Questions by Mr. Sheffield:

Q. The testimony you have just given to the Court from this plat, you say that it is a fair representation of the premises in question, of the land in question today, is that correct?

A. Yes

Q. It is a fair representation and if you could point them out in actuality from where we are now could you do it? If you were to go on the land could you point out these same points?

A. Yes.

Q. Could you point out these boundaries and the different lines you have just testified to?

A. Yes

Q. To the best of your knowledge, information and belief, no one has ever disputed the title or who owned that land in question?

A. I never heard of it and I think I would have heard if there had been any question of it.

Nothing further.
