Booker T. lists new elective plan

By EMMA DORSEY

An entirely new free elective system got under way as the new term began at Booker T. Washington High School under the administration of Harry R. Parker, principal, Mrs. Ethel T. Payne and Harold Seaborne, vice-principals.

Under the free elective system 88 students are able to select courses that they, their parents, and their counselors consider most helpful to them in developing their plans for their futures.

The free elective system is a means of accomplishing most fully the original purposes of the new curriculum for junior high schools.

BOOKER T. has two new teachers, Miss Shirley Boone and William Cook.

Miss Boone, formerly at Dunbar High School, is teaching Spanish and English.

Mr. Cook is teaching physical education.

With the new term there are always beginners. Booker T. has seven 7B classes with an enrollment of 295.

The Future Nurses Club met Tuesday to hear a speech by Mrs. Morella Dickerson, a registered nurse at University Hospital.

Following a discussion period Mrs. Mary Peck, R.N., presented awards to the club members.

In attendance were Emma Dorsey, president, Janie John-son, secretary, Judy Carter, Magnolia Cannon and other members.

In Memoriam

The late WILLIAM F. BROOKS who passed away Feb. 17, 1956.

One year has gone and one year gone
It is hard to believe you have gone so soon.
Though I realize now you have
You were so faithful and virtuous I shall remember you always that
May the Lord bless and keep you.
Until we meet again.

$5,500 bail set in lottery case

"In attempting to remove the paper from his mouth, when we didn't get, he did bite my finger," declared Officer Jones Mathias of the Rackets Division, Wednesday, in Northwestern Police Court before Magistrate Linwood G. Koger Sr.

Frank Straton, 56, and Mrs. Sallie Straton, 38, both of the 1300 block Argyle Ave., were held in $2,500 bail for grand jury action on lottery charges.

An additional $500 bail was placed on Mr. Straton on a charge of assault by biting Officer Mathias.

Sgt. Robert Hosler said that police had approached Mr. Straton in the 1300 block Argyle Ave., Tuesday morning and as they did he tore off a corner of a newspaper and stuck it in his mouth.

It was while they scuffled to recover the paper that Officer Mathias received a cut on his finger, it was testified.

Police said that more than $100 in numbers play was found in a house in the 1300 block Argyle Ave., as well as numerous slips and two cards showing winning numbers.

Information on income tax returns available

"Beware the ides of March."

There was a time, prior to an act of Congress, when it was hard to tell whether a person quoting this literary warning around the first of the year was citing from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" or making a snide remark about the deadline for filing income tax forms.

Congressional action in 1957 moved the deadline date (sans penalties) from March 15 to April 15. However, for those of us who have not filed our income tax returns for 1956, the caustic warning, "Beware the ides of April," is still timely.

For, the ides of April (April 13, according to the Roman calender) falls on a Saturday, which only allows two additional days to settle any tax indebtedness with Uncle Sam without penalties.

THE UNITED STATES Treasurry Department is offering as a public service free information to persons who are having difficulty filling out the tax return form, it was learned at a tax information service is being operated by the department at 222 E. Redwood St. for those seeking this free help. A large staff of advisors are at the office on Mondays and Fridays.

Richard Edelstein, tax information officer, explained that many Baltimoreans may receive the needed aid in filing their returns simply by asking for the Tax Information Service at PLaza-2-8460.

So far, the information office said, the Internal Revenue has received approximately 68,000 such telephone calls from persons seeking information on tax returns.

* * *

OUT OF 1,650,000 taxpayers in the Baltimore District, 300,000 have already mailed in their 1956 tax returns, according to Mr. Edelar. He said the incoming returns are running a little ahead of last year, but he stressed that taxpayers should file as early as possible.

The earlier the forms are sent in, the sooner refunds are sent to persons making overpayments.

Last year 90,000 refunds, representing approximately $8,000,000 have been sent out so far, according to the information officer.

Would-be teachers have choice of eleven schools

In addition to the five state teachers colleges there are three other public colleges and several private schools in Maryland offering four-year courses in teacher education, preparing students for the teaching profession.

1. This information was contained in a recent "fact card" issued by the Maryland Council on Education for the benefit of high school pupils interested in teaching.

The five teachers colleges were listed as:

COPPIN—Located in Baltimore with a current enrollment of 294. No facilities for on-campus residence. Training for elementary teachers.

BOWIE—Located in Bowie, Md. Total enrollment is 314. College fees for room and board, let at $216. Training for elementary and junior high school teachers.

FROSTBURG—In Frostburg, Md. Enrollment is 629. Has a junior college and provides training for elementary and junior high school teachers. Room and board cost $216.

SALISBURY — In Salisbury. There are 428 students. Training offered for elementary and junior high school teachers. Also has a junior college. College fees for room and board are $216.

TOWSON—Located in Towson. Largest teachers college with enrollment of 1,209. Elementary and junior high school training. Has a junior college. Room and board cost $216.

All of these schools are coeducational. There is no tuition charge if the student pledges to teach for two years after graduation in the public schools of Maryland.

* * *

OTHER PUBLIC schools are: MORGAN—In Baltimore. Offers secondary teacher training. Tuition is $118 and fees for room and board run to $416. Enrollment is 2,006.

MARYLAND STATE COLLEGE—At Princess Anne. Secondary teacher training offered. Tuition is $118 and fees for room and board run to $416. Enrollment is 2,006.

MARYLAND STATE COLLEGE—At Princess Anne. Secondary teacher training offered. Tuition is $118 and fees for room and board run to $416. Enrollment is 2,006.

School 183 has new name

Junior High School No. 183 at Carrollton and Lafayette streets has the former home of Carver Vocational, has been renamed the Carrollton Junior High School.

The action was taken at last week's meeting of the Board of School Commissioners during which Carroll S. Rankin, administrative assistant to the superintendent's office, was appointed principal of the new Edmondson Senior High School No. 400.

Other actions by the board included:

Appointment of the following persons as helping teachers: Marjorie Prout, No. 101; Gladyce Gardner, No. 141; Rosalind Lee, No. 101; Vernice Matthews, No. 148; Milton Murray, No. 110.

* * *

J. HAYWOOD HARRISON, No. 181, and Norman R. Uncles, 106, were elected secondary teachers following the end of their probationary period.

Resignations were accepted from: Anna F. Brown, No. 101; Pearl F. Butler, No. 135; Byrdie B. Kellum, School No. 107; Ira E. Taylor, No. 102.

It was also reported that School No. 138 had requested permission to purchase two three speed phonographs out of school funds and No. 149 wanted to accept a liquid duplicating machine from the PTA.

P.O. group to seek pay raise

A rally sponsored by the joint legislative committee of post office organizations will be held at 8 p.m., Feb. 16, 8 p.m. at Polytechnic Institute, North Ave. near Calvert St.

Aim of the rally is to gain support for a pay raise. The meeting will urge Congressmen to support the Morrison Bill (H.R. 2474) and Johnson Bill (Senate Bill s27) which would give all postal workers a $1,200 annual pay raise.

Francis Filbey, general chairman and president of the National Federation of Post Office Clerks, Local 181, will preside at the rally.

Invited to speak at the rally are the state's two senators, John Marshall Butler and J. Glenn Beall; and the following Congressmen; Richard E. Langford, Samuel Friedel, James Devereux, George Fallon, Edward Garmatz, Edward Miller and Dewitt S. Hyde.

* * *

ZATIONS sponsoring the rally are: United Association of Post Office Clerks, Branch No. 4; National Alliance of Postal Employees, Baltimore Branch.

Also, the National Association of Letter Carriers, Local 176; National Federation of Motor Vehicle Employees, Locals 47 and 33; National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, Local No. 181; National Postal Transportation Association, 2nd and 3rd divisions.

Four youths face court

Four, young men charged with criminal assault by carnally knowing and abusing an 18-year-old girl Thursday night, were held for grand jury action without bail by Magistrate Linwood G. Koger Sr., Tuesday in Northwestern Police Court.

Charged with Robert Hamm Jr., 24, 2100 block Division St.; Thomas Hamilton, 19, 2300 block Pennsylvania Ave.; Joseph Stewart, 30, alias, 'Track,' 2200 block Bruce St.; and Curtis Dredden, 22, 1200 block Nolan Ct.

The 18-year-old girl testified that she had gone to a Pennsylvania Ave. tavern, seeking her sister. Upon leaving the tavern, she said she got into a car with the four defendants and a fifth youth, still sought by police.

* * *

SHE SAID the defendants had wine in the car which she shared with them.

She added that one of the defendants "took his fist and hit me twice."

Douglass PTA sponsors cooking show

By LOUISE SILER

A cooking and appliance show sponsored by the PTA of Douglass High School will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 19-20, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The PTA is sponsoring the show to help finance its program for next semester.

The money will be used to help needy and worthy students, for scholarships, books for the library, and other civic projects.

Demonstrators will be present to acquaint people with time saving and labor saving appliances available. Household chores door prizes will be given out and the admission is free.

Members of the Modern Charm Club are helping to train models for a style show.

The models are: Misses Barbara Battle, Dee Dee Jones, Ora Reckling, Myrny Cox, Betty Freeman, Mary Lee Cox, Binah Phillips, Estellene Cole, and Annette Holly.

Fight polio now, Md. dentists urge

Polio immunization began this week in a number of special school clinics organized by the Department of Health.

The vaccine will be injected by school physicians on their regular school visits in order to increase the incidence of polio protection throughout the city.

The Maryland Dental Society has joined in urging the prevention of polio with polio vaccine.

While school children will be the only ones effected by these clinics, there are other sources of the vaccine available to persons who have not received them.

Immunization shots are available free of charge at the following clinics:

620 N. Caroline St., Tuesdays at 12:30 p.m.

2817 Oakley Ave., Fridays at 8:30 a.m.

3411 Bank St., Thursdays at 12:30 p.m.

In Memoriam

FOWLER — In loving memory of our brother and father, SAMUEL N. FOWLER, SR., who passed away Feb. 16, 1956.
Dear memory of you will always live with us.
Sister — LAURETTA JONES
Son — SAMUEL N. FOWLER, JR.

JACKSON — In loving memory of our beloved daughter and sister, LEONA, who passed away Feb. 16, 1956.
Broken is the family circle,
Our dear one has passed away;
Passed from earth and earthly surroundings,
Into bright and perfect day.
But we must at once be singing
O'er the grave of her we love,
Strive to be prepared to meet her
In the better world above.
Loving

JOHNSON — In memory of my husband, DR. C. CLIFTON JOHNSON, who died Friday, February 17, who passed away in 1952.
When one you care for has departed
And is all alone and broken-hearted
There is something in a kindred mind,
That always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship we know,
The pain it was to see you go
Yet memory solace every time
We think of your untimely death its sting.
To who loved you, sadly miss you
And in lonely hours of sorrow
Your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You are with us everyday.

Fondly remembered,
Sweet happy memories cling
'round your name;
True hearts that loved you
Feel the deepest affection,
Always will love you in death just the same.
THE FAMILY

WILLIAMS—In loving memory of our dear father, JOHN W. WILLIAMS, who passed away July 5, 1919, and our dear mother, ISABELLA SORRELL WILLIAMS, who passed away February 16, 1939:
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all,
And though the years be many or few
They are filled with remembrance
Dear Father of you.
Sweet memory, Mother, to us is a keepsake
With which we will never part.
Though God has you in His keeping
We still have you in our hearts.
Some day we'll meet, and never part.
