CONVICTED:

Mother of 4 escapes jail term

"One of the conditions of the probation is that she doesn't take another drop of liquor for one year."

Judge Joseph L. Carter on Thursday was addressing the attorney for Mrs. Dorothy Hawes, 22, 718 Lennox St., whose conviction of assaulting an officer and disturbing the peace were sustained by the Supreme Bench.

The jurist gave Mrs. Hawes a one-year suspended sentence for assaulting Office Howard Rose on Aug. 19 and ordered her to pay a fine $250 and costs. He suspended sentence in the disturbance case.

When Judge Carter asked Mrs. Hawes if she understood his terms concerning liquor, the mother of four answered simply, "yes, sir."

* * *

SOLOMON BAYLOR, attorney for Mrs. Hawes, lost his round for a new trial when the Supreme Bench denied the motion on Feb. 2.

Mrs. Hawes was found guilty by a jury in Judge Carter's Court on Oct. 25.

The jury of nine men and three women acquitted Archibald John Hawes, 30, of a charge of disturbing the peace.

The Hawesses were in court Thursday with two of their young children, including an infant born to Mrs. Hawes two months after her arrest.

"This case has given me some concern," noted Judge Carter. "I don't often make distinction in the cases because the defendant is a male or female."

* * *

THE JURIST said he did not believe the defense story that officers summoned to the 700 block Lennox to investigate a disturbance mistreated her without cause.

Judge Carter also noted that Officer Rose, bitten by Mrs. Hawes in a scuffle, was off duty for six weeks because of his allergy to tetanus shots.

Witnesses at the trail of Mrs. Hawes testified police struck the defendant with a night stick.

"The one who's going to get hurt the most and who doesn't deserve it is the husband," observed Judge Carter, who ruled that her fine could be paid through the Probation Department.

Battle in South today may decide destiny of world

ANNAPOLIS, Md.—"This is real. Government to exercise its power against crimes in the states.

"But," he said pointedly, "the Federal Government has shown more skill in moving across state lines when colored people were not involved than when colored people are involved."

To illustrate this, he mentioned the present law which makes kidnapping a Federal crime. It grew out of the famous kidnapping of the Lindberg baby, 1932.

Although the Federal Government has made no cases in the bombings in the South, "it would find some ground to do so if it really wanted to do so."

DR. LOGAN declared widely from his prepared text to tell of his experiences in Atlanta in the 1930's as a teacher at Atlanta University.

A man of fair complexion and a freckled face, Dr. Logan told how he joined a parade of the Ku Klux Klan, and followed them to a rally in Mayo Park.

"It was one of the worst experiences I have ever had," he said.

Hiram Evans, then Imperial Wizard of the Klan, whipped the crowd of men and women into "screaming hysteria," he said, by telling them of how he would like to have been part of a lynching party that killed a colored man shortly before that in Texas.

At the Klan rally, he said, Evans asked the crowd for all to raise their hands if they would like to have been in the lynching party.

"I didn't raise my hand," he said, adding that a woman in back of him made comment of it to a man who gave him a long stare, but no more.

As they paraded through the streets, they (the Klansmen) were more afraid than the colored people looking on," he said.

"We have stopped running," he said. "We are strong now when they thought the colored people were going to run to Montgomery, Clinton and elsewhere down South."

* * *

DR. LOGAN TOOK strong exception to oft-made charges that the NAACP is Communist - infested.

"If it were, it would be on the Attorney General's list (of subversives). It is not. And not one out of 10 times makes the charge believe it.

"Too many persons in our country are being frightened by the charge — especially in the South."

He said that those who failed to support the NAACP because of fear "should get down on their knees and ask God for courage."

* * *

IT HAS been the Supreme Court that has brought gains to our race during the last 40 years, and the NAACP has been responsible for the cases and for winning them," he said.

* * *

ALTHOUGH DR. LOGAN strayed widely from his prepared text ("Democracy — America's Most Powerful Export"), he did discuss what he meant by the title of the prepared statement.

"Now we have almost reached the ultimate in man's foolishness — the ICBM," he said.

He explained that the ICBM (inter - continental ballistic missile) is capable of "destroying hundreds of thousands of Russians—and Americans."

He pointed out that an exchange of blows with today's modern war weapons is capable of destroying the world or leaving "whoever is left" deformed "for generations to come."

"I don't know any better way to die than to lay down one's life to make this country free for democracy," he said.

But the World War I veteran officer offered "real democracy" as an alternative to Northern war.

"It is my firm belief that democracy, as I understand it, is the most powerful weapon in the United States for meeting the propagandа of the Russian cold war.

"This battle is for the liberty of the South may well determine the destiny of the world. If we succeed in democracy, we may avoid the use of the ICBM."

Dismissal of bus suit urged

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — The U.S. District Court was asked Tuesday to dismiss the Federal suit brought by two Florida A and M students to stop enforcement of this city's new bus seating assignment ordinance.

The suit was filed by Leonard D. Speed, and Johnny Herndon who were arrested on Jan. 10 on charges of violating the ordinance when they refused to accept segregated seats on a local bus.

They are facing trial in Municipal Court for refusing to accept the bus driver's order to sit in the rear of the vehicle.

* * *

FRANCISCO RODRIGUES, their attorney, calling the ordinance "unconstitutional on its face" and a "legal monstrosity designed to continue the evil of segregation."

The city ordinance makes no reference to race, when its empowers bus passenger to sit where directed by the driver on the basis of their weight, possibilities of violence and other factors.

Leo Foster, attorney for the city, urged Judge Dozier Devane, before whom the hearing was held, that in moving for the dismissal of the petition the "special delicacy of the subject" be preserved between Federal equitable power and state administration of its Koger out at NW ??

"Frankly I haven't heard any reports that I would not be sitting in Northwestern or that I would be moved to another job."

Magistrate Linwood G. Koger-Sr. was the source of this statement on Thursday as he commented on dying rumors that he would be replaced in his present post as magistrate of the Northwestern District.

The rumors reached their peak several weeks ago but they began to fade Wednesday when Mr. Koger's name was included on the Governor's list of prospective justices of the peace.

They were furthered weakened when a highly placed political figure flatly predicted this week that the magistrate would be returned to Northwestern for another two-year term.

"If he was not to be reappointed he would not have been on the list of justices of the peace from which magistrates are taken," the political source said.

* * *

MAGISTRATE Koger was appointed in 1955 as a replacement for E. Everett Lane who was shifted to Traffic Court and later given a judgeship on the Cobble's Court.

Mr. Koger's term ends the last of April.

On Wednesday when the Governor released his Green Bag List of executive appointments, which must still be approved by the State Senate, Mr. Koger's name was included for appointment as a justice of the peace from the Northwestern District.

Also included in the Green Bag was the name of Robert B. Watts, attorney, who is currently serving as a Traffic Court magistrate and who has been recommended for a full two year term.

* * *

OTHER GREEN BAG appointments included Meyer M. Cardin, chief police magistrate for Baltimore for the last two years, to become Chief Traffic Court Magistrate at $5,000 a year.

He would replace Stanley Scherr, chief Traffic Court magistrate, who resigned to become counsel to the Public Service Commission.

Mr. Scherr was cited on the AFRO Honor Roll in 1955 for his work with the Youth Traffic Court which he inaugurated.

Ralph J. Young, 1429 E. Monument St., was re-appointed to the State Board of Health for six years, and Josiah F. Henry Jr., 2557 McCulloh St., was re-appointed to the Board of Trustees of Morgan State College for nine years.

* * *

EDWARD N. WILSON of Morgan State College was returned to the Commission of Interracial Problems and Relations for six years, and Jesse W. Redden, 436 W. Biddle St., was renamed to the State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers for two years.

* * *

ALSO APPOINTED were the following as justices of the peace, Fourth District:

George Russell, 820 N. Fremont Ave.; Milton E. Allen, 1908 Madison St.; W. Emerson Brown Jr., 539 Cumberland St.; George L. Parrish, 2336 N. Monroe St.

In Annapolis, T. Norwood Brown was re-named as a justice of the peace in the Seventh Ward which he presently serves as alderman to the town's eight-member council.

He recently qualified as a candidate for reelection in the May balloting.

"PRETTY LOW TRICK"

Convict and pal jailed in burglary

"I threw up my hands, and that's when he shot me. The officer said he saw something shiny in my hand. I didn't have anything, more than a flashlight."

Bernard Mason, shot and wounded by Lt. Paul Aires at 1 a.m. on Feb. 10, gave this account in a Criminal Court Wednesday as he and a companion pleaded guilty to burglary and conspiracy to commit a burglary.

Mason, 26, 1700 block N. Payson St., was sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary in each case.

Judge S. Ralph Warnken ordered the terms served together.

The codefendant, Oliver Lee Chaney, 36, 1000 block N. Stricker St., was given 18-month concurrent prison terms.

* * *

THE DEFENDANTS pleaded guilty on arraignment to entering the Manor Hill Sales Co., 3208 Eleanora Ave., where Chaney was employed.

Lieutenant Aires, in North-western Police Court the day after Mason was shot in the side that officers cornered the defendant on top of an ice box. The officer said he ordered Mason down.

"As he withdrew his hand from his pocket, I got a glim of a piece of metal and I fired one time," said Lt. Aires, who gave no testimony in criminal Court.

According to the lieutenant, Chaney was apprehended outside the place standing near a car he had borrowed from a friend.

* * *

WHEN MASON was arrested, he was on parole from a 15-year prison term handed him in 1949 for armed robbery.

He was released in 1955 and his parole would have expired in December, 1964.

Judge Warnken said he would leave it up to the parole authorities to deal with any parole violation.

When the jurist asked Chaney why he agreed to burglarize the place, the defendant said, "I needed some money to pay my wife's doctor bill."

"Well, I think it's a pretty low trick to burglarize your employer's place of business," quipped Judge Warnken.

Voting breakdown of Council's action on hotel resolution

This is how the City Council voted on a proposal to delay action on the hotel resolution indefinitely:

SOLOMON LISS of the Fourth District voted for the resolution but explained that he did so in order that he could bring the measure up again at a later session.

Missing from the Council floor was JAMES J. WELSH JR., Second District.

Two women held

Miss Rochella Newby, 21, of the 1300 block Pennsylvania Ave., and Miss Deborah Johnson, 21, of the 1400 block Myrtle Ave., were ordered held without bail on Thursday in the fatal stabbing of Julius Salter, of the 1300 block Pennsylvania Ave.

COURAGEOUS SMILE — Annie Ruth Johnson, 11, a victim of spinal meningitis remains cheerful despite the fact she has neither walked nor talked since she was a year old. Her mother, Mrs. Fanny Johnson, 1333 N. Fulton Ave., would like a portable lift to help her care for Annie Ruth. As helpless as an infant, the child must be carried around.

Group plans picketing at NW White Coffee Pot

"Love your enemy and you will be practicing something that will make you a better man and a better woman."

That's what Mrs. Verda Welcome said Wednesday night to persons who met at Wayland Baptist Church, Monday night, to organize a campaign to spotlight the policy of the White Coffee Pot at Edmondson Ave., and Monroe St.

Mrs. Welcome was on of several speakers, at the meeting sponsored by a citizens committee of the United Citizens Group for Better Human Relations.

THE OTHERS were Dr. Alexander J. Walker, president of the sponsoring group, Mrs. Hattie Hillen and Mrs. Joan Wertherman.

Remarks were made by the Revs. W. W. Payne, Harrison Bryant and Leui Miller.

Some 50 persons attending the meeting volunteered their services to help picket the White Coffee Pot.

The citizens' group organized committees on finance, picketing, and leaflets.

AFRO award may bring winner change in 'luck'

"I was sitting down eating my dinner when I saw the picture in the paper. I was glad to see it. It is good to have a little good luck for a change. I have had a streak of bad luck."

Charles E. Gardner, of 1367 Calhoun St., was discussing his recent "good luck" with the AFRO City Desk. The 68-year-old retired construction worker had just seen his picture in the AFRO Lucky Circle.

"I had an accident several years ago, and I haven't been feeling right since. It shook me up quite a bit and did not leave me in any condition to do any work," Mr. Gardner said.

Mr. Gardner, who is a widower, lives with his sister, Mrs. Florence Bundick, at the Calhoun St., address.

"THIS MAY BE the beginning of my good luck," Mr. Gardner said as he took his $5 Lucky Circle check.

Every week some lucky AFRO reader can collect a Lucky Circle check.

No games to play, no puzzles to solve, no lines to write. Just look through your AFRO. If your picture is within the circle, you have won $5.

There is only one thing to remember; this clipping must be brought to the CITY Desk before the next edition of the AFRO is published.
