Truth Scroll for achievement particularly in the field of integration and race relations, to an outstanding woman of the community.

Coppin State Teachers College will be the place and Palm Sunday the date.

The card party committee, Elizabeth Phillips, chairman, presented the report from the affair. M. Margaret Johnson, president, gave a brief report of the recent national executive session held in Philadelphia and also of the Philadelphia Church Crystal Ball.

Other Baltimore members in attendance were Juanita Young, Virginia Gray, Fannie S. Holmes and her husband, Dr. Welfred Holmes.

Hostesses for the meeting were Elizabeth Phillips, Lena K. Lee, Marie Lassiter, Rosalie McGuire, Margaret C. Mitchell, Bernice Moore and Laurie Parker.

* * *

MRS. JOHN COASEY held open house on Saturday afternoon in honor of two delightful visitors who were spending the week end with her.

In fact, both are sort of "foster daughters" of the hostess. Mrs. Lucille Arcola Chambers, author of "America's Tenth Man," at present of New York City; and Singer Corenzia H. Carter, recently back from Germany, were the honorees.

A large number of friends dropped in to meet the ladies, including:

Mesdames Thelma Ashe, Rufus Tucker, Beatrice Reesby, Billian Parrott, Ida Smith, Lillian Lawrence, Catherine Ames, Mae Allen, Meriba Bell.

Mesdames Charlotte Brent, J. E. Nicholas, Ethel Blake, Anne Fuller, Dessie Byrd, Mae H. Pack, Clara Harris, Lillian Reid, Jewell Rawlings; the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Bryant and Misses Kate Sheppard and E. Marion Reid.

Mrs. Chambers and Miss Carter left this week, for a promotion tour of the former's book throughout the West.

POT-POURRI: When Spelling Whiz Gloria Lockerman lifted a stub from the AKA's (Epsilon Omega chapter) box of shares on that Dodge car, last week, it bore the name of Leon Nelson, 26-year-old Morgan College senior sociology major. He's from Albany, N.Y., is working his way through college and giving assistance to his mother. He purchased the share through Ida Collick, Funds from the project go to the chapter's scholarship fund.

Another "raffle" that is scheduled to increase a scholarship fund, was that of the Kappa Silhouettes, whose lucky ticket went to Steven Traynham. He garnered a color T-V., and Silhouette Delores Augustus, who disposed of the largest number of tickets, garnered an all expense paid trip for two to New York City.

Lillian Watty reminds us that Harry J. Hunt, whose funeral took place here this week, and the late Dr. W. Berkley Butler, whose death took place around the same time as that of Mr. Hunt, were classmates at Douglass High School.

The Clevedon "Mercury" and Courier, published in Pill, England, speaking of Mr. Hunt said "One could not fail to notice the impact he made . . . the children listened to him intently; eagerly gathered round him before and after shcool to receive his expert advice." Mr. Hunt was master at the Gordano secondary school at the time of his death. The newspaper gave a long list of "mourners."

Mrs. Emma Hilson Brown was called to Hawkinsville, Ga., this week by the death of her father, Eugene Collins.

Reindeers lodge gave a drawing on Sunday at the Pride of Baltimore Elks Lodge home. Winners were Max L. Conte, first prize, $15; Mrs. Mary Albert, second, $10; and Paul Gundy, third, $5.

REINDEER—Purity Chapter of Reindeer initiated and gave degrees to 14 new members under the direction of the M. N. Queen Mamie Edwards and Deputy Martha Colbert, this week. Founder's Day was observed at our last meeting with the brothers of Walter Batson Lodge as guests.

Plans are being made to go to Washington on March 24, for the mid - winter conference, chairmen are Prin. Mildred Jones and Julia Miles.

ON FRIDAY, history was made at Morgan State College when the first annual women's dinner concluded "Women's Week" which began on March 10.

The idea of "Women's Week" was conceived by Dr. Thelma P. Bando, dean or women, and the objectives set forth are:

To develop on the part of the student a well-rounded personality; to develop on the part of the student the ability to integrate patterns of human relations which will contribute toward educational ends; to develop an appreciation for good life and a desire to prepare for it; and to provide an atmosphere for our students which will promote security and happiness in their personal, cultural, and academic growth.

The dinner officially opened when Dean Bando greeted and welcomed the 500 guests assembled. The audience was emptiely feminene except for the presence of the college president, Dr. Martin D. Jenkins.

A piano selection by Miss Mary Henley, a senior in the music department, followed.

"Let Us Break Bread Together" was sung by Miss Julia Anthony after which the guests at the speaker's table were introduced. Introductions of these guests were made by Miss Adele Warren, president of the Dormitory Council.

The guests at the speaker's table included:

Dr. and Mrs. Martin D. Jenkins, Miss Mary Henley, director of music at the dinner; Miss Julia Anthony, Miss Barbara Locks, "Miss Morgan"; The senior mentors, Misses Barbara Barnes, Sarah Gaines, Gloria Ford, Margaret Kish, Emma Waters;

Mrs. Vivian Alleyne, a consultant; Miss Beulah Davis, a consultant; Mrs. Carl Murphy, toast mistress; Mrs. Arizona Stemons, guest speaker; Miss Hazel Jenkins, President of Charm CLUB; Mrs. Janie Perry, president, Faculty Trustee Wives; Mrs. Mary J. Spellman, assistant dean of women; and Dr. Thelma P. Bando, dean of women.

As a climax to the beautiful dinner, huge bouquet of flowers was presented to Dean Bando by Russell Stewart, representing the veterans who are attending Morgan State College.

Mrs. Murphy, was introduced by Dean Bando, and she in turn, presided, introducing the guest speaker, Mrs. Arizona Stemons, of Philadelphia.

This introduction was unique also in that Mrs. Murphy, a founder of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority introduced Mrs. Arizona Stemons, a founder of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

Group singing was enjoyed by the audience, and greetings were brought by Dr. Jenkins, after which the dinner concluded with the singing of the Morgan Alam Mater.
