FIRST PLACE WINNER—The Y-Teen Chorus, comprised of Y-Teen Club members from Eastern and Western High Schools was first place winner in a talent contest sponsored by the Baltimore YWCA. The contest was held during a progress report meeting of the Association's Membership Drive. Singing members of the group are Sarah Cousins, Lillie Clayborne, Bernice Young, Ann Reyner and Nancy Reyner, Director of the chorus is Betty Holsten. Accompanist (not in photo) is Judy Bernstein.

OUTSTANDING Y BOYS — Irving Phillips, 13, a pupil at Booker T. Washington Junior High School and Wayne Parker, 11, a pupil at Coppin Elementary School, pause with Baltimore Colts' linesman, Eugene "Big Daddy" Lipscomb, following a YMCA membership drive. Both boys received honorary life memberships from the Baltimore Colts for being outstanding "Y" boys. See story Page 16.

Wrestler wins lucky picture prize of $5

"Some of the boys up at the school told me, but I didn't know anyone to believe them until they showed me the paper with my picture and the circle around it. Then I knew I was supposed to win $5," said Edward Sykes, 922 Abbott Court, was telling how he discovered that he was the winner of Tuesday's lucky picture prize in the AFRO.

Eddie, a member of the Carver Vocational-Technical High School wrestling team, and a finalist in the consolation matches of the MSA tournament at Homewood Gym last week, was seated among his teammates during a championship match when his picture was taken by an AFRO photographer Saturday.

A senior at Carver, Eddie can't decide definitely what he will do with his $5 prize.

"I had my mind made up once," he said, "but I keep changing it."

Like Eddie, you too will be a winner if your picture appears encircled in either the Tuesday or Friday editions of the AFRO.

Just bring your copy of the printed picture to the AFRO office before the next edition is out and collect your $5 prize.
