Parking lot case to grand jury

The parking lot case involving Mrs. Martha Jeter, 500 block W. Paca St. and Inspector Stanley A. Czarl was sent to the grand jury Wednesday.

Mrs. Jeter is charged with failure to grade or hard surface the lot; failure to provide fences or bumper blocks and failure to comply with a permit requesting certain improvements.

Mrs. Jeter has accused the city inspector of calling her insulting racial names and telling her to: "Give me $15 now and $25 when business gets better," or else suffer a hard time.

State's attorney, J. Harold Grady is investigating the bribe charge.

Mrs. Juanita Jackson Mitchell, attorney for Mrs. Jeter, noted that since this case, carpooling, parking lot violators, within 200 feet of Mrs. Jeter who previously had not been summoned into court, have been issued tickets.

Alcoholic needs help without loss of status, expert says

"Community apathy, stigmatism, ostracism and misconceptions are preventing the alcoholic from seeking treatment that would arrest his disease," James Gilliam told members of the Northwest Inter-Agency Committee recently. The meeting was held at St. James Episcopal Church.

Mr. Gilliam attributed much of the alcoholic's plight to the failure of the community to consider his illness as a disease in the same light and respect as it does the individual that has tuberculosis, diabetes or cancer.

Mr. Gilliam is the Assistant Manager of Lafayette Court and a part-time psychiatric social worker for the Section on Alcohol Studies for the Maryland Department of Health.

He is a graduate of Morgan State College and received his M.A. degree from the School of Social Work of Howard University.

Mr. Gilliam estimated that there are 4½ million alcoholics in America out of a drinking population of 70 million and that there are 50 thousand or more alcoholics in Maryland.

He emphasized that alcoholism in no respecter of race, creed, sex, wealth or social standing. He grimly stated that it is considered one of the major illnesses of our time in reference to wide-spread affliction and the number of people adversely affected.

One of the misconceptions Mr. Gilliam explained, is the one that says that the individual in the higher socio-economic level of society does not become an alcoholic.

This seemingly might be considered factual since he is seldom seen in the court because of his drinking habits.

However, Mr. Gilliam explained that it is also true that the individual in the higher socio-economic bracket is generally not brought into court to have his "dirty linen aired" although he might have struck his wife, neglected his family or insulted his neighbor.

Why isn't he in court? The answer is simple, said Mr. Gilliam, "Bringing him into court might cost him a very lucrative job, rejection by his family, and a lower but social status. THEREFORE, often, his wife, his family and his neighbors are very reticent to subject him or themselves to such humiliation even though he might not admit that he is an alcoholic and or seek aid for his disease.

On the other hand, "poor Joe Dokes" in the lower socio-economic level and guilty of committing the same offense, is very often brought into court by a member of his family, his neighbors or others that he has offended to answer charges brought against him and to show cause why he should not be punished.

The definition of an alcoholic is not adequate, said Mr. Gilliam, because the complexity of the disease defies an accurate answer by the experts at this time.

He added that a simple definition would consider a compulsory drinker an alcoholic.

It takes about 10 to 15 years for one to become an alcoholic.

To an alcoholic, Mr. Gilliam continued, the first drink is his downfall because after that drink, there is a possibility that he might not know what he will or will not do next. However, if he can refrain from taking that first drink, then he can be saved. However, although even if he never takes another drink, as Mr. Gilliam, he is still an alcoholic.

Alcoholic Anonymous is without a doubt one of the best answers for the alcoholic's problem, said Mr. Gilliam, but because of the different human make up and because everybody does not respond to the same treatments.

A. A. and other interested agencies would be more effective in helping the alcoholic if the ostracism and stigmatism attached were eliminated and he could seek and without fear of embarassment or lost of social or economic status.

Mr. Gilliam declared that the important factor in the rehabilitation of an alcoholic is that he should not be considered a bum, a "no gooder" and or a disgrace to society and that he should be placed in the same category of other chronic ill persons.

• • •

MR. GILLIAM expressed hope that the clergy and other community leaders will pitch in to change the misconceptions, beliefs and attitudes of society toward the alcoholic. He declared that what the alcoholic needs is compassion instead of criticism, ostracism or stigmatism.

Others present at this meeting were, Atty. Solomon Baylor, Chairman and, Alexander Woodhous - Northwest Community Council; Don Frank, Urban Renewal Officer; Officer Gardner Elsey - Police Department, Vernon Sheffey - Juvenile Court;

Also Cecil Ryan, Council of Social Agencies, W. Morgan Jones, Baltimore Big Brothers, Inc.; Dale Ulrich, Brotherhood Pilot House; the Rev. Marcus Wood, Providence Baptist Church; William M. Gardner and Miss Jan Drake, Housing Bureau; William L. Rand, Boy Scouts of America, Inc.,

Also the Rev. Reginald J. Daniels, Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, the Rev. O. St. Clair Franklin, Mt. Zion Methodist Church; Miss Margaret Beckner, Family and Children's Society; George Tallaferro, Lafayette Square Community Center and Father Cedric Mills - St. James Episcopal Church.

Women represented at Lane swearing-in

Mrs. Ethel Daniels of 2302 Alto Rd., president of the New Ashburton Colored Women's Democratic Club, represented the group at the swearing-in ceremonies for Judge Everett Lane.

The affair was held in the New People's Court Building with Governor McKeldin officiating. Mrs. Victorine Adams is city-wide chairman of the Democratic Women's Clubs.

DR. MORON HONORED

'Art loan' blocked

"The city cannot stand such a tax load at this time."

That statement from the Board of Estimates Wednesday defeated a move to obtain a $9,000,000 loan for the expansion of the Walters Art Gallery at Charles and Centre.

The Board was advised to vote to the loan at the request of the finance committee which stated the loan "would not be advisable at this time because the city's credit rating might suffer if new debts rose much higher."

• • •

PHILLIP B. Perlman, president of the galleries' Board of Trustees told the Board: "You cannot begin to appreciate the gravity of the action you have taken this day."

In scolding the board members Mr. Pearlman stated:

"The Finance Committee is not concerned about the art gallery. They have never been in it before."

In one other action, the Board of Estimates agreed to send to the General Assembly a $165,000 loan request for expansion of the city zoo, greenhouses at Cylburn Park and an addition to the Mt. Pleasant Club House.

The Bureau of Parks had asked for $1,000,000.

In Memoriam 1

BRISCOE — In loving memory of my dear husband, ARTHUR H. BRISCOE, who passed away January 30, 1947.

We wished together you and I,
In sorrow and in joy:
We shared our joys and happiness
With love without alloy.
And death shall never part our love,
For through the mist I see,
Our glad reunion in the skies,
For all eternity.

LOVING WIFE,
LAVINIA

MOORE — In loving memory of my dear sister, SARAH JANE MOORE, who passed away February 4, 1926.

Only God knows how I miss you,
Long for hours and yearn for you.
But I'm hoping, trusting, praying,
That some day we'll meet again.

Loving sister,
OLIVA BUTLER

RICHARD — In sad but loving memory of my husband and our father, JOSEPH W. RICHARD, who passed away January 30, 1939.

Today our hearts are heavy,
Our thoughts are all of time,
We miss a warm and loving smile
None but God in Heaven can see.
Time may dim most pain but leave an aching heart,
But it isn't true,
For many long years have passed and still
And our hearts still grieve for you.

Loving wife,
ELLA R. KELLY
Son,
HILDA A. WALTER RICHARD
And Other Loved Ones

RICHARDSON—In loving memory of my dear mother, JOSEPHINE RICHARDSON, who passed away January 30, 1954.

Mother, I miss you, since God called you away!
Long at your picture seems to brighten the day!
Mother I know it was God's will,
But in my heart you liveth still.

Your Loving Daughter,
DOROTHY WARDLOW

SMITH — In loving memory of our dear mother, LAURA SMITH, who passed away two years ago, February 5, 1955.

Though you left our mother dear,
God has called you to rest
No one knows how much we miss you
Or how
Only God can ever tell.

SADIE, ALICE, ANNIE
AND GRANDCHILDREN.

WATSON — In memory of our son, MACEO, who passed away five years ago, February 2, 1952.

You left behind two broken hearts
Dear boy you met sincere.
That never did not ever will
Forget your Memories.
