Donors needed by blood bank

"When a patient comes in and needs blood, we don't quibble about, we give them blood, but we need replacement."

MRS. MARY AGNES GANOUG, of the Credit Department of the Maryland General Hospital, was telling the AFRO about the need for the fifty-wide donors to replace the blood used by the patients who cannot repay for their blood.

Persons interested might contact the Credit Department of the hospital for full details on how blood donations may be

Gilliam finally gets feeling of security

By SAM LACY
AFRO Sports Editor

MIAMI, Fla. — At long last, Junior Gilliam feels secure.

"This is the first spring since 1953 that there hasn't been a lot of talk about my being traded," observed the stellar Brooklyn Dodger leadoff man here Tuesday morning.

One of the early risers among the baseball fraternity, Gilliam —who now has outgrown the "Junior" label and is more often hailed as "Jim" — was relaxing in the patio of his hotel.

Each year, despite a highly creditable record for his four years of big league seasons, Gilliam had been followed to Florida by rumors that the Dodgers were seeking to deal him to another club. Sometimes it was to the Phillies for an outfielder, sometimes to the Cardinals and sometimes to the Pirates in exchange for a pitcher.

Jim didn't worry much about the reports, because baseball is my living," he'd say. "And I'm going to give it what I have wherever they put me to work."

GILLIAM feels the same way about the rumors that have been thrix this spring, rumors which have him moving from second base to third and back to the outfield where he has seen frequent service in recent years.

"Naturally, I'd rather play second because that's my position," he says.

"I prefer second base and my next choice would be the outfield. But I Wait-Manager Walter Alston says he wants me to take a shot at third, that's where I'll be."

CHIEF REASON for the absence of trade rumors this spring is the fact that Gilliam is virtually carried the Dodger attack last year.

He was the only .300 hitter among the regulars on the team that won the National League title, finishing right on that mark and besting by eight percentage points the .292 posted by Duke Snider in second place. Carl Furillo was next at .289.

GILLIAM'S CASE is a strange one. Not since his "rookie-of-the-year" season of '53 has he felt the security of a man sure of his job.

For some unaccountable reason, it took the Brooklyn front office four years to fully appreciate his value.

Rival managers recognize Gilliam as the finest No. 1 hitter in the league. His ability to get on base and his keen sense of timing as a base-runner are the intangibles that Montague St. has minimized, if not overlooked.

* * *

BUT it could seem odd to close observers that the Dodger front office hasn't rewarded him for such tangibles as a .278 lifetime average (two points higher than favorite son Gil Hodges, only one point lower than three-time MVP Roy Campanella), and consistent year-in, year-out performance in the field.

To gain his present stature and stability, Gilliam needed such a year as he had in 1956.

That's when he (a) ran up a 13-game batting streak, longest of the year for the Dodgers; (b) won Alston's nod for a berth in the all-star game; (c) set major league record of 12 assists for second basemen in one game; (d) stole home to beat Cards, 2-1, in crucial game during September pursuit of the Braves, and (e) drew four walks, singled, stole three bases in another important game.

But now as he was talking to the AFRO, Jim feels rewarded. His 1957 contract, tendered last winter by vice president Buzzy Bavasi, was as Gilliam puts it, "very fair."

Bavasi called him to Brooklyn for discussion of salary terms and Jim signed the first figure offered. He described the raise as "highly satisfactory."

"I could be at that."

Today, Jim is driving a 1957 Cadillac of subdued rose color. Long This, plus the spit-level home in which he has his family of wife, Gloria, and two children—seven and five years old—in Rahway, N.J., should make a young man of 28 feel secure—and good.

Procterville cops Cape

PROCTERVILLE, N.C. — Procterville's Trojans last week defeated Laurel Hill 61-50 in R. B. Dean Gymnatorium in Maxton to win the Cape Fear Athletic Association championship for the third consecutive time.

The win also gave Procterville permanent possession of the championship trophy.

Alice McDowell scored 32 points to lead the Trojanettes to a 62-48 victory over the Maxton Tigeryettes.

Tops is LeSalle College's Ira Davis who just two weeks ago finished second in the National AAU 40 dash championship. The fourth place finalist, Mary Johnson, teenage flash from Stevens Trade School, Lancaster, Pa. is also entered.

Add to this group Bobby Gordap, Morgan State College's current fastest human, Ken Kave, former Morgan star now at Fort Meade, and Carl Dean, Baltimore Olympic Club, and you have an all - star field in any league.

KNOCKING ON the door to get into this select group is Wilbur Wilson, Shanahan C. C. of Philadelphia. Wilson, a fine sprinter, is better known for his broad jumping. He took second in the recent Indoor National AAU championships.

Relay parings have been made for the three sections of the one - mile relay. The top race has just two teams—Morgan's varsity and freshmen units. These two battle foursomes are head and shoulders above the 14 other teams entered in the Shannahan C. C.

The third section has matched Bridgewater College, Howard University, University of Delaware, Orhle Track Club, Cross Country Club, American University, Baltimore Olympic Club and Mount Saint Mary's College.

Howard squad, says his greatest dream is to "help build our dam and electrify Ghana." Right, Jacob Addo, 33, a liberal arts graduate of Howard, will carry his knowledge and love for American baseball back to Ghana, Africa to a temporary contracting business in the District.

Top stars to compete tonight in All Eastern Indoor Meet

A great sprint field has been lined up for the All Eastern Indoor Track Meet here tonight (Friday) at the Fifth Regiment Armory. Five top sprinters heard the group of 18 starters for the 60 - yard event.

So formidable are they that the 24 coaches of the other teams entered have yet refused to compete against the Bears.

The second section of the mile relay lists North Carolina College, Seton Hall University, Roanoke College, LaSalle College, West Chester State Teachers College, Catholic University

TEAM CAPTAIN of the Harlem Globetrotters who play the Philadelphia Sphas here March 30 is Clarence Wilson. Wilso, veteran with the world travelers, is regarded as one of the best shots in the business.

Baseball camp notes

CHICAGO — Charlie Harmon a jack of all trades, is a prime candidate for the center - field slot on the St. Louis Cardinals.

Harmon was traded to the Cards last year by the Cincinnati Redlegs. He was a hard-hitting in the outfield but failed to hit. He was sent to Omaha in the American Association, and batted a robust .362 in the last half of the season.

At the Cards' spring training base in St. Petersburg, Manager Freddie Hutchinson has put in a good word for the former University of Toledo (Ohio) basketball star.

"Harmon can play anywhere in the infield, including first base, and he can do a fine job in the outfield," said Hutchinson.

"Last spring I saw Harmon with the Cincinnati club. One day he was at third, another at second, then short and finally first base. I asked Birdie Tebbetts (Cincy manager) what in the world he was trying to do. He said he hadn't seen Harmon do a bad job anywhere and was trying to find if there was a spot where he wouldn't look good."

THE CLEVELAND Indians are frantically searching for a successor to Al Rosen at third base. They might have him in a 28-year-old rookie who hasn't been given a full-blown chance to make the Indians' varsity.

He's Billy Hartell, for whom General Manager Hank Greenberg said he was offered $100,000. Harrell has been hitting the ball sharply during drills at Tucson, Ariz. He played under Manager Kerby Farrell last year at Indianapolis, but was used as a shortstop and in the outfield.

Baltimore Orioles are taking a close look at Lennie Green, rookie infielder assigned to the roster of the Vancouver Club in the Pacific Coast League. He is one of the fastest men in the Orioles camp at Scottsdale, Ariz.

Norman Smith heads for Chicago Golden Gloves

Golden Gloves Champion Norman Smith left Washington Monday for Bear Mountain (N.Y.) training camp after a five-day visit with his family at 2514 Ninth St., NE.

Featherweight Smith, an 18-year-old razzed scrapper of the District Athletic Club, last week, won three bouts at Madison Square Garden for the 126 lbs. - class Eastern Golden Gloves Championship.

Smith, brother of pro fighters Harold and Gene Smith, got recognition and a place on the Washington team last month by flooring Charlie Drivers of the Northeast A.C. and Eugene Hughes of the Mighty Mell A.C. at Uline Arena in the finals.

After a today training stint at Bear Mountain, Norman will fly east for Chicago for the East-West Golden Gloves Championship Tournament.

Dedicate tops field for Bowie Handicap

BOWIE, Md.—Jan Burke's Dedicate was assigned highweight of 124 pounds for the $25,000 added Bowie Handicap which will have its 40th running on Saturday.

The one mile and a sixteenth event, oldest feature of the Bowie takes schedule, boasts many of the leading handicap stars in this area among the 24 eligibles.

Dedicate, a three-time stakes winner last year including two triumphs over the vaunted Summer Tan, concedes from four to 20 pounds to his rivals.

Johnson cagers post 10-game win streak

AUGUSTA, Ga. — A. R. Johnson Junior High School won its 10th straight ballgame by defeating Jefferson High, 58-48, at the Johnson gym Thursday night, the girls also winning, 25-20.

In Memoriam 1

BELL — In sad but loving memory of our dear mother, HENRIETTA BELL, who departed this life twenty years ago, March 16th:

Twenty years have passed. But we think of you today as the memory lingers.

Surrounded by friends, we are lonely

In the midst of our joy we are sad

With a smile on our faces, we have heartaches.

Thinking dear mother of you.

From her devoted Family, GERALDINE, IRENE and JOHN T. BELL.

GITTINGS — In loving memory of my dear wife and mother, MABLE March 16, 1945:

Mother, you are not forgotten,

Though on earth you are no more;

Still in memory you are with us, as you always were before.

Husband, JOHN; Children, Jim and Pearl.

GUNTHER — In loving memory of our beloved mother and grandmother, ANNIE FRANCES, who departed this life March 15, 1956:

The Lord lifted her up and let her stand.

By faith on Heaven's table land. A higher plane that she has found The Lord prepared her feet on higher ground.

Devoted daughter ARINTHA GUNTHER, Grandaughter ELDIO COTTON.

GUNTHER — In loving memory of my mother, ANNIE FRANCES GUNTHER, who passed a way March 15, 1956:

Mother, I think of you so much here; There's such a vacant place. Oft we think we hear her footsteps And see her smiling face.

Days of sadness still come over us, Tears in silence often flow... Memory keeps her ever near us. Though she left us one year ago today.

LOVING FAMILY, Daughter BESSIE BARKER.

IN MEMORY OF A ROSE

KOONS—In memory of ROSA L. KOONS, who passed March 13, 1955:

Another year has passed and gone

But we love loved and miss you must press on

In hope that in some glorious morn

We will meet again.

From husband, JAMES H. KOONS and CHILDREN.

OWENS — In loving memory of our dear grandmother, RACHEL, who passed away March 16, 1953:

The rolling stream of life rolls on, But still the vacant chair.

Recalls the love, the voice, the smile

Of the one who once sat there.

Loving Grandson, Earl HARRISON AND HAZEL.

SAUNDERS — In loving memory of my dear husband, RAYMOND, who departed this life March 16, 1952:

I have lost my soul's companion, A life linked with mine.

And day by day I miss you more, As I walk through life alone.

Devoted wife, CATHERINE.

TILGHMAN—In loving memory of my husband and our father, ROOSEVELT, who passed away March 16, 1943:

More and more each day we miss him

Friends may think the wound is healed;

But they little know the sorrow Lies within our hearts concealed.

LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN.

TURPIN — In loving memory of Bishop J. M. TURPIN, who passed away March 17, 1943:

Today our hearts are heavy. Our thoughts are all of thee

Oh, how we miss you, Morsell dear.

None but God in Heaven can see. Some say time heals an aching heart,

But, no, it isn't true,

For fourteen long years have passed, dear,

And our hearts still ache for you.

Wife, RUTH B. TURPIN and APOSTOLIC FAITH CHURCH

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of our dear husband and son-in-law, BENJAMIN, who passed away one year ago, March 20, 1956:

The face I loved is now laid low, His loving voice is still,

The hands so often clasped in mine,

Lies now in death's cold chill.

I often sit and think of him, When I am all alone,

For memory is the only thing That grief can call its own.

HANNAH WILLIAMS-Wife.

PAULINE PLATER-Mother-in-law.

WRIGHT — In loving memory of my beloved mother, MARY E. WRIGHT, who passed away March 14, 1935:

Your memory to me is a keepsake,

With which I will never part.

Though God has you in His keeping

I still have you in my heart.

MRS. SARAH B. SMITH, Germany.
