Morgan to split squad for 2 meets

BALTIMORE

The Morgan State College track will split this weekend to compete in the National AAU indoor championships on New York and the first half of the South Atlantic championships at the University of Delaware. Both competitions are scheduled for tomorrow (Saturday).

The bulk of the Morgan squad will go to Madison Square Garden for the National AAU's, according to Coach Eddie Hurt. Morgan will enter a mile relay team, high jumpers Bob Barksdale and George Dennis, sprinters Lincoln Johnson and Bobby Gordon a sprint medley relay team and a freshman mile relay team.

Morgan's mile relay team, which finished second behind Villanova in a very fast showing in the New York AC meet last week, will again feature Benny Rogers, Herbert Dalton, Gerald Harrison and Bob McMurray.

THE FRESHMAN mile relay team will be drawn from a group of six contenders: Verion Keller, Plainfield, N.J.; Roland Merriweather, Philadelphia, Pa.; Cecil Harris, New York City; Nick Ellis, New Brunswick, N.J.; Virgil Jurgen, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; Hosea Smith, Jersey City, N.J. and Vernel Smith, Fairmont Heights, Md.

W. Hurt of Stansbury, Morton and Gordon will probably run on the sprint medley team, the fourth member of which has not yet been selected.

ENTERED IN THE South Atlantic championships will be Leon Moss in the 50-yard lows and the 50-yard hitch hurdles; Lawrence Wilson, 50-yard hurdles; Daniel Bumford, Wilson and Jamalo Barry, 50-yard dash and Wilson and Bumford in the broad jump.

Moss is the defending champion and record holder in both the 50-yard high and low hurdles.

Miss Fulton cops Dimes pin match

NEWARK

Showing the form that will prove her to be a real threat in the near future, Louise Fulton of Pittsburgh, the 1956 Western Pennsylvania singles champion, completed her victory in a 20-game home and home match with Ula Coleman, of this city, for the March of Dimes.

Miss Fulton went into the match on Saturday night, 37 pins up. After the night's play, she increased it to 73. Her series of 825 to Ula's 809 gave her added encouragement for Sunday. Louise never let up and pounded out a 192-4 average over her last five games with a 964 total to Ula's 933 and a 186.3 average.

Highlight of the match was the appearance of Charles Bynum, director of Interracial activities for the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, who thanked the spectators for their support and also MIKE Galello, proprietor of the Academy Recreation for his cooperation.

All-Star CIAA cage teams named by Howard's Coach

WASHINGTON

The 1956-57 Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association All-Star basketball teams have been selected by 16 CIAA coaches who sent in a total of 80 votes. The official announcement was made Tuesday by Howard University basketball coach Tom Hart, director of public relations for the CIAA basketball coaches.

Figurettes will be presented to winners of the first team at the Durham CIAA tournament Feb 28.

THE ALL-STAR first team: Wilfred Johns, Winston-Salem; Frank Carr, Maryland State; Billy Smith, A and T College; Junior Prettyman, Virginia Union; Jimmy Fligg, North Carolina College.

At Stirrups, St. Augustine's and Carrol Smith, Virginia Union.

Honorable mentions went to Frank Keith, Shaw; Eugene Hodgins, Morgan; John Johnson, Virginia State; C. Lowell Bluefield State; and B. Attles, A and T. College.

Procedure for selection called for coaches to furnish Tom Hart a list of the 15 most outstanding players in the conference.

Several of the All-Stars will participate in the conference's 12th annual tournament at Durham, Feb. 28, March 1 and 2.

Howard host to CIAA wrestling tournament

WASHINGTON

Tonight (Friday) Howard University will be host to the 22nd annual CIAA wrestling tournament.

Tomorrow the preliminary, consolation and final matches will get under way, with league leading Morgan State College (3-0) favored over defending champion Virginia State.

Last week the Howard University matches defeated Lincoln University 24-13 in the Bisons' first and final win in CIAA dual meets.

Details of the Howard-Lincoln match:

Weaver of Howard decisioned Thompson of Lincoln 4-3. Kirkland of Howard threw Joseph of Lincoln in 1:31.

Rogers of Howard threw Roach of Lincoln 1:08. Rice of Howard decisioned Griffin of Howard 3-1. Wilson of Lincoln won by forfeit.

Chapman of Howard decisioned Kendricks of Lincoln 4-1. Gardner of Lincoln won by forfeit. Hurdle of Howard threw Lafayette of Lincoln in 4:05. Brunot decisioned Tallferro 3-1.

Howard won six bouts, spotting Lincoln 10 for two forfeits.

Bear-Bison go may decide CIAA berth

WASHINGTON

From all indications, tonight's (Friday) game between Morgan State College and Howard University will decide whether the Golden Bears or the Bisons from the nation's capital are to be the eighth team in the CIAA basketball tournament, slated next weekend at Durham, N.C.

The last week of conference play began Monday with both teams in a desperate battle for the coveted tournament berth.

Already qualified were A-T. North Carolina, Union, Winston-Salem, Fayetteville, Virginia State and St. Augustine's College, seven in all. There are eight journey slots.

Locked in the stretch fight were Morgan, Howard, Maryland State and Delaware. Both the Bears and Bisons have won since then, the former tripping Winston-Salem and the latter besting Lincoln and Delaware.

Morgan is now 8-6 on the season; Howard is 8-7.

Tonight's contest is slated for 8 o'clock in the Hurt gymnasium.

AT THE RINGSIDE:

Champs few but contenders numerous in boxing ratings

By CHARLES J. LIVINGSTON

CHICAGO (ANP)—Those who view the fistic situation with some apprehension over tan fisticrs vanishing from the champion scene, should take a closer look at the boxing picture as a whole. For the overall picture is not bad at all for tan men of mayhem.

While there are now only three champions, as compared to the days when colored fighters held sway in practically all divisions, the number of top contenders has been steadily on increase.

* * *

TODAY THERE ARE 24 among the top 10 contenders in the eight recognized divisions. This amounts to three-tenths, or slightly less than one-third of the total 80 contenders.

Other fighters are also moving into commanding positions. Among this crop of "comers," are such promising prospects as Garnett (Sugar) Hart of Philadelphia and Isidro Martinez of Panama. Both are expected to move up among the top-10 in their respective divisions.

The most promising picture is seen in the all-important heavyweight division, where almost all the top contenders are colored. A similar picture is seen in the fluid middleweight class, where tan fighters hold down five positions.

The encouraging overall picture is shown in the March ratings of Ring Magazine. The ratings show the following changes:

Heavyweights: Champion: Floyd Patterson, Brooklyn. Contenders: 1—Tommy Jackson Fort Pitchkaven, N.J. 2—Archie Moore, San Diego, Calif. 3—Harold Carter, Linden, N.J. 4—Willie Pastrano, New Orleans. 5—Bob Baker, Long Beach, Calif.; 6—Bob Satterfield, Chicago, Ill.; 7—Bonnie Johnson, Sydney; 8—Bob Baker, Pittsburgh, Pa.; 9—Jorge Fallon, Chandler, Ariz. and 10—Wayne Bethea, Shaw, Ohio.

Light-Heavyweights: Champion: Archie Moore. Contenders: 1—Gerhard Hecht, Germany; 2 — Chuck Spencer, Lansing, Mich.; 3—Hans Kalbfell, Germany; 4—Tony Anthony, New York City; 5—Steve Romero, Trinidad, B.W.I.; 6—Willi Besmanoff, Germany; 7—Dagmar Wilmer, Uruguay; 8—Randy Turpin, England; 9—Roberto Cofin, France, and 10—Willie Beemer, Germany.

Middleweights: Champion: Gene Fullmer, West Jordan, Utah. Contenders: 1 — Ray Robinson, New York City; 2—Charley Humez, France; 3—Rubin Jones, Yonkers, N.Y.; 4—Ellsworth (Spider) Webb, Chicago; 5—Rory Calhoun, White Plains, N.Y.; 6—Joey Giardello, Buffalo, N.Y.; 8—Neal Rivers, Las Vegas; 9—Sandy Saddler, Mexico City, Mexico; and 10—Charley Joseph, New Orleans, La.

Welterweights: Champion, Carmen Basilio, Syracuse, N.Y. Contenders: 1—Johnny Saxton, Brooklyn; 2—Gaspar Ortiz, Mexico; 3—Troy DeMarco, Boston, Mass.; 4—Isaac Logart, Cuba; 5—Virgil Akins, St. Louis; 6—Art Aragon, Los Angeles; 7—Ralph Dupas, New Orleans; 8 — Ramon Fuentes, Los Angeles, Calif.; 9—George Barnes, Australia, and 10—Joe Miceli, New York City.

Lightweights: Champion: Joe Brown, New Orleans. Contenders: 1—Duilio Loi, Italy; 2 — Kenny Lane, Montreal, Mich.; 3—Johnny Gonsalves, Oakland, Calif.; 4—Larry Boardman, Hartford, Conn.; 5—Wallace (Bud) Smith, Cincinnati; 6—Orlando Zulueta, Cuba; 7—Chico Andrade Andrade, Compton, Calif.; 8—Ralph Dupas, New Orleans, La.; 9—Willie Toweel, South Africa, and 10—Jimmy Carter, New York City.

Featherweights: Champion: Hogan (Kid) Bassey, Nigeria. Contenders: 1—Raul Rojas, Mexico City, Mexico; 2—Miguel Berrios, Brooklyn; 3—Paul Jorgenson, Port Arthur, Texas; 4—Jean Sneyers, Belgium; 5—Alan Rudkin, Philippines; 6—Gil Cadilla, Los Angeles; 7—Alfonso Polidori, Italy, and 8—Victor (Sonny) Leon, Vanezuela. Sandy Saddler announced retirement Jan. 31, 1957.

Minoso signs

CHICAGO (NNPA — Minnie Minoso Monday talked himself into an estimated $2,500 salary increase when he agreed to terms for 1957 after a Havana-Chicago telephone debate with Charles (Chuck) Comiskey, White Sox vice president.

Minoso ends Sox holdout

CHICAGO — Minnie Minoso ended his threatened holdout with the Chicago White Sox early this week, accepting a $35,000 contract proferred by vice president Chuck Comiskey.

The Cuban born outfielder played for $32,500 last season and was promised the same on a pact sent to him earlier by the Sox management. This offer was rejected by Minnie on the grounds Comiskey, "make mestake; he meant it for Minnie of 1954, not the Minnie who have good season last year."

THE PLAYER and Comiskey came to terms over the telephone and afterward, the Sox executive said the raise made Minoso one of the four highest paid players on the club.

Larry Doby, infielder Nellie Fox and pitcher Billy Pierce are the other three.

Minoso, who has hit over .300 in four of his six years in the majors, led the White Sox in hitting, doubles, triples, total bases and slugging last season. His lifetime major league batting average is .306.
